

IN THE REALM FEMININE

PLEASE ANSWER--By Darra More

Written for The Journal. Darra More will be glad to publish at the top of this column the names and addresses of societies who would be glad to welcome to their membership young people who are lonely.

Events in Society

Informal Dance. JAMES A. DOUGHERTY invited a few friends to enjoy an informal evening of dancing in the Dougherty home, Friday.

Luncheon Given. Mrs. A. E. Butterfield entertained with the third luncheon in her series yesterday. Gold fish in the center of the table gave a Parisian touch to the luncheon.

Personal Notes. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Matson have just arrived in Berlin, where they will remain for a couple of months.

Coming Events. Oregon Rose camp, R. N. A., will give a five hundred party and dance Friday evening at Alseky hall.

Members of the Multnomah, Electric, Oregon and Willamette councils, R. N. A., are giving an informal dance at Ringler's hall, Second and Morrison streets, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blumauer are home from the east and south and have also taken apartments at the Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewett are now established in their flat at 750 Pettigrove.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas has returned from New York, where she went at Thanksgiving time.

Eugene Murphy, polo expert and society man of Burlingame, Cal., is a guest at the Seward.

Williamette chapter, D. A. R., met at the residence of Miss Emma Howell, 789 Kearney street, yesterday at 2:30.

The following program was given: Paper, "Women Composers of America," Miss Carrie R. Beaumont; piano solos, "A Rose, a Kiss and You," "Chimney Swallows," "Carrie Jacobs Bond," "Eleanor Smith, Miss Katherine Davis; violin solo, "Reverie," Jessie L. Gaylor, Mrs. Estelle C. Berry; musical reading, "A Rose, a Kiss and You," Agnes L. Hughes, music by Gertrude San Souci, Mrs. James Goodwin, violin obligato, Mrs. Berry; piano solos, "Staccato Polka," Clara Gottschalk Peterson, "La Capricieuse," Victor Rena, Miss Minerva Holbrook; vocal solos, "Hindu Slumber Song," Harriet Ware, "The Year at the Spring," Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, Mrs. May H. Stowell; violin solos, "The Dream Tree," Florence B. Joyce, "Love in the Southland," Frances P. Canfield, Mrs. Berry; piano solos, "Pantomime," Victor Rena, "Song of the Sea," Harriet Ware, Mrs. Beaumont; musical reading, "Mummy's Rosebud," C. L. Kain, music by Gertrude San Souci, Mrs. Goodwin, violin obligato, Mrs. Berry; vocal solos, "Irish Love Song," Margaret R. Lang, "And I," Jessie L. Gaylor, "His Lullaby," Carrie Jacobs Bond, Miss Davis; accompanist, Mrs. Beaumont.

Birthday Dinner. Mrs. W. C. Hoare of 1284 East Seventeenth north, gave a dinner party Tuesday evening in honor of her seventy-third birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Land and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dyke and family, T. J. Moore of Sea View, Wash., Mrs. A. Bailey, William Atkins of Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoare. The evening was passed with music and cards.

Members of the Multnomah, Electric, Oregon and Willamette councils, R. N. A., are giving an informal dance at Ringler's hall, Second and Morrison streets, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blumauer are home from the east and south and have also taken apartments at the Bowers.

Established in their flat at 750 Pettigrove.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas has returned from New York, where she went at Thanksgiving time.

Eugene Murphy, polo expert and society man of Burlingame, Cal., is a guest at the Seward.

Williamette chapter, D. A. R., met at the residence of Miss Emma Howell, 789 Kearney street, yesterday at 2:30.

The following program was given: Paper, "Women Composers of America," Miss Carrie R. Beaumont; piano solos, "A Rose, a Kiss and You," "Chimney Swallows," "Carrie Jacobs Bond," "Eleanor Smith, Miss Katherine Davis; violin solo, "Reverie," Jessie L. Gaylor, Mrs. Estelle C. Berry; musical reading, "A Rose, a Kiss and You," Agnes L. Hughes, music by Gertrude San Souci, Mrs. James Goodwin, violin obligato, Mrs. Berry; piano solos, "Staccato Polka," Clara Gottschalk Peterson, "La Capricieuse," Victor Rena, Miss Minerva Holbrook; vocal solos, "Hindu Slumber Song," Harriet Ware, "The Year at the Spring," Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, Mrs. May H. Stowell; violin solos, "The Dream Tree," Florence B. Joyce, "Love in the Southland," Frances P. Canfield, Mrs. Berry; piano solos, "Pantomime," Victor Rena, "Song of the Sea," Harriet Ware, Mrs. Beaumont; musical reading, "Mummy's Rosebud," C. L. Kain, music by Gertrude San Souci, Mrs. Goodwin, violin obligato, Mrs. Berry; vocal solos, "Irish Love Song," Margaret R. Lang, "And I," Jessie L. Gaylor, "His Lullaby," Carrie Jacobs Bond, Miss Davis; accompanist, Mrs. Beaumont.

