I Live on Homestead

Will return to Portland from my homestead in central Oregon in about a week. If you want 160 acres of good fertile land that does not require irrigation, that will produce good crops or ordinary straight farming, where conditions for dairying and poultry raising are exceptionally good, in well settled valley, good schools, 9 months of the year; within 3 miles of such homestead ground, close to small towns, etc., along the right-of-way of Vale-Crescent R'y., which is now actually under construction, fuel and fence posts actually free from forest reserve nearby. See Mr. Bates, who just filed on homestead in this valley, and arrange to go back with me, leaving Portland March 20.
