

HOMERS FREQUENT OPENING GAME AT SANTA MARIA

Krueger, La Longe and Bancroft Send Ball Over Fence for Circuits; Beavers Defeat Santa Marians, 3-1.

By R. A. C. Santa Maria, Cal., March 11.—Home runs and bush classiness featured in the initial practice game of the season yesterday afternoon when Portland trimmed the Santa Maria team by a 3 to 1 score.

Krueger, La Longe and Bancroft kited the pill off the lot, while Doane scored the other Beavers run as the result of an error ahead of the Dutchman's circuit burner.

Bancroft, Mathes and Hirsch all exuded class, to the great delight of one Walter McCredie, who was tickled to death with their showing.

An Indian pitcher named Romero, with a lot of speed, gave the Beavers the best batting workout they have had since the training camp opened.

Osborne, the Grants Pass boy, is a small fellow, and although he was stung for but one hit, he does not seem to be of Coast league calibre.

Walter Doane threw the clutch into the high speed and frisked a couple of bases. Doane looks better every day. Mathes, who corralled two bases, ought to develop into a swell hitter.

McCredie was immensely pleased with his work at the bat. Mathes might have sat on the bench for all the work he had in left field.

Coltrine, who pitched in the game long enough to get one pit at the ball and accept one chance, but he has all the actions of a corner.

Kibble fielded like a house afire, but did not do very good with the stick. Mac is thinking about switching his back to the right side of the plate again, as he is not a natural left handed hitter.

Coltrine is a bit too heavy to show up in his last season's form. Taken all in all, the recruits are 50 per cent faster as fielders than any bunch McCredie has ever collected.

The recruits that do not make good against the Coast league veterans will reinforce Nick Williams' Colts. Last season's players worked in pretty near their old time form.

Krueger had a busy time in center field, where he will play this season. Dutch's home run was the longest hit of the day.

According to Mac's present plans, Doane will play right field and Chadbourne will be shifted to left field. Mickey LaLonge is working nicely.

Bill Hays was not feeling very well and did not take any chances. Fred Lamline arrived from Port Huron, Mich. He is looking fine and is ready to start work.

He, like some of the others, was snowed blind in Kansas. PORTLAND.

DID A. ATTELL TRY CROOKED METHOD?

Referee, Promoter, Manager of Opponent and Others Say "Yes." San Francisco, March 11.—The end of Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, as a ring attraction on the Pacific coast, is believed certain by fight fans here today as the result of an alleged attempt by the Hebrew to induce Harlem Tommy Murphy to "lay down" in their 30 round fight at Daly City Saturday afternoon.

Attell, it is said, gave Attell a decided answer and Attell was made the victim of what is known in sporting circles as the "double cross."

With one eye entirely closed, his face and body battered and bruised, Attell lay in his bed at his sister's home today, strenuously denying that he had gone to defeat after valiantly trying to save his standing among the top-notchers by engineering a crooked deal.

Attell came to town February 26 and sent word that he wanted to see me," Buckley said. "I met him at Fifth and Market streets. There he made the first proposition to me that it would be profitable to everybody if Murphy would quit to him when they fought."

"I just listened to him, but said nothing. It is a dirty lie," declared Attell. "I defy either Murphy or Buckley to prove that I approached either with any such proposition. Somebody is going to suffer for this. It is some more dirty work on the part of my enemies."

Despite Attell's protestations of innocence, it is pointed out by fight followers today that Attell stilled along up to the fifth round, taking a fearful lacing, evidently believing that Murphy had consented to carry out his part of the alleged frame-up.

After this round Attell realized that he had been "double crossed" and from this round on brought his wonderful cleverness into full play. But the beating in the earlier periods, the experts agree, weakened the ex-featherweight champion, and in the nineteenth and twentieth rounds he was simply smothered by the New Yorker.

Jim Buckley, Murphy's manager, admitted today that he had been approached on three occasions by Attell. "Attell came to town February 26 and sent word that he wanted to see me," Buckley said. "I met him at Fifth and Market streets. There he made the first proposition to me that it would be profitable to everybody if Murphy would quit to him when they fought."

"I just listened to him, but said nothing. It is a dirty lie," declared Attell. "I defy either Murphy or Buckley to prove that I approached either with any such proposition. Somebody is going to suffer for this. It is some more dirty work on the part of my enemies."

Others would not believe that anything was wrong. I turned and left him and then instructed Murphy to fight as he had never fought before."

"Fight fans also point out that Attell neglected his training. The Hebrew started training for the bout last Monday but did little work. Friday night and early Saturday morning, it is charged, he was seen along the beach resorts in merry company. Thursday night, it is said, he played poker until morning."

Promoter James W. Coffroth admitted that he learned at the last minute that something was wrong. He said: "I went at once to Jim Buckley and put the matter squarely up to him. He told me that Murphy was an honest boy, saying 'Tommy is in great shape and will win this fight because he is the better man.'"
