IN THE REALM FEMININE

Events in Society

Regiment Missionary Coming.

Francisco to be the guests of Mr. land Sunday and are and Mrs. Wallace McCamant for Hotel Portland. the remainder of the week. Since nding his life as a misisonary amous deep sen fishermen in Labrador and the porthern peninsula of Newfoundland. Or. Grenfell is an Englishman. He is sobably the most powerful medical missionary and one of the most remark-able men living. During his, stay in Portland he will give stereopticon lectures Friday evening at the First Congregational church and Saturday even-ing at Centenary M. E. church, Sunday morning he will speak in Trinity Episcopal church and in the eventing at First Presbyterian church. His lectures with or without the stereopticon are wonderful, interesting, instructive and inspiring. Dr. Grenfell will also speak in the ballroom of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett's home some time on Friday. * *

Prominent Wedding.

Wide interest was centered in the wedding of Miss Lillian O'Brien, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, and Coe. McKenna, celerated yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in St. Mary's cathedral. Archbishop Alexander Christie read the marriage service and Pather McDevitt said low mass. Frederich Goodrich presided at the organ and vocal numbers were sung by Mrs. James Alexander Ellis, Miss Irene Flynn and Dr. George Ainslie. The cathedral was beautifully decorated and filled with a host of friends. Miss Cornelia Stanley was maid of honor and Miss Mabel Shea was the bridesmaid. The bridegroom's attendants were Cassimir Campbell, best man, and Frederick Leeston-Smith. The shers were Dr. J. N. Coghlan, Frederick Martin, Joseph Cronin and Seaton Taylor. In the afternoon the O'Brien home was the scene of a brillant reception. In the dining room Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. Frederick S. Stanley, Mrs. H. C. Wortman and Mrs. Joseph Goodman pre-sided at the table. Mrs. Robert Smith with Mrs. William J. Lyons (Miss Hazel Tichner) served punch. Assisting further about the rooms were Mrs. Daniel McKenna left last evening for an extended wedding tour in the south. On their return they will be at home on Elizabeth street.

Informal Bridge,

To meet Mrs. J. F. Patterson and Mrs. Charles Smith, recently arrived from of bridge yesterday. Four tables were herself a lady should use slang, flirt made up with a corsage of violets as or permit fashions to set her crazy. I the favor at each table. Tulips were overhead a girl say the other day, used about the rooms. A number of "Just watch me flirt and catch a beau. guests came in later for tea. Mrs. I felt like saying that she would more Chance was assisted by her sister, Miss likely get an enemy or a foe. Just Constance King.

Pretty Home Wedding.

A pretty home wedding took place last evening at half past 8 o'clock, when if it is leap year. Make him take off Miss Mabel Simington, daughter of Mr. his hat and kneel to you. Were I abride of Lester Carlton McLeod of Astoria, Rev. W. S. Gilbert of First Presbyterian church, Astoria, officiating. eremony was performed in a ers and act on the advice their mothof palms and white carnations, ers give. They know this world far The bride wore a gown of cream crepe better than we do. meteor satin with elaborations of chantilly lace and pearls. The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Zollinger. Psims and daffodils were ed in the library and dining room, Mr. and Mrs. McLeod left on the Bear for San Francisco. They will travel in southern California for a couple of months and upon their return will make their home in Astoria, where Mr.

Mr. Heilig Entertains.

Calvin S. Heilig of Portland was host handsomely appointed breakfast given at the Tacoma hotel, in Tacoma, Friday in bonor of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. and of Pittsburg and Miss Arthur of Milwaukee.

Lancheon Compliment.

Random Notes.

Mrs. Alexander Baillie and her daugh-RIDAY Dr. Wilfred Grenfell and ter, Miss Marian Baillie, prominent in Mrs. Grenfell will arrive from San Tacoma social circles, arrived in Portland Sunday and are guests at the

> Mrs. E. C. Sheviln has convalenced sufficiently so that she was able to return to her home from the hospital this

> Mr. and Mrs. Atholl McBean of San Francisco have arrived in Portland for > Owing to the illness of A. Tichner, Mr. and Mrs. Tichner will not be able to carry out their plans and leave this week for the east and Panama.

