Three Particularly Attractive Models of House Dresses

Special $1.39

Selling Regularly at $1.75 Ea.

—Women's House Dresses of an extra quality percale, made in three distinctive models. The style illustrated is similar to one of the models. Instead of the collar and cuffs being scalloped they are plain finished with their own material.

—Two models show the sailor collar effect, trimmed with plain chambray bandings, round neck and short sleeves. The skirt is gored with inverted pleat in back.

—The materials are navy and white, cadet and white, or lavender and blue and white stripe and ring designs.

—The other styles show a very pretty model with round collar and fancy side finish, round neck with small dicky, short sleeves and turn-back cuffs. Trimmed with pearl buttons. Over the shoulder in both the back and front is an inch pleat.

—The skirt is made with panel back. These dresses come in black and white or light blue and white stripe and figured patterns.

Flannelette Gowns—HALF PRICE

—Plain white and fancy striped flannelette night gowns. Made with military or turn down collar. Also round necks, collarless finish. Plain tailored effects with and without yokes, trimmed with plain bandings, pipings, braid and embroidery. Many are side finished.
