

U. S. CRUISER FLEET MAY COME NEXT JULY

If the plans now being made by the large delegation of Elks of Washington, D. C., who are to come to the Elks 1113 reunion to be held in Portland next July, carry, the Portland harbor will be filled with a fleet of United States cruisers and torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers during the week of the reunion. Information to this effect was received this morning by Secretary Harry C. McAllister of the 1912 convention committee. Arrangements are also well under way so that the California naval militia with the cruiser Marblehead will be here during the same week. Along with them will probably come the Washington naval militia, on board the gunboat Concord and the cruiser Raleigh.

NO COMBINATION IN OREGON, SAYS HOLMAN

Oregon bears the distinction of being the first state in the Union where a primary law exists in which the names of Champ Clark and Judson Harmon will appear on the same ballot. Apparently the Clark and Harmon Democrats in Oregon, at least, can be so quitted of the charge of combining their forces against Wilson.

In all other primary states, so far as reported, the name of Clark will not appear where Harmon is a candidate, and the name of Harmon will not appear where Clark is a candidate. Neither Harmon nor Clark are contesting states where Underwood is in the fight. With the exception of Oregon, it is Clark against Wilson, or Harmon against Wilson, or Underwood against Wilson.

These tactics have given rise to the charge that a Clark-Harmon-Underwood combination exists to capture the largest possible number of delegates from Woodward Wilson. Fred V. Holman, who has been active in having petitions circulated for Harmon, says that while he cannot speak for other states, he knows there has been no combination in Oregon.

SMEAR OF INK FIGURES IN JONES COURTMARTIAL

Bremerton, Wash., March 28.—Who smeared ink on a hotel register containing the name of "C. H. Davis, Post O." on April 2, 1911? That is the absorbing question in the courtmartial trial of Lieutenant K. C. Jones. The prosecution blames the defense and alleges that it was done to hide Jones' writing, when he rented a room in a Seattle hotel, accompanied by a woman believed to be Mrs. McReynolds, wife of Lieutenant C. S. McReynolds, as testified to by Mrs. Florence Connors, the landlady.

Information to this effect was received this morning by Secretary Harry C. McAllister of the 1912 convention committee. Arrangements are also well under way so that the California naval militia with the cruiser Marblehead will be here during the same week. Along with them will probably come the Washington naval militia, on board the gunboat Concord and the cruiser Raleigh.