Mrs. A. E. Clark has received word that her son, Albon Platt Man, sailed from New York for Bermuda on the He will probably remain two or three months if the climate proves beneficial. His early return is hoped for by his many friends, who will miss him in the work of Trinity parish.

Mss Elizabeth Babcock has arrived mss Elizabeth Babcock has arrived the ladies auxiliary of the Order of in Walla Walla to visit her sister, Mrs. Railway Conductors, accompanied by Eugene Hunt,

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Skinner spent the week end in Seattle as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hoge, Friends of Mrs. C. L. Rineman, who has been seriously ill for the past six weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. L. Stanford, Wasco street, will be glad to learn that she is convalescing, satisfactorily.

What Others Say

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

Dear Miss More: I have always been told that a bachelor's life is a happy one, and of course I was shocked the other day when a bachelor began tell-ing me of his troubles and of his ex-frame lengthess. My thoughts were frame lengthess. My thoughts were McGowan (Miss Mary Dunn), Miss freme loneliness. My thoughts were Pearl McKenna, Miss Helen Farrell and that he should have been married 15 that he should have been married 15

Miss Margaret Casey. Mr. and Mrs. years ago, and under such conditions that he would not be so lonesome and miserable now.

I have read with interest yours and other letters; in fact, your articles are the first thing I read when I get the paper. In the issue of February 2 I poticed a letter from one who signs

To a safe and loving care. noticed a letter from one who signs himself a "Mere Man." He advised girls not to use slang and hobble skirts. Honolulu, Mrs. Arthur W. Chance in- I think he should have added filrting. vited guests for an informal afternoon In my opinion no girl who considers because a man sits across the car and acts silly is no reason for a girl doing likewise. It is much better not to notice his attempts to get up a flirtation. Above all, do not propose, even

A SOUTHERN GIRL.

A Traveler's Suggestion.

Dear Miss More: Will you excuse me if I suggest to the E. B. young man (who seems to be desirous of reaching the society that would obtain for him the right kind of ladies' companionship, which if he proved himself McLeod is manager of the Ross-Higgins the Christian Endeavor societies of to be worthy, of a good wife) to attend some church here, or connect himself at once with the Y. M. C. A. of Portland-get acquainted there, and their companionship would naturally lead him into church circles, socials, etc., and result in his being introduced to young women, who if he showed any merit would relieve his loneliness and might be the means of his securing a Christian woman for a wife. In any case it would be elevating and enjoyable to meet such young men and women as F. D. Chamberlin, who will leave for I have seen in the First Presbyterian have a tendency to increase the pallor Denver, Saturday, will be a guest of church of Portland. Other churches are of the skin, it is obvious these colors bonor at a luncheon given for him to- equally agreeable so far as I have seen should be chosen with caution by the

THE PLAY HOURS---By Darra More

The dance that I went to was not a into light. ness had been theirs during the day,

Trying Times for

Women's Beauty (Parisiepne" in Woman's Journal.") months. Wind and weather play havoc with complexions. The truest ald to these days is made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in that was four years ago." half a pint of witch hazel. Rub over face, neck and arms in the morning.

