

WILSON AND EVANS NAMED BEST MEN

Municipal Association Indorses Candidates for Sheriff, District Attorney.

J. T. Wilson has received the indorsement of the Municipal Association for sheriff and Walter H. Evans for district attorney. In a circular letter sent out over the signatures of D. A. Pattullo, president, and John Bain, secretary, Cameron, Fouts and Joy are classed as undesirable candidates for district attorney, and Hollingsworth, McAllister and Cox are opposed as candidates for sheriff. The letter in part says: Among the candidates for the office of district attorney are George J. Cameron, Eugene Fouts and Allan R. Joy. Cameron is the incumbent. He has blocked all efforts at prosecution of social evils, while his general inefficiency has degraded his office, making it a byword and a farce. Fouts is notorious as the chosen counsel of the vicious elements of the community and it is easy to imagine what the administration of the office will be should he be elected. Joy has been allied in the city council with the liquor interests and he has failed to make a record for himself which would commend him as a candidate for this office. Of all the other candidates, we are decidedly of the opinion that Walter H. Evans is the man who gives promise of highest efficiency and experience as a public prosecutor, and who at the same time is most likely to defeat the unworthy candidates. Mr. Evans' record as United States deputy district attorney is excellent, and in confirmation of this we need only mention his success in prosecuting the white slave cases which have been under his charge. Of 19 cases brought before the court only one was lost. Members of the United States grand jury who have been familiar with his work speak of him in the highest terms. For the office of sheriff the following, among others, seek nomination: Hollingsworth, present deputy sheriff. He promises to carry out Sheriff Stevens' policies, which include practically unmolested license for gambling and the disreputable roadhouses, which have disgraced the county. McAllister, who was the promoter of the home rule liquor law at the last state election, a measure adroitly planned to deceive the voters. This fact is suggestive of the forces behind his candidacy. Cox, who was ex-Mayor Simon's chief of police and was indicted by the grand jury. Among the other candidates is J. T. Wilson, distinctly opposed to the policies for which all the above named men stand. He is a well known citizen who for 18 years has been prominently identified here with movements which have made for better conditions morally and socially and whose business career has been successful, while his experience as a peace officer elsewhere assures his fitness for the office. Iowa Sow Likes the West. Bingen, Wash., March 21.—New settlers are coming into this section almost every week. Last week a party of four families arrived here with a carload of household goods, horses, tools, etc., from Beaverton, Or., en route to Trout Lake, where they have purchased land. John Schmidt and family, of Wall Lake, Iowa, also arrived with a carload of goods. Mr. Schmidt is a wealthy retired farmer and will make Bingen his home. He will start a modern house at once and will also invest several thousand dollars in this locality. The only livestock Mr. Schmidt brought was one pure bred and registered Duroc Jersey brood sow. As if to show appreciation of her new home, 15 minutes after being unloaded from the car she gave birth to five young pigs.

PLEDGE SUPPORT TO CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Two hundred enthusiastic well-wishers of W. B. Hollingsworth pledged him still further encouragement in his race for the office of sheriff Tuesday night in an enthusiastic meeting of the Central Holly club, an organization composed of the ward Holly clubs, held at the auditorium on Third street. The candidate was particularly pleased with invitations to address various unions of the city, the requests being publicly tendered by members of the unions. Fred Wagner urged that members of the Holly clubs do all in their power to induce every man entitled to vote to register before the primaries. "There's more than one vote gained for your candidate when you take a man down to register," he remarked. "When it comes down to the last," said Hollingsworth, "it is ridiculous to say that any one candidate will have the general support of any one candidate. Therefore, it is ridiculous to say one candidate will have the solid labor vote, another the solid capitalistic vote, a third the solid fraternity vote. When a man gets down to the ballot box, he will vote for the man he thinks best for the office." A musical program was rendered by Signor Leonard, James F. Casey, J. T. Casey and L. B. Wright. Among the speakers were Mike J. Roche, Rufus Holman, Charles Mitchell, William McGinn, A. M. Starr, Marion Palmer, G. E. Lake, Fred Wagner, Sam Wagner, John A. Rohwer, Harry Allen and Penumbra Kelly. Later in the evening "Holly" addressed the members of the Motorboat club at their smoker. To a girl of sweet sixteen a love letter looks like the advance agent of a wedding feast.

