

THIS TIME WILLIE'S INVENTION WAS A HOWLING SUCCESS

DEAR TOMMY: This is a diagram of a scheme I invented to April fool our bill clerk, who was always playing some stupid joke on me. I made a duplicate of his own pencil and changed it when he was working one of his chestnuts off on the office boy. Gracious, but he got stung, all right! Yours, etc. WILLIE.

FOR HE'S A JOLLY GOOD FELLOW—UNTIL HE GETS HOME