dult and deaden halr. Use a dry sham- mending, and"peo, made by mixing a cupful of cornand an original package of therex. Bift a teaspoonful over the head and igirls' hair, and now and then I thought pearl gray, also maize, sunset yellow, WENT to a dance last night. I went I saw a sly hand take a rose from its and apricot color. Cream or ivory will there to see how youth behaves in place among the curls and put it in the be more becoming than pure white, and its play hours. I went there to see buttonhole of a boy's coat lapel. "social centers" are all that is were attractive girls, with bright eyes ter than a dull, black material. claimed for them. And I came away and just the happlest smiles in the with the feeling that the most beautiful world, and the boys were clean-cut, thing in life is youth-that youth in its manly looking fellows. They were girls play hours is what makes the world and boys that needed only the minimum of assistance to lift them from darkness smart affair. No, no! It was a dance I think possibly there were about 200 every trace of gold in the hair, and abwhere all the girls and boys of the dancers on the floor at one time. The neighborhood were invited to come and waitz and the two-step were the fahave a good time. It was where shy vorite dances. There were no wallflow- washed out hue steals into them, while young girls met other shy young girls ers. There was neither boisterous con-and boys who were dying to talk with duct nor a strained, awkward feeling in above actually appear straw color. Genother boys of their own age and views the air. All was good natured, nice uine baby blue is equally unkind, though of life mingled together. It was where mannered, wholesome boy and girl fun. acting in the opposite direction, for inall the youth for blocks around gathered. I closed my eyes for a moment and let stead of dulling the owner into insigto shake off whatever of care or dull- myself drift back to the little college nificance, as do the yellow browns, they It was a pretty scene. The dresses, that we used to have in the big sym- gold in the hely, by the most part, were rather ordinary mastum, when many of the students Rich, deep da for the most part, were rather ordinary instum, when many of the students Rich, deep dark brown, as seen in affairs, but there were flowers in the statement for relaxation, diversion, fun. sealskin or velvet, the Titian blonds Great times, those were! Happy, happy imes! And here before me was the different cast. And I knew just how much it meant to them, how much of joy it put into their lives! I asked a little roguish eyed Irish girl. if this was her first dance, and she replied: three of these dances in ten days, and to be convinced how simply impossible vish there were more! It is the first are the yellow browns. real fun I've had since mother died, and moment, and then she went on: "I blue, cadet blue, peacock blue, wistaria, face, neck and arms in the morning, and then she went on: "I blue, cadet blue, peacock of the wistering and your skin will be smooth, soft and think it's awfully nice of them to let mauve, purple, cream, sunset yellow, satin-like all day. Use this regularly us come here and dance, don't you? I apricot color, peach, lemon and gray and enlarged pores, stray hairs, didn't know anybody until I came to from the palest sliver to pepper and biotohes and blemishes will be banished these dances, and now I have a girl chum, and I know lots of nice boys, and to return.

"Chaps, cold sores, pimples, eczema and, or, I'm so happy! It makes it lots to select the shade. Mother's Salve into affected sur- ward to the time when I can hear the shades of either pink or red-should be faces before retiring. It quickly heals music and swing to its measures. I am strictly avoided. It is the oldest of the family, and I have to antiseptic as well as healing and less-ens danger of blood poisoning. / stay at home all day, because there's lots of work to do. I have to send the "Don't risk catching cold washing little ones to school and put up my our head. Anyhow, soap and water papa's lunch, and do the sewing and the

But I won't tell you more of her story. She was just one of the many brush out thoroughly. This treatment little girl mothers whose lives had been and makes the hair made happier and better by the board Your hair of education, which, has so

GRAND PRESIDENT TO BE HONOR GUEST HERE

Mrs. J. H. Moore. Mrs. J. H. Moore, grand president of Mrs. J. Hartell of Los Angeles, grand senior sister, will arrive in Portland tomorrow morning to attend the annual meeting of the order. This meeting will be held February 23 and 24, at Knights of Pythias hall, Tenth and Alder streets.

hirs. Moore and Mrs. Hartell will be entertained at the Lincoln hotel while in Portland, by Mrs. J. D. Hughes, district deputy of the order for Oregon and Washington. Mrs. Hughes will Sunday accompany the visitors on an official visit to Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane.

during my several visits to Portland, as a traveling man from Los Angeles.
AUGUSTUS H. ROBERTS.

Twentieth Century Call. Come to us, all you lonelies, And do your level best To start a 20th Century club, For setting hearts at rest.

Cause all our plans are laid:

All we want is pleasure,
To hold us on our feet
And keep all good young people
From roaming on the street.

All nice boys and girls
Are welcome to enlist,
Because we want you lonelies To wander in our midst. Miss G. M. P.'s a wonder,
And we'll praise her every day,
For bringing us together
In her 20th Century way.

For Titan Blonde

Rich Dark Colors Are Best for Harmonious Effects and to Show Off Her Charms.

two classes. There is the blue eyed. type, the hair rathclear, colorless skin, not pale exactly, but a healthy accompanied by lark eyes, scarlet tips and hair more uburn than red. It may be the hair is exactly the same as the locks of the blue eyed woman,

but it seems to be darker because it

es not suffer from the contrast with the blue eyes. The latter type is the easier of the two to dress successfully. As green and the heliotrope shades colorless auburn haired woman, but they will be extremely becoming-in every tone-to the pink and white blonds of this type.