Birthday Dinner. Mrs. W. C. Hoare of 1284 East Seventeenth north, gave a dinner party Tuesday evening in honor of her seventy-third birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Land and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dyke and family, T. J. Moore of Sea View, Wash., Mrs. A. Bailey, William Atkins of Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoare. The evening was passed with music and cards.

Members of the Multnomah, Electric, Oregon and Willamette councils, R. N. A., are giving an informal dance at Ringler's hall, Second and Morrison streets, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blumauer are home from the east and south and have also taken apartments at the Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewett are now

established in their flat at 750 Pettigrove.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas has returned from New York, where she went at Thanksgiving time.

Eugene Murphy, polo expert and society man of Burlingame, Cal., is a guest at the Seward.

Williamette chapter, D. A. R., met at the residence of Miss Emma Howell, 789 Kearney street, yesterday at 2:30.

The following program was given: Paper, "Women Composers of America," Miss Carrie R. Beaumont; piano solos, "A Rose, a Kiss and You," "Chimney Swallows," "Carrie Jacobs Bond," "Eleanor Smith, Miss Katherine Davis; violin solo, "Reverie," Jessie L. Gaylor, Mrs. Estelle C. Berry; musical reading, "A Rose, a Kiss and You," Agnes L. Hughes, music by Gertrude San Souci, Mrs. James Goodwin, violin obligato, Mrs. Berry; piano solos, "Staccato Polka," Clara Gottschalk Peterson, "La Capricieuse," Victor Rena, Miss Minerva Holbrook; vocal solos, "Hindu Slumber Song," Harriet Ware, "The Year at the Spring," Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, Mrs. May H. Stowell; violin solos, "The Dream Tree," Florence B. Joyce, "Love in the Southland," Frances P. Canfield, Mrs. Berry; piano solos, "Pantomime," Victor Rena, "Song of the Sea," Harriet Ware, Mrs. Beaumont; musical reading, "Mummy's Rosebud," C. L. Kain, music by Gertrude San Souci, Mrs. Goodwin, violin obligato, Mrs. Berry; vocal solos, "Irish Love Song," Margaret R. Lang, "And I," Jessie L. Gaylor, "His Lullaby," Carrie Jacobs Bond, Miss Davis; accompanist, Mrs. Beaumont.

Birthday Dinner. Mrs. W. C. Hoare of 1284 East Seventeenth north, gave a dinner party Tuesday evening in honor of her seventy-third birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Land and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dyke and family, T. J. Moore of Sea View, Wash., Mrs. A. Bailey, William Atkins of Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoare. The evening was passed with music and cards.

Members of the Multnomah, Electric, Oregon and Willamette councils, R. N. A., are giving an informal dance at Ringler's hall, Second and Morrison streets, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blumauer are home from the east and south and have also taken apartments at the Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewett are now

established in their flat at 750 Pettigrove.

the God Templars, the first organization to place women on an absolute equality. Mr. Chaffin's address was greatly enjoyed by a good number of ladies. He is speaking throughout the state.

Mrs. LYNN, an ardent W. C. T. U. worker, says: "I am glad to see so much in this paper in favor of international peace. The Women's Christian Temperance union has a department of peace and mercy. While we believe in all organizations that require total abstinence from alcohol and tobacco in the youth of our land, we think that any association of such organizations that require the use of guns and all the finery of war an evil tendency. If we want to go away with war we must train the boys to delight in that which trains them in thoughts of peace. The boys' minds must be turned from war, guns and all such ideas to the greater ones of helpfulness and kindness. The military drill, too, does away with independent thinking. Self control must come from within, and the educational training lead to bringing out rather than forcing it from an external source. This is the idea of the kindergarten, and the most recent word on the subject. The child must learn to control himself."

Timidity a Disease

Fear, Man's Worst Enemy, Must Be Overcome Before Success Can Be Attained.

Written for The Journal by Graham Hood. TIMIDITY can be cured - indeed, timidity must be cured if we are to make anything out of life. No enterprise ever yet succeeded with timidity as one of its cornerstones.

Take even the most ordinary affairs of life; who is the person who succeeded? The man who has courage, perseverance, and energy. Without courage initiative is impossible and you can't imagine what chance of success a man would have if he lacked the courage to take the first step.

