

PHONE TRANSMITS AD CLUB'S CHEERS TO SAN FRANCISCO

Pledge of Support of Panama-Pacific Fair Sent by Wire 787 Miles; Managing Editor Sends Response.

Three rousing cheers for the Panama-Pacific exposition, 1915, given by the Portland Ad club in the assembly room of the Mulnomah hotel yesterday afternoon...

An impromptu address by Ernest Simpson, managing editor of the Call, needed but to be repeated phrase by phrase as he sent it from his distant office to be heard by the 400 attentively listening Ad men.

A cunningly arranged telephone service made the seemingly magical feat possible. It was "Telephone Day" before the Ad club. J. L. Yarnell, commercial manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, presided.

San Francisco Included. Joseph Blethen of the Seattle Times, as chief speaker of the day, had just finished an address wherein he had urged the Pacific northwest harmony spirit...

Whereas, the cities of Seattle and Portland are vitally interested in the success of San Francisco's Panama-Pacific exposition, 1915, and

Resolved, That the Ad clubs of Seattle and Portland do hereby pledge to the city of San Francisco and the citizens thereof their hearty support and cooperation in behalf of the united northwest; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution shall be immediately transmitted by long distance telephone to the editor of the San Francisco Call by Joseph Blethen, president of the Seattle Ad club and of the Seattle Golden Postcard.

A telephone was at Mr. Blethen's elbow. As soon as the resolution had been unanimously adopted he was told the San Francisco connection had been established. While the men in the crowded room listened, Mr. Blethen read the resolution. Except for his voice there was intense silence. Then came Mr. Simpson's response.

Expresses Appreciation. "It pleases me personally and it gives me particular pleasure to be the medium of exchange for the transmission of these welcome messages, because I am a native son of your own Portland and your united northwest. Additional pleasure arises from the fact that Charles W. Hornick, manager of the Call, desires warmly and heartily to express appreciation of this cordial and grateful message of cooperation, and also for this expression of support of our exposition. We shall count it as one of our greatest opportunities when the exposition is opened to receive and to welcome our brothers of the united northwest."

Just before Mr. Blethen spoke a group of Ad men, led by Charley Berg, sang the new northwest song, which includes not only San Francisco but all of California. May the Lord bless you and prosper you in all your undertakings.

First speaker of the day was W. J. Phillips, division commercial superintendent of the telephone company, who interestingly told of the development of telephone service from the invention of Alexander Graham Bell and finished with the pledge:

"We shall erect within the year a 12-story building for our home at Park and Oak streets."

Colonel E. S. Wood was introduced as "Oregon's greatest orator" and spoke to the Ad club for half an hour on the "Place of the People in the Development of the Northwest."

RESIGNATION OF STATE IMMIGRATION BOARD IS URGED AS SOLUTION

West. It appears that some question has arisen as to the present validity of the act under which the state board of immigration was appointed, it having been suggested that the act of 1909 creating a state immigration agent superseded and rendered of no effect the act then on the statutes and under which this commission was appointed. Governor West is not willing to decide the question as to whether the two statutes are effective, or only the more recent one, but thinks the matter should be left to a decision of the courts.

Broad Program. "In view of these circumstances I think it would be for the benefit of the immigration movement if the state board, as appointed by Governor West, should resign as a body and allow this question to be settled before the state board, as now constituted takes any action."

"I am prepared to forward the governor my resignation if I may accompany it by the resignations of the other members of the board."

The state board of immigration, since its appointment by the governor, has commenced a broad program intended to bring desirable settlers to locate on the agricultural lands of Oregon. A work extending over the better part of a year had also been undertaken to secure dependable facts and data relating to the physical characteristics, productions and resources of Oregon. Because of former connection with the government in immigration work, Mr. Park's experience especially was considered of great value to Oregon.

PROGRESSIVES PICK JOHNSON TO ENTER RACE WITH COLONEL

ditions and gave remedies for the evils of present day politics. It distinctly makes Roosevelt an available candidate."

Congressman Lindbergh of Minnesota said:

"Roosevelt's speech was a confession of faith in the principles for which the progressives are fighting. It presented the right side of the problems we have been trying to solve. Roosevelt has placed himself in the front rank of the progressives. He is now the logical progressive candidate for the presidency."

World Is Caustic. Commenting on Roosevelt's speech the New York World says today:

"It is another way of saying that the power of the majority ought always to be absolute and that the minority has no rights which it is bound to respect. It is a transplanting into America of the theory on which the South American republics administer their turbulent affairs. It is Roosevelt's formal invitation to revolution and anarchy."

The New York Times also spares the former president. It says:

"Roosevelt's address removes him from the Republican party and makes it impossible to nominate him. From beginning to end there is not a single Republican doctrine or expression of faith in the speech, but there is throughout a bold and defiant renunciation of the principles of that party. Roosevelt's formal allegiance to the party that made him president and takes the field as its enemy and destroyer."

Amos Pinchot, brother of Gifford Pinchot, former United States chief forester, who has been active in progressive ranks, also made a statement to the United Press on Colonel Roosevelt's speech. Pinchot said:

"My opinion is that the colonel's speech means that the issue between Taft and Roosevelt in the coming campaign is to be whether the people or 'big business' shall run the country. Taft has stated plainly that he cannot trust the people to govern; Roosevelt says as plainly that he can. Taft said the progressives are the enemies of the people and the Roosevelt-Johnson combination comes out flatfooted for pure democracy and supports each proposition that Taft ridiculed."

"By his speech yesterday Roosevelt struck a great blow for the people. He has thrown down the glove to the reactionary army and has announced a doctrine for strengthening the hearts of men."

Leaders Declare for Johnson. (United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Southern California progressive leaders declared today unreservedly for the candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson. Roosevelt's Columbus speech yesterday struck a responsive chord in progressive circles here, and general satisfaction was expressed regarding his declaration. Meyer Lissner, chairman of the state Republican central committee, declared the Roosevelt-Johnson combination to be ideal, and predicted the overwhelming election of Roosevelt, who, he believes, will accept the nomination. Lissner said:

"The progressive cause is greater than any individual candidacy, and the obvious thing for progressives to do is to unite on some man who stands for progressive principles. Roosevelt is the logical presidential candidate. He will accept the nomination if it is tendered as a party mandate, and will be overwhelmingly elected. Of course I am for Hiram Johnson for vice president. The combination would be one of unquestioned strength. Both are men and progressives."

E. T. Earl said: "Roosevelt's Ohio speech rings true. It stamps him as the nation's progressive leader. Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson, California's progressive governor, I believe are the only two men to lead the Republicans to victory in 1912."

Roosevelt Still Silent. (United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Feb. 22.—Three hours late, Theodore Roosevelt arrived here today on his return from Columbus. Greeted by reporters, he said: "I have really nothing to say." One newspaper man asked him: "You are quoted at Cleveland as saying, 'My hat is in the ring.' Does that mean you are an avowed candidate?" Roosevelt, angered, snapped: "I have already said I had nothing to say. Why do you persist in attempting to cross examine me?"

The former president, however, did not deny that he had made the quoted statement. Persons accompanying him, however, said he did not intend that it should become public. Gifford Pinchot, in a statement this afternoon, endorsed Colonel Roosevelt's Columbus speech and declared him to