She will, too, be lovely in dove and They black with a shiny surface will be bet-

It is, I know, generally believed the auburn haired blonde can successfully wear golden brown, also pale blue. Yet never was there a greater mistake. Yellow browns and fawns will surely kill solutely lighten the eyes, eyebrows, and eyelashes. If the eyes are blue, a faded, town where I used to dance. I thought simply intensify the red, bringing out of the weekly Saturday afternoon dances all the flery redness rather than the may wear and look extremely well in same happiness of youth, enacted by a the hair will be brought out, the complexion will clear, while eyebrows and eyelashes will actually appear dark. One has only to imagine a red haired woman wearing a pale, yellowish tan colored coat, and another of the same "Oh, mercy, no! I have been to class dressed in a rich, glossy sealskin

Colors becoming generally to the blue eyed, auburn tressed woman are black, The pretty eyes were clouded for a milk white, pale and dark green, navy

ICE CAKES MISSOURI RIVER'S LONG LENGTH

river today is frozen practically all the Your money will be retunded it, and chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. Costs only Chuck saw Peter Habit steal way from Kansas City to Fort Benton, trial, it has failed to benefit. lustrous."

| Description of Chicago. | Description of Chicago. | Drug Co., 151 Third street.

Unblocking at Bridge, in No Trumps, deed without a card of reentry in the not only has no card of reentry in his entry, for unless he does this he can backelors are expected to pay some own hand, but worse still, has not in never make the small cards of the suit. Visits in person, especially if they are summy another card of the now establishment of the most common plays that young men going out in society. Thus lished suit, with which to put himself the dealer has to face at no trumps is in again. This disaster is easily pre-ventable if you will only take care to lead the higher cards from the weaker hand. There may be times when it be-comes necessary to unblock a suit by discarding a winning card or perhaps two such cards from the weaker hand, but generally the lead from the weaker hand of the highest card will amply cover this situation; Suppose the dealer has in his own hand the ace, king and three small cards, the highest of which is the six. Dummy gives him the jack, nine, seven, deuce. The dealer holds nine cards between the combined hands and will lead the ace and king in the hope of catching the queen. Now, unless he retains the deuce in dummy's hand, he will find that his jack will take a trick and the nine will also take one, but there will still be a small card of the suit in the dealer's own hand, which will represent a lost dealer's hand can take a trick.

Here is another suit of nine cards two. Dummy must play the seven and eight on the ace and king, otherwise a loss of two tricks will follow unless the dealer has a sure card of reentry in another suft, have and the remainder of the suit will final card of the suit.

the same rules hold good. Unless dumpink and white my holds two cards of reentry the dealer should not take a finessa. Dummy has queen, jack, ten and two small cards. er a flery red; and queen, jack, ten and two small cards. Seven cards adversely held, the king the only honor out against the dealer's combined cards, surely a strong temptation playing the eight in the first lead from dummy. Here again if it works all Johnny Chuck Gets a Surprise.

Written for The Journal by Thornton

OHNNY Chuck had never been so frightened in all his short life.

sible and crept as far as he could underneath a friendly stone in the old wall. His pants were torn and his legs smarted dreadfully where one of Mr. Marsh Hawk's cruel, sharp claws made himself as small as pos-