Study the child learning to walk and you will see the same truth illustrated. It isn't the child's legs that do the walking, but the child's mind. Given the right mental attitude to start with and the legs will quickly learn how to support the body. The timid child, however, the child who is afraid to trust himself to take the first step unaided - finds the greatest difficulty in walking.

Timidity is nothing more or less than an exhibition of fear - the fear of making a serious blunder - and as we know, fear is man's worst enemy. From it all doubt arises, and we doubt enters the mind and progress is checked. No matter how noble an ambition he may possess, therefore, a man can have no hope of ever realizing it so long as timidity plays a prominent part in his life.

The Ragtime Muse

Worry. Said the sage, "I bid you, brother, Cease your worrying. Worry needless is - no other Truer fact I bring.

Worry at its best is idle. "That you must confess; And with that futile bludge You can't ride success.

AMERICAN FASHIONS

Written for The Journal by Vera Moore. PRACTICALLY all of the new blouses have some sort of a peplum or skirt attached to them that comes below the belt.

Whether the blouse are of silk or chiffon, batiste or linen, it makes no difference, the peplum is a feature. In the sketch is illustrated a pretty model in summer silk with shirred bandings of its own material outlining all its edges, and graceful scrolls effected in turning the corners or terminating lines.

These wash silk waists are a great comfort and convenience and are made up so artistically this year that any well calculated wardrobe should include at least two or three fashioned in different ways. There are any number of models no less attractive than the one described. One that is particularly worth mentioning has short sleeves of uniform width out in one piece with the side fronts and the back sections, and in the back an inverted plait let in, while in front the space is filled in by a wide boxplait. Inch wide hems with buttons ranged in series of three alongside a line of machine stitching finish the plait.

The blouse is cut close to the base of the throat at the top with a very wide turnover collar of mull which spreads apart in front for the introduction of a small black velvet bow, and in back is pointed. Turnback cuffs are also of the mull.

is in making a "top" for a negligee. That is, a deep yoke reaching the bust, and short sleeves are created by sewing strips of ribbon and lace together alternately and then buying sufficient lawn or organdy to finish the garment. All that is necessary is to hem the material on the bottom and gather it at the top. Only a few stitches are required to put the garments together, calling for little time or skill either, yet think of the price asked for anything so smart in the stores.

Other short lengths of ribbon can be twisted around fine wire and serve for pretty hair garnitures. The tiniest scraps will make buds to decorate these ribbon bands. Small pieces of silk should be preserved for pipings and larger pieces for small ties or similar decorations for the neck.

Does Not Indorse T. R.'s Theory. Halfway, Or., March 7.-Dear Miss Moore-I enjoy reading your articles and the letters of your correspondents very much. I would like to offer a suggestion to "Babes in the Woods."

I believe they can get along nicely on $14 per week if they do not try to follow T. R.'s teachings to raise a family of nine children or more. I advise no-lets than two children, but would they could be postponed for two or three years, at least.

No home is complete without children, though there are many people not capable of bringing them up. These should not assume the responsibility. There is no greater wrong than to bring a flock of helpless babes into the world to grow up hungry, cold, dirty and ignorant, for it is from such homes that most of our criminals, tramps and worthless humanity spring. Such children are degraded by poverty almost to the level of beasts. Many say that the Lord will provide. My theory is

Very fine sheer lawn in short lengths come in well for chemisettes, for while these, too, are cheap, ready for wear, there is always a certain sameness about them, unless those of better quality, and consequently more expensive. Simply tucked in groups, or with the addition of a bit of lace, these homemade affairs will possess a certain air of daintiness the shop article lacks entirely.

The same with coat collars. Little bits of lawn and lace, forming themselves into a dainty lingerie collar by hand sewing, is a very different accessory to the machine made collars offered for sale.

Quite a tiny bit of lawn can be fashioned into a dainty bib for a baby, and a large piece for a small neck pillow cover for an invalid or a baby carriage.

Another way in which short lengths of ribbon and lace or lawn may be utilized is in making a "top" for a negligee. That is, a deep yoke reaching the bust, and short sleeves are created by sewing strips of ribbon and lace together alternately and then buying sufficient lawn or organdy to finish the garment. All that is necessary is to hem the material on the bottom and gather it at the top. Only a few stitches are required to put the garments together, calling for little time or skill either, yet think of the price asked for anything so smart in the stores.

Other short lengths of ribbon can be twisted around fine wire and serve for pretty hair garnitures. The tiniest scraps will make buds to decorate these ribbon bands. Small pieces of silk should be preserved for pipings and larger pieces for small ties or similar decorations for the neck.

