

POLITICS BACK OF REPORT OF GRAND JURY, SAY 3 MEN

Rushlight, Stevens, Slover Worry But Little Over Accusations—Something is Wrong, They Say.

If the members of the grand jury have any evidence of graft, gambling or other violations of the laws and ordinances they should at once, if good citizens, submit such evidence to the proper authorities and I will aid them in any way possible in the performance of their duty.—Mayor Rushlight.

I am too busy to talk politics or to grease anybody's political wheel. I may have more to say later.—Sheriff Stevens.

I do not believe that there is any graft going on in the police department at present. The grand jury seems bent on destroying what evidence has already been collected and is now pending. My record as chief shows that I am not too small a man for the job.—Chief of Police Slover.

The denunciation of Mayor Rushlight, Sheriff Stevens and Chief of Police Slover in the report of the March grand jury returned yesterday is charged by these three officials to politics. Not one of them took the matter to heart as far as their personal feelings were concerned, but all felt that there was a "bugger" in the woodpile in the report.

According to the report they are guilty of dereliction of duty and Mayor Rushlight and Sheriff Stevens, the jurors say, would be indicted were there a law under which an indictment might be returned. Chief Slover, according to the report, is "too small for his position."

The report states that gambling, prostitution and graft are carried on to an alarming extent, that the officials are negligent about enforcing the laws, that the police officers are being held back in the discharge of their duty, that liquor is being sold in violation of the laws of permit and to young girls and men, and that obscene dancing is indulged in without interference.

Stevens Too Busy to Talk. Sheriff Stevens had been so wrapped up in the hunt for the perpetrators of the murder of the two youths, George Hastings and Donald Stewart, in the automobile last Friday night that he had no time to read the report or to think about it, he says.

He has gone without sleep since the murder was reported and wouldn't discuss the report at length. Chief Slover was also out at the scene of the crime yesterday. Mayor Rushlight was very busy with work which had piled up during his absence in California, but read the article thoroughly and smiled broadly when he had completed it.

Bushlight Would Aid City. "It is the duty of all good citizens of the city to submit any evidence of graft, gambling, or other violation of the laws and ordinances to proper authorities," said Mayor Rushlight, yesterday, "and if the members of the grand jury have any evidence they should submit it at once."

"I will be glad to do anything I can aid them in performing their duty and the promise that I made to the grand jury that they could have the services of any officers of the city to aid them in their investigations holds good now and in the future."

"There is somebody behind the scenes who is attempting to split witnesses necessary to the prosecution of graft cases now in progress from the city in order to hold up the cases. These witnesses I do not wish driven out and I will not allow anyone to use official influence to get rid of them."

"The administration has done much toward bettering the moral condition of the city and will do much more. When the evidence is gathered it will be used. I want anyone having any evidence that will aid in cleaning the city to submit it at once."

"I am too busy to talk politics or to grease anybody's political wheel," said Sheriff Stevens, last night. "I may have more to say later."

Not Too Small for Job. The records of the police department since I took charge will show whether I am too small for the position of chief," said Chief of Police Slover last night. "There have been fewer hold-ups and burglaries in the last eight months than at any time previous in the past 15 years. Does this look as if I were too small for the position?"

The assertion was made that 40 drunks had been seen on the street on one Sunday. I do not believe that even

HOOQUAM ASKS FOR 20 PORTLAND PATROLMEN

An urgent long distance telephone message was received by Chief of Police Slover from the chief of police at Hoquiam, Wash., where the strike situation has almost resulted in martial law being established, asking that 20 uniformed men from the Portland police department be sent there at once to assist in quelling the riots.

Chief of Police Slover at first declined to send the men on the grounds that they would not be citizens of the state of Washington, but was assured that that difficulty could be overcome.

Chief Slover then declared that he could not spare 20 men from the department at this time, as they were needed here for regular police duty and their absence would present a serious situation.

"I cannot see why an appeal was not made to Seattle or Tacoma," said the chief last night, "both cities are nearer there than Portland, and the difficulties attending the citizenship would not arise. Then again we may have trouble here at any time and we need all the men we have."

CONFESES ROBBERY OF BAY CITY POSTOFFICE

Harry G. Durand, United States post-office inspector, and Deputy United States Marshal Griffith returned yesterday afternoon from Tillamook with George Ross, self confessed postoffice robber, in custody, and the man was at once placed in the county jail to await the action of the federal grand jury under $3000 bonds, which he was unable to furnish.

Ross made a written confession to the federal officers Friday that one year ago on that date he had broken into the postoffice at Bay City, about seven miles from Tillamook, and taken $150 in cash and a like amount in stamps. The cash he had spent but the stamps he had cached and they were found by the federal officers and are being held as evidence.

Ross was taken into custody by the local authorities on a charge of blowing a safe in a store in Tillamook and was being held on that charge when he confessed to the postoffice robbery. The local authorities turned him over to the federal authorities for prosecution.

