DOWNEY, KANSAS CITY STAR, MAY JOIN SOLONS

(Special to The Journal.)
Sacramento, Cal., March 27. — Man-ager Patsy O'Rourke of the Senators announced yesterday that he had grown tired of the delay of the Boston Americans in sending him a shortstop and that he secured one from the Philadelphia Nationals. While O'Rourke would not confirm the rumor, it is pretty well known that it is Tommy Downey, the former Kansas City player, whom McCredie angled for two years ago. If Downey is secured he will be a big help to the Harps.

HILLSBORO FANS PLAN FOR STAR AGGREGATION

(Special to The Journal.)
Hillsboro, Or., March 27.—The base-ball park in Hillsboro has been leased to a syndicate of local fans composed of E. L. Moore, W. W. Boscow, C. E. Koonts and F. J. Sewell. A star club will be organized and a series of games with independent clubs played. Last year's county league was not a success and has been abandoned. During 1909 and 1910 weekly games were played with semi-professional clubs, mostly from Portland. This plan has proved the most popular and will be resumed. The season opens April 14 with the C. Y. M. C. of Portland.