A Pretty Combination of the Skirted Blouse.

Remnants May Be Used

Short Lengths of Ribbon, etc., Come in Well for Charming Accessories to Dresses.

Written for The Journal by Elizabeth Lee. The possibilities of short lengths of ribbon and lace, bits of linen, lawn, or silk are simply wonderful, if only used in the right way.

Let us see how they can be used. First, let us take the case of ribbon. It is so easy to use, and so many people have it lying around their homes that it is a pity to see it go to waste.

Embroidered linen belts are cheap enough, I know, still there cannot be the individuality about them as may be seen in a belt made at home, say, from a single motif of handsome embroidery set on, closing back to a strip of white linen, adorned with a buckle of one's own choosing or making - for beautiful buckles can be made by covering with a scrap of baby Irish lace.

Very fine sheer lawn in short lengths come in well for chemisettes, for while these, too, are cheap, ready for wear, there is always a certain sameness about them, unless those of better quality, and consequently more expensive. Simply tucked in groups, or with the addition of a bit of lace, these homemade affairs will possess a certain air of daintiness the shop article lacks entirely.

The same with coat collars. Little bits of lawn and lace, forming themselves into a dainty lingerie collar by hand sewing, is a very different accessory to the machine made collars offered for sale.

Quite a tiny bit of lawn can be fashioned into a dainty bib for a baby, and a large piece for a small neck pillow cover for an invalid or a baby carriage.

Another way in which short lengths of ribbon and lace or lawn may be utilized is in making a "top" for a negligee. That is, a deep yoke reaching the bust, and short sleeves are created by sewing strips of ribbon and lace together alternately and then buying sufficient lawn or organdy to finish the garment. All that is necessary is to hem the material on the bottom and gather it at the top. Only a few stitches are required to put the garments together, calling for little time or skill either, yet think of the price asked for anything so smart in the stores.

Other short lengths of ribbon can be twisted around fine wire and serve for pretty hair garnitures. The tiniest scraps will make buds to decorate these ribbon bands. Small pieces of silk should be preserved for pipings and larger pieces for small ties or similar decorations for the neck.

Other short lengths of ribbon can be twisted around fine wire and serve for pretty hair garnitures. The tiniest scraps will make buds to decorate these ribbon bands. Small pieces of silk should be preserved for pipings and larger pieces for small ties or similar decorations for the neck.

that the Lord helps those that help themselves.

Danger Lurks in This Home. Portland, Or., March 10.-Dear Miss Moore-Do you doubt the views of W. E. M. regarding the character of the man of evil mind are correct. Views of such a nature are not encouraged by "The Wife," but are allowed by one who was raised in an atmosphere of purity and innocence. If gentle reasoning is of no use, what then?

Supposing a man had an experience similar to that of E. H., following it up by a career such as W. E. M. describes in his fellow workman, and then another trial at wedlock. What would be the result? You might argue that "The Wife" should not have consented to such a union. But the innocent are sometimes kept in the dark and have been taken advantage of since the beginning of time and always will be. We all make mistakes. None of us are perfect, but the reflection of our mistakes should not be cast upon the innocent.

If I have failed to instill the golden rule into others, it has not been without a strenuous effort.

A Reason for High Cost of Living. Portland, March 9.-Dear Darra More! Two articles in last night's Journal appealed to me. Both were under the head of "What Others Say," and were signed "A Girl" and "A Happy Wife."

Both women ring true. If we had more of them there would be less need for talk about the high cost of living and requests for higher salaries. If people will go into the rooming houses where people do light housekeeping, and take a peep at the garbage barrels they will observe that half or more that has been served at a meal has found its way to the garbage can. Is there any wonder that two can not survive on $14 per week? If women would only think that everything wasted is just the same as throwing the coin into the garbage can, living expenses would grow astonishingly less.

Fined for Murder. Johannesburg, March 14.-Pleading the unwritten law, Walter Patterson, hotel proprietor, was let off with a fine of $250 for killing his wife's paramour.

and what a disappointment it is to find that though you are young, your hair is beginning to turn gray - that you are surely going to look old before your time.

Don't wait for any more gray hair to come - get a bottle of HAY'S HAIR HEALTH today. Start in now and use it regularly. Those gray hairs will soon disappear - be restored to their natural color and stay so.

HAY'S HAIR HEALTH will keep you looking young. $1.00 and 50c at Drug Stores or direct upon receipt of price and dealers name. Send 10c for trial bottle. Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

For sale and recommended by Skidmore Drug Co.

