Chief Counsel for McNamara Brothers Indicted by Inquisitors Who Investigated Matters Growing Out of Trial.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Lox Angeles, Jan. 29.—Clarence Dar-ow, chief counsel for the McNamara POW. brothers, was named in two indictments returned today by the Los Angeles coungrand jury which investigated matters growing out of the McNamara trial. first indictment contained one It charged bribery in connection The first count Robert F. Bain, a McNamara juror

The second indictment contained two counts. It was returned in connection with the affair of prospective Juror George N. Lockwood, The first count charmed bribery and the second corruptly influencing or attempting to influence one drawn as a juror.

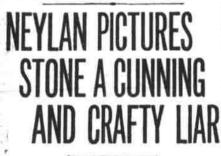

The jury made its report to Presiding Judge Hutton of the county superior court. Judge Hutton immediately caused a bench warrant to issue for the arrest of Darrow. It was handed to a bailiff for service.

"I have repeatedly stated that I never had anything to do with an attempt to 'fix' a juror, and that I never knew anything about such an attempt. "I now reiterate that statement,

"I shall fight my case vigorously and I confidently believe that in a fair trial I shall be acquitted.

"I cannot talk specifically of the case at this time. The statement above explains my attitude.

Asylum Superintendent "Confessed Embezzler and Perjurer," Declares Investigator; Immunity Talk Untrue.

(United Press Lensed Wire.) Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 29.-Scathing answers to allegations that he broke faith in making public his report of investigations into alleged corruption and incompetence in the management of the Napa state hospital for the insane was made here today by John F. Neylan of the state board of control.

Neylan declares that Dr. Stone, super-Intendent of the asylum, "lied shame-lessly" when he asserted that he was promised immunity. Neylan's statement says:

"Dr. Elmer E. Stone is a confessed embezzler and perjurer and after a career of crime is leaving the public service in disgrace. He is without honor, is cunning and crafty and is now endeavoring to save himself from the peniten-

Drop tea and coffee absolutely.

Now for breakfast: Some fruit, fresh or stewed; a saucer of Grape-Nuts with cream; a slice or two of crisp toast, thinly buttered, and a cup of hot Postum. No more.

That will carry you until lunch time, when the same articles can be used, and add a little hot, clear soup.

Take dinner at 6 to 7 o'clock, and have a generous portion of meat, only one kind. Cut out the soup and fish, have 2 vegetables and a Grape-Nuts pudding, a cup of Postum (which will not keep you awake) and one or two slices of buttered toast. QUIT THERE.
