Latta of the Lillian apartments, on the night of February 10. A letter delivered and believed to have been written by Curtis, in which $25 was demanded for the return of the jewelry stolen, led to the arrest of this man at the Rex hotel. The man under arrest asserts that the letter was given to him by a stranger to deliver to Mrs. Latta, but this theory is disproved.

Patrolman Doused—To be doused with a bucket of cold water, thrown from a window in the Scott hotel, and then have it soak through his clothes, was the experience of Patrolman Mallon, while on his beat at an early hour a few mornings ago. The thrower of the water was not captured, although the patrolman visited many rooms in the building. Shortly after 2 o'clock in the morning, Mallon stopped two suspicious characters. Both men had started in to explain why they were on the street after hours when down came the water with a loud splash.

Children Get Car Fare—Patrolman Helms acted the part of the good Samaritan to seven small Jewish children who had assembled at the stage door of the Bungalow theatre in anticipation of being enlisted as "supers" there. The

QUOTE THE PESSIMIST

"Flusher Mudd never seems 't tell anybody what a great feller he 's until he gets on er crowded streetcar."

Little fellows were crying when Helms passed and he asked what the matter was. "The man said he wanted me to get six boys for the show tonight, and now he don't want us," sobbed one little fellow. "Now we are afraid to go home and we have not car fare." Helms found the manager of the theatre company, who grew very angry at the interference, and finally convinced the manager that he had better give the little fellows car fare, which he finally did.

Sons of Veterans—Sons of Veterans, Active camp No. 47, E. of V., held an enthusiastic and lively meeting at its temporary lodge room at Albina and Killingsworth avenues, this week. Good reports looking toward a substantial increase in membership were heard. This camp expects to secure arms and uniforms in the near future, and hopes to have the largest camp in this state by Memorial day, and be in a position to assist the G. A. R. post of St. Johns in its patriotic work. February 28 is the date of the next meeting and all Sons of Veterans are urged to be present.

Assaulted by Buffaloes—P. Valovich, employed by the Monarch Lumber company, reported to the police last night when he went to the Albina car shops to talk to a friend he was attacked by several men said to be strikers, who told him to stay away from the gate. He stated that the men beat and kicked him and then fled. The police went to the strikers' tent but no one was there. No arrests were made.

Disorderly Conduct Charge—E. J. Hambrecht, arrested at Seventh and Couch streets at an early hour this morning after Adelle Bebee had made complaint against him, was fined $50 this morning for carrying concealed weapons. 'Shoots Up' Saloon—A disorderly man wielding a loaded revolver from which he fired one shot in a saloon at Fourth and Sheridan streets last night started a panic in the saloon and resulted in a hurry call being sent to Patrolman Adams. Parker, accused in a government warrant, of having induced Mrs. Ingles, wife of a Portland business man, to accompany him to San Francisco, was brought back to Portland yesterday and placed in the custody of United States Marshal Scott. With him was the woman he had induced to go with him. He is charged with violation of the white slave act. Mrs. Ingles will be detained as a witness.

O. A. C. GLEE CLUB GIVES SPLENDID SHOW

Excellent training, good team work and the inevitable enthusiasm of a bunch of college boys made the concert of the Oregon Agricultural college glee and mandolin clubs a night to those who attended at the Heilig last night. Every dress suit worn by every singer or manipulator of a mandolin was worn with just the becoming degree of gravity. Every stage appearance was timed to exact exactness. Every sitting down and rising up was upon given signal. The program was long, but not too long, for it included "Barcarolle" by the glee club, and "The Spring Maid" by the mandolin club, while Chopin's "Polonaise," by Mr. Courson, on the piano, and the trombone solo by Mr. Woodcock furnished the proper artistic finish.

Incidentally the present concert tour of the agricultural college musicians furnishes a valuable reminder of the fact that at the college are a large number of wholesome, bright young fellows who are being trained into the high efficiency along practical industrial lines that was evidenced in their musical appearance last night.
