

CHADBOURNE PUTS NAME TO CONTRACT

Holdout Outfielder's Signed Missive Arrived Today—Also Catcher Howley's.

Chadbourne, the fleetfooted outfielder of the Portland Beavers, who has signed his contract and will report at Santa Maria just as soon as his transportation arrives. Chadbourne has wintered at Ocean Park, near Los Angeles. In his letter to Judge McCredie he stated that he was in good shape and would play a better game than last year for the Beavers.

Catcher Dan Howley, who is wintering at Boston, also sent in his signed contract this morning and stated that he will leave for the west as soon as his transportation arrives.

"I am glad to know that Chadbourne has signed," said Manager McCredie this morning. "Chadbourne wanted to play east this year, and he would have gone if we could have arranged a suitable trade for him, but it was impossible to do so. He is one of the best outfielders in the minor leagues."

Now that Krueger, Chadbourne, Strait and Peters are signed up, it looks as if my outfield will be well looked after. Howley accepted terms some time ago and his contract was expected any day.

The news is welcome to the fans, with whom Chad is immensely popular.

BLUEBLOODS ONLY TO SEE POLO GAME

San Mateo Polo Club Will Be Very Exclusive Entertaining Britishers.

(Special to The Journal.) San Francisco, Feb. 12.—No less a social arbiter than William L. Brees, chairman of the committee directing the big polo tournament that will open next Wednesday on El Cerrito field at Hillsborough, has limited the favored circle of the Peninsula swagardom set to just 72 members.

For the initial tournament of the San Mateo polo club, Brees has decided to erect just 12 boxes, each with a seating capacity of six and there exists a strenuous scramble for them among the beaux and belles.

Unless Brees should locate additional social lights, whom he deems worthy of box seats, 12 will be the limit. Indications are the original number will not be changed, notwithstanding the pressure that is being brought to bear to this end.

Mobility Is Coming.

The coming of Lord Tweedmouth, Lord Alister Lewison-Gower and Lord Reginald Herbert as members of one of the three visiting teams makes the battle for social supremacy interesting in the extreme.

The membership of the San Mateo polo club is in the neighborhood of four score and it has been figured out that there are just enough boxes to go around.

However, Charles Templeton Crocker, Miss Jennie A. Crocker, Henry T. Scott, Mountford S. Wilson, George A. Newhall and George A. Pope, are not among the members. Two years ago when the British four played at El Cerrito, Miss Crocker witnessed a game from the bleachers where she had driven in her big motor car with Mrs. M. S. Wilson.

Thirteen Days of Sport.

The tournament will consist of 13 days of play, which will be principally on the club's field at El Cerrito. Charles W. Clark's private field at El Palomar and Francis J. Carolans field in Burlingame, known as Crossways farm, are to be used for several of the minor events.

The local club will be represented by three teams among whom are the following players: Walter E. Hobart, W. L. Brees, T. A. Driscoll, R. M. Tobin, George Cameron, W. S. Tevis, Jr., O. C. Pratt, Paul Verdier, Harry Hastings, W. B. Devereaux, E. W. Howard and George Garritt.

Lords Tweedmouth, Lewison-Gower, and Herbert with Walter Dupes will fly the British colors. The three Welsh brothers, Reggie, Tom and Harry, and Carleton Burke will comprise the four on the Pasadena club, while Major Colin Ross, T. Hobbs, H. Snowden and H. Norton will represent the Calgary club of Canada.

Y. M. C. A. RUNNERS TO MEET PACIFIC FRIDAY

The Y. M. C. A. relay team will run against the Pacific University team on the local indoor track next Friday evening. The race will be for eight miles and a close finish is expected, as the runners on both teams are the best in the two institutions.

A basketball game will be played after the race is finished.

A French scientist has combined wireless receiving apparatus, an aneroid barometer and recording pens to form apparatus with which the approach of thunder storms is forecast with remarkable accuracy.

THINKS AMERICAN GAME GOING BACK

Don Walker Looks for Rugby to Be Played in Few Years.

Don Walker, a former member of the Multnomah club football team, and now superintendent of that institution, believes that the American football game will reach the English rugby style again after a lapse of nearly half a century, if the rule makers change it much more.

Walker stated that he would rather see rugby played in the northwestern colleges than intercollegiate football. "I like the rugby game a great deal better than college football," he said, "and would like very much to see it taken up among the colleges in this section of the country."

Speaking of the new rules, Walker stated that the shortening of the field would have no effect on the play. Under the present rules of the game a weak team receives enough assistance to show up better than under the old rules.

Forward passing over the goal line, according to Walker, will make a great many more touchdowns possible. Speaking without studying the rules to any extent, Walker says: "The game will be more open than ever and will not be difficult for a spectator's standpoint, but believe that they will soon fall back to the old rugby game."

Avoids Missing Near Goal.