FEARS SEALSKINS WILL LOSE THEIR POPULARITY

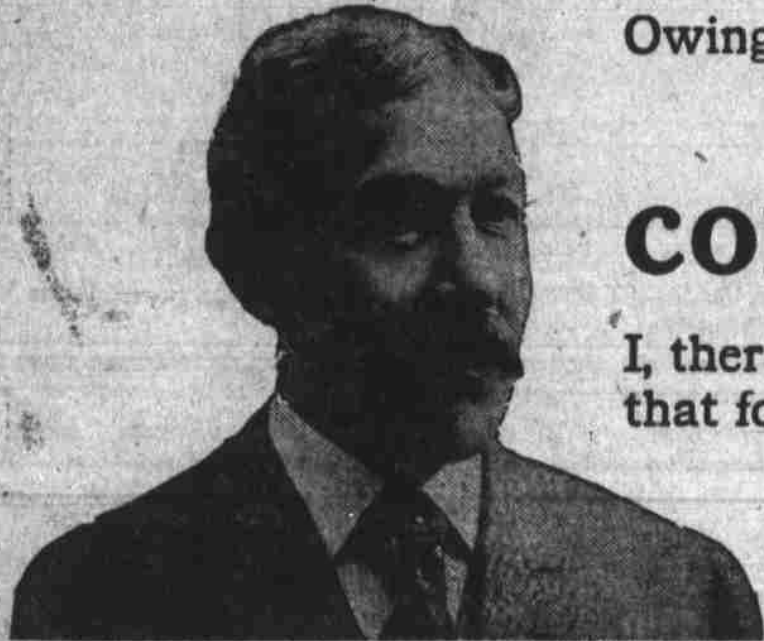

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 21.—Fish commissioner Bowers is opposed to amending the seal treaty by making a closed season for 14 years. He has made his position known to all senators, and has argued that it is better to kill superfluous male seals, both for the benefit of the herd and an account of the revenue it will produce, which he estimates for the 14 year period at from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000. Moreover, he is of the opinion that if sealing is to be stopped entirely, sealskins will go out of fashion, as happened once before, and prices will drop to 15 or 16 per skin.

GREAT REMOVAL SALE

Here is absolutely the best and greatest opportunity that I offer, or ever will be offered to my old as well as new patrons to get suits made to order by a high-class merchant tailor for less than you can buy ready made clothes

Owing to the fact that I am compelled to pay $300 rent per month for my present location, which is absolutely worthless for my business, and as I am compelled to move within 90 days!

I, therefore, have decided not to move one single pattern from this present location. Remember, that for years I have endeavored to give my friends and patrons positively the best values, fit and workmanship, and will do the same in this sale, because Portland has been my home for quite a number of years and will be my future home to the end of my days. In order to preserve the trade for the future, I will do my utmost to please each and everyone during this sale, so that I can retain them as my future patrons.

Remember, this is not a trumped up sale, but is positively a bona-fide sale, complying strictly with the statutes of Oregon laws; no misrepresentation

On account of my immense stock of woolens it will be almost impossible to mention each and every bolt separately. I have therefore bulked them together in three lots which are as follows:

Over six hundred Tweed Suit Patterns, which I received the last part of February for this Spring's wear, containing the latest shades in browns, grays and other colors too numerous to mention, and not one suit from this lot would I sell at a regular price for less than from $35.00 to $47.50 a suit, and, not wishing to remove a single patterns, you can take your choice from the entire lot of these 600 Suit Patterns for $25.00 a suit to your measure.

Be your own salesman, select any pattern from these 600 suitings for Eleven whole bolts of Blue Serge, containing from 50 to 60 yards in each bolt. These goods I positively guarantee not to shine or fade and are of such weights they can be worn the year around. My regular prices on these goods were never less than from $37.50 to $45.00 per suit. Your unrestricted choice from these 11 bolts for $27.50 a suit, made to your measure.

$27.50

Drummond's English Black Unfinished Worsteds, Piques, Diagonals (name stamped on every yard), guaranteed not to shine or fade, for dress and year-around wear. My regular prices on these goods were never less than from $45.00 to $50.00 per suit. Your unrestricted choice from over five hundred yards for $30.00 a suit, made to your measure.

I wish also to call your attention to the fact that although I have ample time to make up your goods in first-class style, it will be to your own advantage to come as early as possible so as to enable yourself to secure the choice patterns as I positively will not duplicate, or buy any more goods during this removal sale.

DON'T DELAY—ORDER YOUR SUIT MADE FOR EASTER

To my numerous customers and patrons residing outside of Portland, who are not able to come to Portland to attend this sale, I will cheerfully mail samples and self-measuring blanks in order to enable them to take advantage of this sale.
