

THE WEATHER

Fair today with northerly winds.

Evening Journal

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL 6 Sections—80 Pages

VOL. VIII. NO. 52.

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 31, 1912.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

HARD COAL MINERS THROUGHOUT EAST WALK OUT IN BODY

Anthracite Properties Deserted Except by Engineers and Pumpmen Who Remain to Keep Down Gas.

ORDER OF SUSPENSION EVERYWHERE OBEYED

Men Take Tools Away With Them in Spite of Rule to Contrary.

(By the International News Service.) Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 30.—Union leaders of the anthracite mine workers report that all of the mine workers except the engineers and pumpmen who keep the mines from being damaged by accumulation of gas and water, left the mines this afternoon not to return until the suspension order is lifted or, if there is a strike, until their leaders formally order them to return to work.

NEBRASKA IS GREAT INLAND SEA; DAMAGE BY FLOODS IS HEAVY

Many Towns to West of Omaha Send in Messages for Help.

MAN HUNTERS CLOSE ON ALLEN FUGITIVES

(Dated Press Leased Wire.) Hillsville, Va., March 30.—Carroll county's grim game of hide and seek continued through the dark hours tonight, with the man hunters at last hot on the trail of the remnants of the Allen gang. A messenger brought word here tonight that the detectives were now only an hour behind their quarry.

KINDNESS OF DOCTOR REPAID AS HE'S DYING

(Special to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., March 30.—When Dr. John Tiedeman, Bookworm victim, was stricken, he was without friends, relatives or means, but Louise Clarke, a pretty blue-eyed nurse, voluntarily gave her services, caring for him with tender devotion until death claimed him.

REWARD FOR NECKLACE LOST AT SOCIETY FETE

(By the International News Service.) Los Angeles, March 30.—A $2500, single strand pearl necklace, the property of pretty Miss Anne Loomis of Pittsburg, who is wintering at the Maryland hotel in the Buavista with her mother, has occasioned a police and private detective search that today resulted in the offer of $200 for its return.

NOTE ON HER DRESS IS TRAVELING GUIDE

Little Girl, Deserted by Her Mother in Los Angeles, On Way to Woodburn, Or.

(By the International News Service.) San Francisco, March 30.—"My name is Eva Walton. Am five years old, going on 6. I am going to my aunt at Woodburn, Or."

MEDFORD MEN HURT WHEN AUTO JUMPS BANK

(Special to The Journal.) Medford, Or., March 30.—As the result of a spin on the Jacksonville road this evening, John Barnburg, a well known capitalist of this city, together with his brother-in-law, Clarence Kellogg, lie near the point of death.

4 STRIKE LEADERS ARRESTED, OTHERS FLEE TO ABERDEEN

Crucial Test in Grays Harbor Situation Will Come on Monday When Mills Try to Run Again.

(Special to The Journal.) Hoquiam, Wash., March 30.—Backed by the citizens of Hoquiam, Chief of Police T. Quinn today made a determined effort to break the backbone of the strike, and this evening arrested four leaders.

SLAVIC RACES ARE TO BE GIVEN NO EMPLOYMENT

Millmen Say They Will Have None But American Labor and Will Pay Better.

(Special to The Journal.) Hoquiam, Wash., March 30.—The citizens have asked Governor Hay to investigate conditions, and this has put fear into the strikers, who realize that if the militia is called they will lose out.

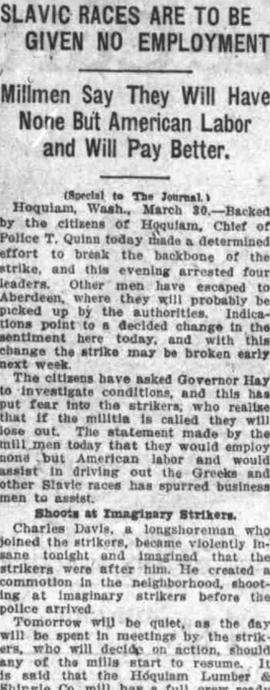

MARCH, 1912, ONE OF BEST PORTLAND HAS EVER KNOWN

Increase in Bank Clearings for First Quarter Nearly $15,000,000—Building Gain $200,000.

Leading Democrats Prefer Wilson

Progressive Attitude Wins Favor

Woodrow Wilson, regarded as typical representative of popular ideas of government.

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY IS FAVORED BY ALL CLASSES

Prominent Citizens of Portland Tell Why Wilson Logical Nominee of Democratic Party for President.

WOODROW WILSON FIRST CANDIDATE—CHAMBERLAIN

New Jersey Executive Commands Support of Progressive Element of Democrats and Republicans Alike.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned. His belief in the ability of the New Jersey executive to lead the Democratic party to victory only grows stronger as time passes, and he has more opportunity to study the character of the leader and the sentiment of the country.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW GREAT GROWTH

$2,000,000 Goes Into New Homes Since Jan. 1; Every Line of Business Active.

(Special to The Journal.) Hoquiam, Wash., March 30.—The citizens have asked Governor Hay to investigate conditions, and this has put fear into the strikers, who realize that if the militia is called they will lose out.

