

BEAVERS, OLD, NEW, NOW ARE ARRIVING IN TRAINING CAMP

Weather Propitious, Training Going on Steadily; McCredie Pleased With New Men; Short Only Place Not Filled.

By R. A. Cronin.

Santa Maria, Cal., March 8.—Arrival at the training camp are coming in on each train ready for the fray. Harry Steiger, the southpaw pitcher secured from St. Paul in exchange for Tommy Murray and infielders Dave Bancroft and Jim Mathies are the last to put in their appearance, arriving this morning. Steiger put in the winter in Detroit, Bancroft in Sioux City and Mathies in St. Louis. Steiger is a handsome fellow and will send the matinee goers into ecstasies this summer. Bancroft is medium sized and is said to be as fast as a bullet. Mathies is slender and looks good in street clothes. McCredie looked the newcomers over and expressed himself as well pleased with them.

Pitcher Temple and infielders Coltrin and McDowell arrived in training camp last night prepared to enter the fight for positions this morning. This lad Temple, who is touted to the skies by Bill Rodgers, is larger than Ben Henderson. He is over six feet in height and weighs about 190 pounds in his fighting togs. He is a mild mannered fellow with an accent like Chadbourne's, who, by the way, is expected here Sunday.

McDowell, the sweet second baseman of the Nebraska State league last season, is about the build of Larry Schafly, who covered first on the Portland award some seasons back. In street clothes he looks like a bear cat.

Coltrin Overweight. Coltrin weighs about 160 pounds and figures himself about 150 pounds overweight. During the winter he carried 177 pounds, and looked like the proverbial football.

"The man that beats me out of shorts stop will be a second Hans Wagner," chirped the little Northwestern stopper.

The weather was splendid yesterday, and the campers got in four hours of good work. Bill Rappo is experiencing the first sore arm of his life. Harkness and Krueger are taking things easy. Mickey LaLonga has not begun to cut them through.

McCredie now figures that he has but one position to fill on the 1912 team and that is shortstop. He has definitely decided upon transforming young Kibbie into a shortstop. Kibbie looks like a wonderful prospect, and Mac is tickled to death with him.

CITY COMMERCIAL LEAGUE IS FORMED

The City Commercial league was organized at a meeting at the Columbia Hardware company last night. Five teams have entered the league already and two or three more teams will enter before the next meeting, which will be held Tuesday night.

The "Metors", W. P. Fuller, Pacific Hardware & Steel, Marshall-Wells and Portland Cordage are the teams already entered in the league.

The same rules and regulations will prevail again this season. The meeting will be made up in a short time and the season will open about the middle of April.

Preparing for Dog Show.

Further arrangements for the kennel show of the Portland Kennel club were made last evening at a meeting of the officers. A committee, F. E. Watkins, W. M. Davis, E. A. Parsons and J. F. Carroll, was appointed, and it will be the duty of this committee to have charge of assigning the special cups.

WHITMAN ABANDONS SPRING PRACTICE

Walla Walla, Wash., March 8.—Spring practice in football at Whitman college, which was hoped by Coach Archie Hann would be made valuable this year, has been abandoned, owing to the scarcity of athletes who are not in other activities. Nearly every member of the college gridiron squad is either playing baseball or training to make the track team. If by chance there were a few left, they are playing tennis or studying for debates or singing in the glee club. So there will be no spring football practice at Whitman this year.

Captain Niles was to have had charge of the squad, but he is out for baseball as is Sloyer, the end. Blomquist and McDonald, other backfield men; Botta, the other end; Neill and Cleman, tackles; Cole and McCoy, guards, are on the track. Only half a dozen aspirants showed up for spring training, and most of these were not seriously considered by the coach as material.

Schwenk Arrives to Train.

Walla Walla, Wash., March 8.—Schwenk, one of the squad of pitchers in Joe Cohn's spring training camp for the Spokane Indians who will train here the latter part of this month, arrived in the city yesterday from Los Angeles. Schwenk is the fourth man to arrive. Royal "Hinky" Shaw is expected in the city today in company with his recently acquired bride, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are now in Yakima.

EVERY CLUB MEMBER SEES TACOMA BOUTS

Tacoma, Wash., March 8.—Without police interference and attended by every one of the 315 members, the new Tacoma Athletic club, organized for the sole purpose of promoting amateur boxing, held its first smoker last night. Poor fast bouts were staged and it is expected that the club membership will jump to 1000 before the next smoker. Frank Street and Jim O'Malley, 145 and 142 respectively, furnished the main event. Street had the best of the argument and the fans believe he could have handed out a sleep powder at any time during the six rounds had he so desired. Harry Jewell, lightweight, had the better of a four round bout with Harry Mussen.