Hugh Boyd, who has officiated in the local games for several seasons, states that the game under the new rules will be more open, and it will allow more plays when the offensive team is near the goal. Under the 1911 rules a team had to be twice as strong as its opponents, he said, in order to make 10 yards, but the new rules give both the weak and strong teams an equal chance at making yardage.

Other football players and coaches who have been interested in the new football rules state that the game will be more open and that more work will fall on the shoulders of the quarterback and the officials. The field judge's disposal by the rules committee means that the head linesman will have to watch the offside plays and also the forward passes over the goal line.

NATIONAL SOCCER ELEVEN IS WINNER

After playing for over a month to decide the winner of Section 1 of the Archer-Wiggins league, the Mohawks finally defeated the Frank E. Watkins team by the score of 3 to 0. The game ended in a dispute, but according to a number of spectators and Eugene O'Neill a field goal kicked by Derbyshire, of the Watkins team, did not count.

The Frank E. Watkins team played right around the Mohawks during the first part of the game, but slowed up in the second half to some extent.

In the third quarter Herzog tried a drop kick and was successful, giving the Mohawks the right to send Sunnyside team for the championship and the trophy.

L. Crowe and W. Woodworth were both seriously injured in collision, and will not be able to be around for some time.

The championship game will be played either next Saturday or Sunday on the Columbia club's field at Sunnyside. The teams lined up as follows:

INDOOR CHAMPIONS TOO MUCH FOR PROS

Rupert's Team Defeats Steen's Bunch After Choking Up Rally.

Red Rupert's indoor champions defeated Bill Steen's outdoor professional yesterday afternoon on the Armory diamond by the score of 18 to 6. The Rupert team batted Henderson for 19 batters, while 10 were made off Field.

Garrett, Menor and Casey showed up in fine form on the indoor diamond and batted well. Harkness quit in the sixth inning and Maxmeyer took his place in right field. Nick Williams and Casey were also quick in the middle of the game and failed to see the rally, which netted the outdoor players five runs in the ninth inning.

Fiesel held the outdoor champs safe for three innings, when Garrett singled after two were down and Ahern and Menor walked. Henderson beat out a hit to first base and Garrett scored. Williams failed to be a pinch hitting hero and fanned.

In the ninth inning the outdoor champs started a rally. Ahern walked and Menor flied out. Henderson singled and Ketterman was safe on McConnell's error. With the bases set, Foster Casey tripled and three runners scored. Bill Steen grounded out and Garrett walked. Maxmeyer after taking two healthy swings connected with one for two bases and Casey and Garrett were on the base paths for the second time, but Henderson grounded out, ending the game.

The Rupert team scored five runs in the first inning. A run was scored in each of the second, third and fourth innings. They were blanked in the fifth inning. Two runs were scored in the sixth inning, two in the seventh and one in the eighth.

Menor, Henderson, Williams, Casey and Ahern were the best of the style for Steen's nine, while Frank Menor, Briggs, Gaines, Peterson and Turk did the heavy batting for Rupert.

(Special to The Journal.) Lansing, Mich., Feb. 12.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh is coming to Lansing tomorrow to add to the gayety of the Republican situation by making a speech to the Republicans of Michigan on the subject of "What is Progressive?" for his topic. The secretary will be the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Zach Chandler club in this city tomorrow night. The occasion is designed to mark the beginning of a period in the Taft campaign, during which increased effort will be made to impress upon the country that President Taft has been a great benefactor to the people and that progressivism is the watchword of his administration as much as it is of the insurgents.

JEFF'S INTIMATES EXPECT SOMETHING

Reno "Goat" Denies, However, That He Expects to Fight Again.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Feb. 12.—Persistent stories that Jim Jeffries may return to the ring for another chance at Jack Johnson are furnishing much material for talk in fight circles today. While the big fellow explicitly denied that he intends to try again, his brother Jack admits that such a thing has been suggested, and that Jim is giving the matter some thought. Jim still holds that he was done on the day of the memorable Reno affair and the mention of the name of Johnson brings a frown to his brow.

Jeffries' intimate friends would not be surprised to see him engage in light training during his proposed hunting trip next month.

Welsh and Klaus at Work.

San Francisco, Feb. 12.—Freddie Welsh and Frank Klaus, headliners of the rival boxing shows to be staged here February 22, got down to the hard grind of training today. Both Klaus and Welsh predicted today that they would win their respective battles by knockouts.

Attell Stops Boxing.

Los Angeles, Feb. 12.—A three quarter inch out above Abe Attell's right eye will keep the little champion from beginning his actual training for his match with Johnny Kilbane until Thursday or Friday. The injury was received when Attell and his sparring partner, Roscoe Taylor, met in a head-on collision during an exchange of wallops at Derby's camp yesterday. Attell declared that the out, while it would keep him from working for several days, will not seriously hamper his training.

Papke arrived here late Saturday night, worked loose his muscles at Vernon yesterday and made the following statement today.

"I won the world's championship under Tom Jones and since I left him I have not been myself. Tom is a kind of a daddy to his boys, and it gives you confidence to have him around.