The one best bet against skidding is

The Famous Nobby Tread Tire

and every Nobby Tread user knows it. The Nobby Tread has earned its popularity. Made only by UNITED STATES TIRE COMPANY. Makers of America's predominant tires. NEW YORK. Dealers Everywhere.

"SULPHURRO" STEWART'S

Liquid Compound of Sulphur 50c and $1.00 Size. We also have the accessories as indicated in book of directions. No. 16 and 18 Tubes 50c each. Woodard, Clarke & Co.

If You Cannot Obtain Sulphurro From Druggist, Send Direct For Bottle. Sulphurro is on sale in drug stores throughout this territory, but because of the difficulty in supplying all the trade on such short notice, it may be possible that here and there you may find a store where you cannot get Sulphurro from your regular druggist.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT

The good fellowship campaign committee, Women of Woodcraft, held its regular meeting Monday afternoon in the Women of Woodcraft auditorium.

The ways and means committee announced a series of card parties to be given with a grand prize at the final party. The guards of the different circles have been notified by Grand Banker Leach to be ready to begin work for the big event, the closing of the campaign similar to the one given at the Armory last May. There will be about 400 to attend the banquet at the Commercial club, according to the report, submitted by Special Organizer Mrs. J. Leach, who has charge of the affair.

March 26, the campaign committee visits Vancouver circle. All members of the Women of Woodcraft are invited.

Meeting of Minnesota Teachers. (Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Rochester, Minn., March 14.-Every arriving train today brought delegates and visitors to the annual convention of the Southwestern Minnesota Educational association. The convention has its formal opening tonight and the sessions will continue over tomorrow and Saturday. Among the noted educators on the program are President Vincent of the University of Minnesota, President Maxwell of the Wisconsin Normal school, Professor M. V. O'Shea of the University of Wisconsin, and Dr. Nathaniel Butler, dean of the department of education of the University of Chicago.

Getting rich quick is as dangerous as it is difficult.

Sulphurro Puts End to Trouble With Stomach

Disorder of System's Furnace One of Most Common Complaints.

SUFFERERS OF YEARS REGAIN THEIR HEALTH

Letters From Far and Near Tell How Stewart's Liquid Compound of Sulphur Is Proving Boon to Humanity

The stomach is our most vulnerable spot. It is the furnace of the body. When the fuel is not satisfactory, or contains some harmful element, the stomach is disturbed. Then the whole system is thrown out of gear.

Thousands of persons in every city are martyrs to this affliction. Their nerves are shaken, their dispositions are ruined, and they are unable to accomplish with credit to themselves or their surroundings the daily tasks in which they are engaged.

Much of the fame of Sulphurro, the liquid compound of sulphur, discovered by C. M. Stewart of Seattle, rests upon its wonderful ability to set the stomach right. Disorders and complaints of years' standing have yielded to its treatment. Tortures have been avoided through its use, and multitudes of persons have come again into the joy of living.

Sulphurro's First Cure. It was to cure a case of stomach disorder (along with rheumatism) that Sulphurro was perfected in Seattle only a little more than a year ago. Sulphurro's success was so marked that Mr. Stewart soon found himself giving away thousands of dollars' worth of the new liquid boon to other sufferers, many of whom were afflicted with troubles of the stomach.

Even in the short time that Sulphurro has been upon the market - slightly more than two months - it has made a wonderful record of cures for stomach disorders, and many of the hundreds of letters reaching the office of the C. M. Stewart company, 1010 First Ave., Seattle, contain information regarding benefits to this organ.

"Sulphurro has fully cured me of Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble, from which I suffered for some years, and I find it a blessing to mankind," writes W. W. Benson, of 2823 Nassau st., Seattle.

Sulphurro Proves Indigestion Cure. "Just two months ago I was a constant sufferer from indigestion and Rheumatism. I decided to give Sulphurro a trial. I took one bottle, and can truthfully say that an indigestion troubled with either." Major J. S. Jones, 4207 Woodlawn Park ave., Seattle.

"It is a wonderful medicine for indigestion," Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sharp, Multnomah, Wash.

"Sulphurro has done me a great deal of good for stomach trouble," Mrs. Jennie Trench, Mt. Vernon, Wash.

"My stomach trouble made it necessary for me to cease smoking, and I had to be extremely careful in my diet," said J. D. Van Atta, a well known Seattle Mason and Odd Fellow, who was cured of this trouble, and also regained his hearing through the use of Sulphurro. "My stomach trouble left me. Now I can eat anything I like without discomfort, and smoke all I want."