FRESHMAN-HIGH SCHOOL GAME LAST FOR W. H. S.

The last chance to see the Washington high school basketball quintet in action will be tomorrow night when it will line up against the Oregon freshman five on the Y. M. C. A. floor. The U. of O. freshmen defeated the Washington team in the first game, which was played in Eugene a week ago.

Two stars on the U. of O. team are local boys, Parsons, the former all around athlete of the Washington high, and Vosper, the former Jefferson star. The game will start at 8 o'clock and the teams will line up as follows:

DILLON BEATS COFFEY IN TEN ROUND BOUT

Oakland, Cal., March 8.—Jack Dillon of Indianapolis, today is regarded by fight fans here as the best middleweight seen here for some time, as a consequence of the sound beating he handed Walter Coffey in their 10 round mill last night. Dillon showed himself to be a fast two handed fighter with a punch in both hands. He had Coffey hanging on from the first round on. Coffey saved himself from a knockout only by hugging throughout.

OREGON 'BABES' ON WAY TO PORTLAND

Washington Lads Practicing Varsity Style and Freshmen Learn Rules.

(Special to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., March 8.—The freshman basketball team left the university this morning for Portland, where they are scheduled to meet the Washington high champions at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night. At the recent game here the freshmen defeated the prep boys by a close score. The first half was played under A. A. U. rules and in this period the high school boys were ahead from the start. The second half, played under the rules of the intercollegiate Athletic association, was all for the freshmen. During the past week the "Fresh" have been practicing A. A. U. style and reports from Portland have it that the "Preps" are becoming proficient at the intercollegiate game. The freshmen will clash with the Albany high school tonight. The line up for the team will be Watson and Vosper (forwards), Gould (center), Parsons and Boylen (guards), and Higbee, Apperson and Brooks (utility).

The Portland Gun club will meet tonight in the Bowie and Caldwell billiard parlors. Over 20 members will be voted in the club, and other business matters will be attended to.

WINGED "M" BARELY DEFEATS SPARTANS

The Y. M. C. A. Spartans gave the Multnomah club basketball quintet the surprise of its life last evening when the two teams met in the final game for the championship of the City Basketball club.

It was the first game on the new club floor. Only four regular members of the Spartans appeared for the game and two players, Cudlip and Cliburn, were taken from the audience. Cudlip played with the Lincoln high team last season.

The winged "M" team, however, won the game after 10 minutes of extra time playing. The final score was 31 to 28. The first half ended with the score of 10 to 10 in favor of Multnomah, but in the second half the Y. M. C. A. team braced up and when time was called the score was 23 all. Both teams scored a free throw in the extra time played, but Young's basket from the field gave the club team a victory.

Young and McKee were the biggest point makers of the game. Both players scored 18 points. Boston started for the club team with Young and Jansvold, and Cudlip with McKee for the Spartans. The line-up was: Winged "M" ... Pos. ... Spartans. Case ... R. F. ... Cudlip, Cliburn, Norris ... L. P. ... Jansvold, Young, Keck ... C. ... McKee, Barton ... R. G. ... McKee, Kropp ... L. G. ... Waffert, Fenstermacher, referee.

YAKIMA FISHERMEN TO PROTECT TROUT

North Yakima, Wash., March 8.—Yakima fishermen and hunters who recently organized a game protective association, are taking immediate steps to save the trout from the menace of the irrigation ditch. For seasons past, trout of all sizes, from fry to eight pounders, have been mired by the downward dividing stream which is made by the irrigation canal, and finding their way into the lower and shallower water, flap themselves to death in somebody's orchard. Legislation requiring the irrigation companies to screen their intakes failed several years ago, and rather than to take the time to get legislation on the matter, the local fishermen have desired to establish here a state hatchery.

FANS STICK BY ATTELL; FAVORITE OVER MURPHY

San Francisco, March 8.—San Francisco fight fans do not believe Abe Attell has started down the hill yet, for they are making him a favorite at 10 to 8 today in the betting over Harlem Tommy Murphy for their 30 round go Saturday afternoon at Daly City. Both men finished their training today and will take things easy until ring time. They both look fit. Attell realizes that he must beat Murphy or be classed with the has-beens, and he will force the fighting. Murphy already has fought Attell in the east, and is confident of winning this trip.
