CLOSED BANK TO BE REOPENED. HAZZARD VERDICT POSSIBLE SUNDAY. Defendant and Starved Girl's Sister Watch Every Move; Court Is Packed.

Plans for the reorganization and reopening of the American Bank & Trust company's bank which was closed December 18, are under way, and it is hoped to have the new institution ready for business early next month.

The capital of the new bank will be $250,000 or $300,000 more than that of the closed institution, and when it opens it will have on hand plenty of money to meet demands, it is said.

When the American bank closed its doors it had assets of $300,920, and depositors' accounts numbering 3274. A sudden demand made on Saturday for $45,000 in cash on Monday morning made the closing of the bank necessary.

The reorganization plan is developed to the extent that a large number of the heaviest depositors have approved it and are ready to have the new concern open for business at the earliest day.

The plan has been worked out by George L. MacGibbon, cashier of the closed bank, who has arranged temporary offices at 928 Chamber of Commerce building.

Prosecuting Attorney Stevenson began the argument for the charges yesterday afternoon and arraigned Dr. Hazzard as "a bird of prey, sending seductive literature to the weak, and lying in wait to pluck the feathers from unwary pigeons."

E. D. Karr made the argument for the defense, in which he referred to the prosecution of Dr. Hazzard as inspired by the fact that she was not a member of the regular school of physicians.

Mrs. Hazzard, who had appeared haggard and weary when the state's rebuttal evidence was going in, cheered up considerably when the state's first argument was over.

THRESHING MACHINE DEPOSITION CROPS

Idaho Commission Has Plan to Get Accurate Grain Reports.

Lewiston, Idaho, Feb. 3.—The Idaho grain commission will recommend a measure to the state legislature next winter that will provide for the licensing of all threshing machine operators in the state and require weekly reports of the grain threshed.

The report must show the threshing record by crops, the name and address of each farmer for whom work was performed, and the varieties of grain segregated.

At the present time the grain production is estimated from the reports submitted by the farmers with an estimate of the percentage of crop retained on the farms for feed and seed purposes.

STATEMENT OF ATTORNEY BATTLED AGAINST BY LAWYERS FOR PRIESTESS TINGLEY.

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 3.—Attorneys for Katherine Tingley, the principal defendant in the Thurston will contest suit, are today preparing to make a bitter fight against the admission of the deposition of Louis T. Knox, a New York attorney who saw the body of Mrs. Harriet Patterson-Thurston in a crematory at Hoboken soon after her death at Mrs. Tingley's summer home at Newburyport.

George Dilla, former chauffeur for Mrs. Tingley, who testified yesterday, produced a letter from Mrs. Tingley in which she urged him to remain at Point Loma.

"Do you remember any conversations you had with Mrs. Tingley in the middle of 1908, relative to the Pattersons being at the homestead?" he was asked.

"What was said in that conversation relative to the Patterson family?" Mrs. Tingley said to me that a streak of insanity ran in the family on the mother's side.

"The witness then stated that he had often taken Mrs. Patterson out in an automobile with Mrs. Tingley and told of a conversation that he had with Mrs. Patterson."

"The witness was asked his opinion of Mrs. Patterson's mental condition but this question was objected to."

"The deposition of Mrs. Harriet Patterson-Thurston, who for four years was a pupil at the Raja Yoga school conducted by Katherine Tingley, the theosophist leader who was left the bulk of Mrs. Patterson-Thurston's fortune, declares that the theosophists said many things to her in public about the family that were unkind."

"They brought up my mother's illness," she testified, "and told me that if I didn't stop doing certain things I would be the cause of my mother's death. I see all they wanted was to get money."

"The girl told how she had copied a letter, written by one of the theosophists, asking a superior court judge to appoint Mrs. Ethelind Dunn, another theosophist, as her guardian. This was at the time George L. Moore was the contestant in the case, sought to be appointed guardian."

CHARGES THAT DRIVER WILLINGLY SLEW MOORE. San Mateo, Cal., Feb. 3.—That Chauffeur Samuel R. Timothy willingly killed the revolver duel which ended in millionaire John J. Moore's death, is asserted by the state police here, who are investigating the tragedy at Moore's home here. Timothy has been formally charged with murder and will be arraigned for preliminary hearing Tuesday morning.

MARSHAL MORRIS BOLAND, who made the formal complaint contends that the charge is upheld by the testimony given before the coroner's jury at the inquest by Margaret L. Behrman, Mrs. Moore's maid, who testified that Timothy had plenty of opportunity to escape from Moore's attack before he fired the shot at 60 feet distance which killed the millionaire. No announcement has yet been made as to whether Mrs. Moore will testify at Timothy's hearing. The question whether she was in the automobile when Moore was slain, the chauffeur is still unclear. Mrs. Moore today is still in a state of collapse and has denied herself to all interviewers.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES REAL CAUSE OF TRAGEDY. Appleton, Wis., Feb. 3.—Three of the surviving members of the Maliland family declare that Louis Maliland, his son John, aged eight years, and his daughter Dora, 16 years old, found dead yesterday on their farm near Binghanton, were murdered by William Maliland, another son, who then committed suicide. Domestic troubles which brought on temporary insanity are said to have been responsible for the tragedy. The bodies of the victims were found by the three surviving sons of Maliland when they returned home from a school.

THE ENTIRE Maliland family, it was learned today, were in the last stages of tuberculosis. Five other members of the family, including Mrs. Maliland, the mother, died from the disease during the last four years. William Maliland, 30 surviving members of the family said today, suggested yesterday that the family take poison to escape a slow death. When his plan was not approved, it is charged, he killed the others, and committed suicide in an insane effort to carry out his scheme.

COLLIDED IN SNOW STORM. Norfolk, Va., Feb. 3.—The crippled British steamer Pomeran, which yesterday ran aground on the Chesapeake, caused the latter to sink 100 miles off the Chesapeake capes, arrived at Hampton Roads today, carrying the rescued passengers and crew of the Allegheny. The United States revenue cutter Onondaga accompanied the Pomeran to the coast and then returned to sea.

THE ALLEGHENY left New York yesterday for Central America and the West Indies. The collision occurred during a violent snowstorm.
