Rich Man's Son Who Is Not Afraid of Work

Frederick Almy Jr.

New York, Feb. 6.—Frederick Almy Jr., son of a millionaire woolen importer, who, until a short time ago, was a fireman on the Long Island railroad, and recently elevated to night assistant train master, has proved the example that although the son of a rich man, he has worked his way up through sheer pluck and good work. When asked how he came to pick railroading as a career he laughingly said that he always liked a locomotive, and likes the railroad life. Almy said that he has not missed the social side to the top of the railroad ladder.

SHOW STOPPED BY RETURNED FAVORITE

Miss Greenwood Given Ovation at Orpheum; Flying Ballet Headliner.

It is doubtful if any performer at the Orpheum has ever received a greater reception or greater ovation than was given Miss Charlotte Greenwood when she made her return here yesterday with Miss Eunice Burnham under the simple billing of "Two Girls and a Piano." Miss Greenwood is the young woman of elongated proportions who assumes an air for laughing purposes only. The act is little altered from last season. Miss Burnham's songs at the piano were well received, as they were before. Miss Greenwood makes more changes of costumes, and when she still maintained that she retained her girlish laughter the audience roared with joy. Stopping the show is too mild a term for "Two Girls and a Piano."

Julius Tannen, "Chatterbox," is another returned favorite accorded more than ordinary approval. Mr. Tannen brings a new line of chatter which takes like wildfire. He closed with a serious poem, and for a recall gave an imitation of De Wolf Hopper.

Pouchot's Flying Ballet comes in headline space as "The Act Beautiful." Six young women go through the beautiful evolutions of the ballet and close with a striking tableau after one has flown out over the audience. White doves are let fly from the gallery to the stage, where they perch on the heads and shoulders of the ballet members.

Wilfred Clarke & Co. won laughs galore in Mr. Clarke's sprightly new farce, "The Dear Departed." The skit abounds in action and unexpected situations. It is well staged with special scenery.

Ida O'Day & Co. return in "Betty's Bet," a vehicle much more warmly received than her offering last year. It is all comedy. Miss O'Day introduces a banjo specialty. She is supported by Frank Dekum, a Portland man, and John Hines, a primo favorite as the office boy.

An act that pleased was given by Hoford and Chain, black face and white. Songs and chatter make up the act with the big hit "Cullud" parson stunt. They won recalls.

The three Dooleys, Jed-Ethel-Bell, open the bill in an out of the ordinary cycle act sprinkled with laughs. The audience liked them.

Highbinder's Deportation Urged.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Feb. 6.—The Chinese Six companies today formally urged the United States authorities to deport all Chinese convicted of participation in long wars waged in American cities. Individually, members of the Six companies today refused to discuss the action, fearing to be marked for death. The vote was a secret one, and the petition to Washington is being carried by personal messengers.

Arizona's First Governor.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 6.—George W. P. Hunt will take the oath of office as the first governor of the state of Arizona, February 12 at noon. The announcement of the inauguration date was made today, following the receipt of advice by Attorney General Bullard that President Taft will sign the proclamation admitting Arizona to statehood Monday.

Harrison's Granddaughter Weds.
Washington, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Marathana Harrison, granddaughter of the late President Benjamin Harrison, today is the bride of Harry A. Williams Jr., of Norfolk, Va. Only relatives and intimate friends attended the wedding.

Stamp Out "Dope Ring."
San Francisco, Feb. 6.—Sheriff Eggers and Superintendent Gilfeather of the county jail have stamped out a "dope ring" in the county jail. Thirteen prisoners sentenced for violation of the poison law, were today taken out of the line of trustees, and for the first time since enactment of the law making it a felony to carry "dope" into jail, offenders are being made to answer.

EXPRESS COMPANIES UNDER MICROSCOPE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Feb. 6.—Express companies of the country, accused of overcharging the public, are under investigation today by the interstate commerce commission, and plans are being made for their prosecution by the government.

Wholesale and flagrant violations of the law are alleged against big firms operating in New York, Chicago and San Francisco. Heavy fines will be asked by the commission. Several federal grand juries are to be asked to return indictments, which will be against the companies, not individual officials.

A LITTLE SAGE AND SULPHUR MAKES THE GRAY HAIRS VANISH

A Harmless Way to Darken Hair; Simple Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Special agent, Owl Drug Co.
