Seeks Release of Eastwick—An effort is being made in the county court to secure the release of Ben C. Eastwick from the Mountain View sanitarium, where he was confined a few weeks ago upon action of the county court. Euphemia Eastwick, his mother, has started the action. Attorney Harrison Allen is administrator for him, and the matter will come before Judge Cleeton this week. Eastwick is a brother of Major Phil C. Eastwick, who was major of the Second Oregon regiment in the Spanish-American war. The latter is now manager of the International Banking corporation at Panama. Ben C. Eastwick was recently divorced. His wife charged cruelty in her complaint for divorce. Attorney Allen replies to the mother that the son is still unsafe to be at large, and that he should be kept in the sanitarium for a short time.

C. 400 in Greece to the present day, the first club being in New York city 42 years ago. She said there are 1198 clubs in this country, with 8000 members. She spoke of the work in the educational line, of the loan fund for the assistance of students, of the work for pure foods and drugs, and of the coming campaign for the woman's ballot. He also said that he was not one of the men who was seen leaving the building shortly before the fire was discovered. On the night of the fire, according to Mr. Kaady, he and a friend were in the store until about 12:30, when he went to his home, three blocks distant. He said that several witnesses could prove that he was home at the time of the fire. He says certain neighbors have been circulating false reports about him.

The buttons for the day, each of which represents a membership in the association, have been ordered printed to the number of 10,000. A committee from the Woman's club will join with the membership committee in planning for the Greater Portland day.

Frame Buildings Damaged — The frame buildings at 650, 652 and 654 First street, owned by L. Shank and K. Shank of 312 Front street, were damaged early this morning when a fire broke out in the picture frame factory of I. W. Weinberg, at 652 First street. The heaviest losers in the fire are H. Seventeen head of horses in a stable at the rear of the buildings, owned by different merchants of South Portland, were rescued by the police and others. In getting the horses to the street one of the animals fell through the sidewalk to the basement and it was with difficulty that it was extracted. Another one of the animals, which was blind, almost ran down Police Captain Keller, as it as taken from the barn. This horse, which is owned by a street vender, could not be found this forenoon.

Bergenson was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Martin, at 506 Goldsmith street. This morning his wife appeared in court and declared that she has supported the man by factory work, washing and other drudgery for four years, and that for the past nine months he has done nothing for her support. The man begged to be allowed to go to work, and Judge Tazwell gave him a three months' job.

Laborer Loses His All—Julius Eichorn, a laborer, was swindled out of $7.50, all the money he had, last evening by a smooth-talking individual whom he met at the Mathieson hotel, 204 Columbia streets, who represented himself to be an employment agent for a railroad company. Eichorn had been promised employment at good wages on some railroad line, and was told to get ready to start. His alleged employer also prepared to leave the hotel, but according to the story told to the victim he was short of ready cash, and the clerk would not cash a check.

The Pacific States Fire Insurance company has already issued 9000 of Chief Campbell souvenir calendars, and requests are still coming in. The company is prepared to supply all who desire a copy. *