W. Burgess.

he should seriously consider may be the only means of bringing it in the should seriously consider may be the only means of bringing it in and one to be encouraged. Most mark what suit he expects to play for. The reader of this column has been told ried men leave the business of calling the suits, selecting that which consider the suits, selecting that which consider may be the only means of bringing it in and one to be encouraged. Most mark the reader of this column has been told ried men leave the business of calling the suits, selecting that which consider may be the only means of bringing it in and one to be encouraged. Most mark the reader of this column has been told ried men leave the business of calling the suits, selecting that which consider may be the only means of bringing it in and one to be encouraged. Most mark the property of the construction of the suits, selecting that which consider may be the only means of bringing it in and one to be encouraged. Most mark the property of tains the greatest number of cards in the combined hands. The next step is to see how the high cards on one side of the table may interest the table may be a selected the highest card toward the hand that holds the greater number of cards in the suit which is being the table may interfere with the trick played for. Suppose that the dunmy taking opportunities of the smaller cards holds the king and jack of a suit of opposite, and he must so dispose of the which the dealer has the ace, queen high cards as to prevent their blocking and three small cards. Seven between the suit on the other side of the table, the two hands. It is a proper lead to which, though longer, is composed of play the highest card from the weaker which, though longer, is composed of play the highest card from the weaker house, the third being intended for the lower cards. Many a player has awak- hand, and so dummy is made to lead the daughters. One should not leave more check that the has taken king which the desier must take with a trick with an honor in dummy and the ace unless he holds a card of rethe holding up of the ace of his long invitation, especially if it is for a dinthat the hand which is the shorter in the he is at leisure at no other time, he suit may not be able to put the longer hand in after the ace is played. A great many dealers when they find that this strategy is being played against them lose heart and go to another suit. There 6.36 o'clock. A man should not stay should be no greater mistake than a "switch" for any such reason. The to get away in time to dress for dinner best, and indeed the only way, to defeat In the country or in suburban towns these tactics is to keep on with the suit until you have taken the last card of day in the neighboring city, evening the shorter hand. If you have outside visits are the only ones possible, in cards of reentry you can keep them, many cases. for coming in cards after the ace has been played rather than to squander man must ask for the mother, as well them recklessly early in the game. Here as for the daughter. He should send is such an example. Dummy holds the up his card and remain in the reception queen, jack of a suit in which you as dealer have the king, ten and four small trick unless there is some way of the cards. Lead the queen from dummy, dealer's getting back into the game in and if the ace is not played, lead the order to make it. For this reason care jack, which should be overtaken by the must be taken to keep dummy's deuce, king; then if dummy plays the ace you so that every card of that suit in the will have the command of the suit in your own hand, and if dummy still holds which at first sight looks quite innocent, but which may also conceal a pitfall for the unwary dealer. In his own hand the suit under your own control. If the suit under your own control. If having a pleasant time, until late in the overtake the second lead. A more complicated play is when it becomes necessary to combine unblocking with overtaking; this is happily One great temptation the dealer is rare, and only occurs when the dummy to, and that is he will take a hand contains no card of reentry, and finesse in his long suit without suffi- the adversary opens a suit in which the clent cards of reentry to justify his dummy has length. The oldest hand so doing. In such a case one reentry opens with the five of a suit. Dummy card is not enough, for he may lose a lays down the ace, nine, six, three, two, trick by the finesse in blocking his suit. Third hand plays the four, and the lead-Here is an example of this sort of situ- er having the queen, ten, eight, can ation. The dealer holds the ace, jack take the trick apparently very cheaply only of a suit in which dummy gives with the eight, but if he does this his him the king, ten and three small cards, ten will at a later stage of the game a suit of six cards only, so there must block the nine in his dummy's hand. He be seven held against the dealer, just the time when he might thoughtlessly first trick and lead the queen. Now it make an unconsidered finesse. If the queen lies on the right hand of the deal- the original leader should cover the er he will of course congratulate him-self upon his cleverness, but there is an put up the ace, but the dealer must wait even chance that the queen will lie be- until he can get into the lead again so yond his jack, in which case a wide- as to play through the jack by leading awake adversary will take away what- the eight; dummy will play the ace and Mrs. John Simington, 414 East young man and a girl asked me to

Thirty-ninth street north, became the marry har I would inquire if she exWritten for The Journal by Elizabeth ever card of reentry the dummy may and will be in a position to make the