"BUTCHERS MUST PAY," SAYS SLAIN BOY'S SIRE

Omaha, Neb., March 30.—Sarp county is satisfied with the verdict which the coroner's jury returned Friday night holding Chief of Police John Briggs of South Omaha, John Trouton of Omaha, and Sheriff Hyers of Lincoln responsible for the death of Roy Blunt, farmer, killed in the man hunt two weeks ago Monday.

James Blunt, father of the boy, who, since his death, has been obsessed with a desire for vengeance, is satisfied. "The butchers must pay," he says.

DIXIE, WASH., BOY FALLS INTO DRY CREEK, DROWNS

Walla Walla, Wash., March 30.—Playing in the barnyard of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran of Dixie, 2-year-old Isadore Cochran was drowned in Dry creek today.

The stream, in summer as dry as its name, being held on that charge when he confessed to the postoffice robbery. The local authorities turned him over to the federal authorities for prosecution.

"When I took charge of the department it was in a chaotic condition and there was graft, but I do not believe any is going on at present. When I find any grafting in the department I will go after the grafter and so after him hard. It must stop. It is hard to get any direct evidence and the greater number of complaints are vague and with no one to back them up."

The grand jury seems bent on destroying what evidence has been collected in the graft cases now pending. Even Deputy District Attorney charged the grand jury with doing this to their faces. I am not a politician and do not intend to mix in politics. Portland's moral conditions are better than in any other city in the northwest, yet there have been three strikes in the city during my term.

The members of the grand jury were H. V. Bamford, Manuel Hallock, E. W. Wallace, M. C. Banfield, H. B. Walker, E. D. Hamilton and A. G. Lambert.

QUARTETTE OF ROOSEVELT MEN Wire Dan Kellahey Lengthy Statement; To Which McCusker Replies.

A choice seat in the inner circle of the Ananias club is awarded to Walter L. Houser, La Follette's campaign manager, in a statement sent from Washington to Dan Kellahey by Gifford Pinchot, his brother, Amos Pinchot, Congressman William Kent of California, and Medill McCormick of Chicago.

Claiming to speak from first-hand knowledge, the Roosevelt quartette declares that Houser on January 23 and before that time talked about drawing La Follette for Roosevelt because that was the only way to prevent the renomination of Taft.

Thomas McCusker, manager for La Follette in Oregon, last night declared the statements of the Pinchots, Kent and McCormick are inconsistent with facts in his possession, which show that Houser and La Follette were vigorously prosecuting his campaign both before and after Jaquith's election.

The letter to Kellahey, signed by the two Pinchots, Kent and La Follette, says: "Walter L. Houser, manager of Senator La Follette's campaign, continues to charge that Colonel Roosevelt urged Senator La Follette to become a candidate for the presidency and promised to support him. This is not true. So far as we know every message or communication sent from Senator La Follette's headquarters to Colonel Roosevelt, or carried from Colonel Roosevelt to Senator La Follette's headquarters, was made to Mr. Gilson Gardner (who has already in a widely published letter pointed out that Mr. Houser's estimates are not in accordance with the facts) by us, or in our presence.

On every occasion when Roosevelt stated clearly and explicitly that he would not endorse any candidate for the presidency; furthermore Colonel Roosevelt has at all times made it perfectly clear that he would not bind himself to refuse the nomination if it were offered to him. The statements were correctly repeated by us to Mr. Houser at the La Follette headquarters and there was no possibility of misunderstanding Mr. Roosevelt's position.

Mr. Houser has wandered so far from the facts that he appears to have forgotten that among the letters La Follette's supporters rebuffed are statements of his supporters and advisors he was one of the first to urge that in the interest of the progressive movement La Follette should withdraw in favor of Colonel Roosevelt; this he did repeatedly in the presence of his witnesses. On the night when Senator La Follette was starting for his mid-winter western trip, Mr. Houser and William Kent, Gifford Pinchot, Amos Pinchot and Medill McCormick at the latter's apartment in Washington. He then stated that in his opinion the only way to keep the progressives together and prevent Taft's nomination was for La Follette to abandon his own candidacy and throw his influence and organization to Colonel Roosevelt. "If the Colonel would consent to become a candidate, Mr. Houser said that Senator La Follette could not go to the Chicago convention with more than a corporal's guard of delegates and that he doubted whether he could get the whole Wisconsin delegation."

Repeated Statements. "On Monday, January 23, at a conference at the La Follette headquarters Mr. Houser repeated these statements in the presence of the undersigned and others. Mr. Houser maintained this attitude at the periodical Publisher's dinner at Philadelphia on Friday, February 2; on the next day which was Sunday at a conference of Senator La Follette's friends and supporters which included Senators Bourns, Brewster, Chapman, Representative Lenroot and Mr. Fackler, the La Follette manager in Ohio. Mr. Houser agreed with those who were present that Senator La Follette must withdraw immediately."

On Monday, February 5, Mr. Houser in his capacity as campaign manager and Colonel John Hanson private secretary to Senator La Follette, announced in which Senator La Follette only withdrew from the race, but specifically released his friends and advised them to go to any candidate through whom in their judgment the progressive cause would best be advanced.

