While McCredie is well pleased with his infield candidates, he says that if any show a tendency to blow up he will wire at once to Cleveland for Butto be sent west on the first train to fill the position.

The San Francisco outfielders average 298, but in the long season it is doubted whether the batters will be able to stand the strain. The Sacramento outfielders will probably improve. They're Mard to Pick.
To pick the outfield of the San Francisco team is a difficult proposition. The same is true of the Portland outfielders. Datey, Powell, Carlisle, Kane and Mc-lvor stole over 50 bases last season, and Manden, Zacher, Chadbourne and several others will likely come near that mark this season.

On the whole, the outfielders of the Coast league should prove to be stronger hitters, better fielders and better hase runners than have ever been seen on

Former Champion Confident Berg Had It On "Brick" Bur- Referee Admits Strangle Hold He Will "Come Back:" Murphy Also Sure.

San Francisco, March 9 .- Wrapped in an overcoat, street clothing, a heavy pair of shoes and a confident smile, Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, who is to meet Harlem Tommy Murphy here this afternoon, stepped on the scales here shortly before noon for the weighing in formality. The beam was set for 133 pounds, and it never quivered. Murphy, stripped to the buff, then stepped on the scales, and the beam agains remained stationary. Both fighters, apparently, were satisfied.

The fact that he was giving away about 10 pounds to the Harlem Harp was the least of Attell's troubles. "What worries me most of all," said "is that most everybody believes that I am going back. If I thought so, and I believe I am the best judge, do you think that I would give away so much weight? They call me 'Foxy Abie, and just bet your rent money that this little Kosher boy knows what he is doing. I'll win in a walk."

Murphy had nothing to say, but appeared equally confident. San Francisco, March 9 .- For the first time in his career, Abe Attell, former king of the featherweights, will battle here this afternoon in an attempt to regain public prestige. His opponent will be Harlem Tommy Murphy and the distance 20 rounds. The battle is scheduled to begin at 3 p. m.

Attell realizes just what this match means and this morning he appeared confident of victory. Close observers, however, say that Abe is not the fighting marvel that he was three years ago, many predicting that the Harlem Harp will send over a sleep producer. Murphy says he is in rare form and smiled knowingly when Attell's name "It's the old story," said Tommy, "of the pitcher going to the well once too often. Poor old Abe does not realize this yet. I expect to win so decisively that he will be unable to charge that the referee beat him." Attell is a 10 to 8 favorite. Jack

"I admit it was that the strangle hold was barred, yet I rendered my decision for Arndt, and Police Gazette rules, under which the match was held, must be referred to if my decision is changed." Arndt was given the decision after wrestling 50 minutes and when he reased his hold, Leiser lay flat on his back and the work of a physician was necessary to resuscitate him.