> The red haired be lost, as the denier must take the Sometimes the oldest hand will open type of woman second trick in it and will have none the long suit that is held by the dummy, and it also may be the only suit that Here is another distribution in which dummy holds, with no outside cards of essary for him to overtake dummy's card so as to keep out of his way later in the game. Here is an instance that occurred in actual play not long agot. The oldest hand opened with a six. Dummy laid down the ace, ten, nine, eight, seven. Third hand played the lyory tint, usually here to finesse against that one card by five and the dealer holding the king and two small cards, was obliged if he wanted to play a winning game to take right, but again dummy's suit will be his partner's seven with his king. Havinstantly killed unless he holds two ing done this the dealer is in duty cards, of reentry in case the finesse bound to go through the original leader. fails. Sometimes it becomes necessary always repeating this strategy until to overtake a card which has been led dummy has captured all of the oldest either by yourself, as dealer, or from hand's cards. If the dealer should by the dummy hand. If you find yourself playing a high card try to force dumholding between the hands cards of my's ace the dealer must pass the secequal value, it may be a potent factor ond trick on, then dummy will hold a in the making of the suit to overtake a ten ace over the remaining honor and card that you have already won, in- can make four tricks in the suit.

Tendency Is Too Apparent in American Men to Leave Wo-men to Do All Social Visiting.

Men Should Call

American Fashions

A pretty crepe de chine for southern wear.

Written for The Journal by Darra More.

members of the crepe family will figure just as frequently as the more typically warm weather fabrics, tulle and mous-

The sketch suggests an attractive model that, made up in pale yellow crepe de chine is designed for wear from now on. The skirt is hung plain, is from the top narrow and straight, with the foot hem turned up six inches, inclosing a side-plaited heading of the same silk. The very small tunic is mounted with small gathers from a round waistline and finished with a banding of bead and silk embroidery.

lowed regarding these gathered skirts.

It is merely a matter of suiting the may be gathers at the top, and again, where the body of the skrit is brought into its foot-trimming, or the gathers may occur at top or bottom only, but in any case the greatest consideration is given to the "laying" of the gathers, as a single one out of place is apt to

In the same way facings and bandings, for which so much excuse is found, must be perfect, for in spite of their frills and other softening notes.

there is a very strong suggestion of

There is no rule to be strictly figure that wears one of them.

seline, and the host of others.

satins

LL silks, though rich and substantial, are so pliable that they can and will be used right through the summer. The pretty lampas and moire effects, the of subdued sheen, and all the N THIS country few married men have the time or the inclination to make calls, except upon their rela-tions and intimate friends. Occasionlocking at Bridge, in No Trumps, deed without a card of reentry in the visits together, in country or suburban EFORE the denier touches a card hand that holds the suit, overtaking localities. This is a pleasant custom, intrust their cards to their mothers or sisters. A married lady, in making the first call of the season on a family consisting of father, mother and daughters, leaves two of her own cards; two or, if she chooses, three, of her husband's, and three of her son's. same house.

an unmarried man should call after an suit by the adversary. This is done so her, a luncheon or a theatre party. If should go in the evening, or on Sunday afternoon. The lateness of the dinner hour, in our large cities, has brought in a fashion of calling at the hour for later than this, as his hostess will want where most of the men spend the whole

When making a formal call a young room until he learns whether or not it will be convenient to receive him. He leaves his hat, overcoat and cane in the hall. He removes one or both gloves before greeting the lady of the house, as she will probably shake hands with him. An evening call is usually longer than an afternoon visit, because everyone is more at leisure after the business of the he holds the ace, king, six, five, three. the dealer holds two cards of reentry it evening. A well bred man is quick to The dummy lays down the eight, seven, is not of course imperative for him to receive a hint, and if the elders become restless or show signs of fatigue he takes his leave. It is permissible to leave soon after the arrival of another caller, but not immediately. To do so would seem to show a desire to avoid meeting the newcomer. Two men should not try to sit each other out. The first to come should be the first to leave.

If it is impossible for a young man to call within the prescribed time, after a dinner, for instance, he may show his recognition of the hospitality by sending a few flowers or bonbons. He should still remember to call at an early oppor-

Damaged Pianos. Carload just received, all more or less as a single one out of placed damaged. These must be closed out at spoil the whole appearance.

Don't fail to call and see them before buying. Prices and terms to suit BUSH & LANE PIANO CO., 355 Washington.