SHOOTING AT IMAGINARY STRIKERS

Charles Davis, a longshoreman who joined the strikers, became violently insane tonight, and imagined that the strikers were after him.

PUTTY REMOVED FROM WINDOW

Examination of the rear of the building showed the wagon tracks and it was also found that putty had been removed from the windows, the thieves apparently intending to gain an entrance that way and the three men said covered in front merely spying out the ground.

ABERDEEN, WASH., MARCH 30.—THAT THE strikers who attempted to break into company G. artory here last night intended to carry away rifles by the wholesale was indicated today by the testimony furnished by those living close to the armory building, who said that they had heard a wagon drive up to the rear of the building shortly before 2 o'clock in the morning and that when the shots were fired at the men trying to break in from the front by one of the company on guard duty, the wagon rattled off at a furious pace.

ABERDEEN, WASH., MARCH 30.—THAT THE strikers who attempted to break into company G. artory here last night intended to carry away rifles by the wholesale was indicated today by the testimony furnished by those living close to the armory building, who said that they had heard a wagon drive up to the rear of the building shortly before 2 o'clock in the morning and that when the shots were fired at the men trying to break in from the front by one of the company on guard duty, the wagon rattled off at a furious pace.

PUTTY REMOVED FROM WINDOW

Examination of the rear of the building showed the wagon tracks and it was also found that putty had been removed from the windows, the thieves apparently intending to gain an entrance that way and the three men said covered in front merely spying out the ground.

ABERDEEN, WASH., MARCH 30.—THAT THE strikers who attempted to break into company G. artory here last night intended to carry away rifles by the wholesale was indicated today by the testimony furnished by those living close to the armory building, who said that they had heard a wagon drive up to the rear of the building shortly before 2 o'clock in the morning and that when the shots were fired at the men trying to break in from the front by one of the company on guard duty, the wagon rattled off at a furious pace.

PUTTY REMOVED FROM WINDOW

Examination of the rear of the building showed the wagon tracks and it was also found that putty had been removed from the windows, the thieves apparently intending to gain an entrance that way and the three men said covered in front merely spying out the ground.

ABERDEEN, WASH., MARCH 30.—THAT THE strikers who attempted to break into company G. artory here last night intended to carry away rifles by the wholesale was indicated today by the testimony furnished by those living close to the armory building, who said that they had heard a wagon drive up to the rear of the building shortly before 2 o'clock in the morning and that when the shots were fired at the men trying to break in from the front by one of the company on guard duty, the wagon rattled off at a furious pace.

PUTTY REMOVED FROM WINDOW

Examination of the rear of the building showed the wagon tracks and it was also found that putty had been removed from the windows, the thieves apparently intending to gain an entrance that way and the three men said covered in front merely spying out the ground.

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY IS FAVORED BY ALL CLASSES

Prominent Citizens of Portland Tell Why Wilson Logical Nominee of Democratic Party for President.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

WOODROW WILSON FIRST CANDIDATE—CHAMBERLAIN

New Jersey Executive Commands Support of Progressive Element of Democrats and Republicans Alike.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY IS FAVORED BY ALL CLASSES

Prominent Citizens of Portland Tell Why Wilson Logical Nominee of Democratic Party for President.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

WOODROW WILSON FIRST CANDIDATE—CHAMBERLAIN

New Jersey Executive Commands Support of Progressive Element of Democrats and Republicans Alike.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY IS FAVORED BY ALL CLASSES

Prominent Citizens of Portland Tell Why Wilson Logical Nominee of Democratic Party for President.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

WOODROW WILSON FIRST CANDIDATE—CHAMBERLAIN

New Jersey Executive Commands Support of Progressive Element of Democrats and Republicans Alike.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY IS FAVORED BY ALL CLASSES

Prominent Citizens of Portland Tell Why Wilson Logical Nominee of Democratic Party for President.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, March 30.—Senator Chamberlain's faith in the political genius of Governor Woodrow Wilson has not waned.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

PRESIDENT TAFT ADMITS SITUATION IS SERIOUS

However, Will Lay Facts Before Congress Before He Takes Action.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

PRESIDENT TAFT ADMITS SITUATION IS SERIOUS

However, Will Lay Facts Before Congress Before He Takes Action.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

PRESIDENT TAFT ADMITS SITUATION IS SERIOUS

However, Will Lay Facts Before Congress Before He Takes Action.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

PRESIDENT TAFT ADMITS SITUATION IS SERIOUS

However, Will Lay Facts Before Congress Before He Takes Action.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

PRESIDENT TAFT ADMITS SITUATION IS SERIOUS

However, Will Lay Facts Before Congress Before He Takes Action.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

PRESIDENT TAFT ADMITS SITUATION IS SERIOUS

However, Will Lay Facts Before Congress Before He Takes Action.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.

GERMANY SERVES NOTICE MONROE DOCTRINE AT END

Kaiser Plans to Land Army in Mexico Moment United States Tries to Restore Peace by Intervention.

(By the International News Service.) Washington, March 30.—President Taft admitted to callers today that the situation in Mexico is more serious than is generally believed.