Hero of "The Wolf" Weds, (United Press Lessed Wire.) San Francisco Adams, banker of Nome, Alaska, famed reentry, and the dealer may find it need Miss Gertrude Wall of San Gabriel, were united in marriage in San Fran-The ceremony was a quiet one and was witnessed by only a few friends # of the bride and groom, For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Second-hand, but in good condition. fine bargain. Don't overlook this,

All the Tone Quality of $200 Instruments in This One at

Which Includes 24 Selections

OF MUSIC. 12 Double - Side Records.

And you can pay for the outfit at the rate of $5.00 a month.

We agree to deliver this perfect outfit FREE on three days' trial, including the 12 double-disc records.

This beautiful instrument is finished in the choicest mahogany or quarter-sawed oak, polished like the costilest piano, wonderfully constructed tone chamber, perfected sound bar-in fact, an unexcelled sound-producing machine—at this unusually low price.

Call, Write or Phone

111 4th St., Tel. A or M. 1433. Talking Machine Headquarters speaking generally, however, all An Appeal to Wives had scratched him as he dived after

Peter Rabbit into the safe shelter of the hole in the old stone wall. How he did wish that he had minded old

Mrs. Chuck and stayed in his own yard

Peter Rabbit looked at the tear in Johnny Chuck's pants. "Pooh!" sale

"But I'm afraid to go home with my pants torn," said Johnny Chuck. "Don't go home," replied Peter Rab-bit. "I don't unless I feel like it. You stay away a long time and then your she won't ever think of the pants."

mother will be so glad to see you that said

as she had told him to.

You know the terrible affliction that comes to many homes from the result of Farmer Brown's garden.

a drinking husband or son. You know Johnny Chuck gave a great sigh of of the money wasted on "Drink" that Kansas City, Feb. 21.—The Missouri treatment, and can be given secretly. Pered Peter Rabbit, and crept off Your money will be refunded if, after a through the clover. Pretty soon Johnny ce would result in the demolition of bookiet and let us tell you of the good nany bridges. River heats here and at ORRINE is doing.—Woodard, Clarke & before he could say anything Peter Rabbit stuck his head out to see if the way was clear. It was, and Peter's long legs followed his head, "Come on Johnny Chuck," he shouted. "I'm go ing over to the sweet clover patch."

Johnny Chuck looked doubtful, but

LITTLE STORIES FOR BED TIME

But Johnny Chuck was afraid. He was almost sure that, old Mr. Marsh Hawk was waiting just outside to gobble film up. It was a long time before he would put so much as the tip of his wee black nose out. But without Peter Rabbit it grew lonesomer and lone somer in under the old stone wall. Besides he was afraid that he would lose Rabbit, and then he would be lost indeed, for he didn't know the way

Finally Johnny Chuck ventured to peep out. There was jolly, round, red Mr. Sun smiling down just as if he was used to seeing little Chucks every day. He looked and looked for Peter Rabbit, but it was a He looked and long time before, and when he did all he saw was Peter Rabbit's funny long ears above the tops of the waving grass, or Peter Rabbit was hidden in the sweet clover patch, eating away for

It was only a little distance, but Johnny Chuck had had such a fright that he tried three times before he graw brave enough to sourry through the tail grass; and join Peter Rabbit. My! how good that sweet clover did taste! Johnny Chuck forgot all about old Mr Marsh Hawk. He forgot all about his torn pants. He forgot that he had run and didn't know the way home. Peter Rabbit, "don't mind a little thing He just ate and ate and ate until his stomach was so full he couldn't stuff another piece of sweet clover into it. Suddenly Peter Rabbit grabbed him by a sieeve and pulled him down flat. "Sh-h-h!" said Peter Rabbit. "Don't move!" Johnny Chuck's heart almost stepped What new danger could be beating. now? In a minute he heard a queel Peeping between the stems of sweat clover he saw—what do you think? Why, old Mrs. Chuck cutting clover sweet clover to put in the basket of vegetables she was taking home from relief, but he kept very still, for he did is needed in the home to purchase food not want her to find him there after and clothing. ORRINE has saved thou- she told him not to put foot outside his You wait here," whis-Chuck saw Peter Rabit steal up be

> Select patronage with efficient service makes Oaks Rink popular place.