The only reason given by Mr. Houser for delaying the publication of the announcement was explained, to give a little time for private messages to be sent to the La Follette managers so as to give them an opportunity to transfer their organizations to Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. Houser said the statement would be made public in the morning papers, the same evening George L. Record in New Jersey received a long distance telephone message from Mr. Houser stating that Senator La Follette had released his friends and Mr. Record made an announcement to this effect at a public meeting where he was presiding. The typewritten announcement exhibited at La Follette's headquarters during the afternoon was not in fact made public; but another announcement was substituted which Mr. Houser told Senator La Follette's friends should be interpreted as a release. During all this period Mr. Houser made no secret of his opinion that Senator La Follette was only going to the Chicago convention because of the serious illness of La Follette, and that he might withdraw. He said this would depend on conferees to be held. In two or three days Houser advised that La Follette was still in the race. "At no time was word sent to me that La Follette would withdraw. It is said by the Pinchots and the others that Houser was asking managers in the different states whether or not La Follette should withdraw. No such telegram was sent to me. "It is inconsistent to say that La Follette talked of withdrawing when he was at his zenith. The purpose of all the efforts that Roosevelt and the others were in Oregon, and an effort is being made to bolster him up. It is too late. La Follette will carry Oregon, as he carried North Dakota, and as he will carry all the western direct primary states."

"People realize that La Follette is the foremost progressive and the ablest of the progressive statesmen. Reports coming in are most encouraging. Even central Oregon is sending in a call, asking if arrangements can possibly be made to have La Follette appear at the meet. I have no doubt at all that La Follette will win Oregon."

AUTHORITIES SEEK BLONDE MAN, AGE 35, AS MURDER SUSPECT

Richard Everding likewise noticed on the road a man who examined his machine in the same way.

Suek Two Convicts. While the officers suspect that the light complexioned stranger may know something of the double murder they are attempting to find trace of George Beeson and William Smith, convicts who escaped from the penitentiary at Salem, Thursday, February 15, and fled toward Portland. Although there is no evidence to connect them with the crime, the police, knowing their records, are anxious to know their whereabouts.

Beeson was serving time for robbery committed at Baker county and Smith for a stick-up job committed in Malheur county.

A determined hunt has been in progress since the young men, telephoned in the story of the tragedy from the home of Judge Carey, on Riverside drive in Astoria, Oregon, last night, where they stopped after escaping the murderer of Sheriff Miles of Oregon City, Sheriff Stevens and Deputy Sheriff Arthur Leonard and two aides and Captain Keller of the local police department and five picked men thoroughly examined every inch of territory near the scene of the crime and ran down numbers of suspects.

Today Sheriff Mass and Stevens and a half dozen deputies will renew the hunt in Portland and Clackamas county.

Clues Fall Flat. One of the most promising clues which fell flat like the other developed late yesterday afternoon when a far-favor of Colonel Roosevelt; this he did repeatedly in the presence of his witnesses. On the night when Senator La Follette was starting for his mid-winter western trip, Mr. Houser and William Kent, Gifford Pinchot, Amos Pinchot and Medill McCormick at the latter's apartment in Washington. He then stated that in his opinion the only way to keep the progressives together and prevent Taft's nomination was for La Follette to abandon his own candidacy and throw his influence and organization to Colonel Roosevelt. "If the Colonel would consent to become a candidate, Mr. Houser said that Senator La Follette could not go to the Chicago convention with more than a corporal's guard of delegates and that he doubted whether he could get the whole Wisconsin delegation."

Another report which is not given much credence, but which will be investigated, was that a contractor residing at Oswego overheard a conversation to the effect that the assassin was waiting for an automobile containing two prominent members of the Portland Elite, and that he made a mistake and tried to stop the wrong car.

Preparatory to making a careful search for the criminal in Portland, Sheriff Stevens, Chief of Police Slover, Deputy Sheriffs Archie Leonard and Bob Phillips, Police Captains Keller and Riley and Detectives Coleman and Smith, a long conference last night. It is understood that the north end and waterfront lodging houses will be combed in an effort to ascertain whether the man lived in Portland.

Although it has not been definitely determined, the school last night members were members is considering offering a reward of $1000 for the arrest and conviction of the assassin. Judge Carey is also considering offering a reward and it is probable that other citizens may subscribe, should it seem advisable to put a price on the murderer's head.

The inquest on the bodies of Hastings and Stewart will be held Monday. Stewart's funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the family residence 235 East Third street north. The funeral services will be at Grace Stewart, Ormie Dowling, Robert McMurray, Denton Caplin, Jack Day and H. L. Tabb. The body will be interred at Riverside cemetery. The Hastings funeral is set for Monday. The body will be buried at Riverside also.

IRRIGATION RECEIVER SUES CHICAGO BACKERS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Grants Pass, Or., March 30.—Suit was filed in the circuit court here today by George Lorenson, receiver of the Chicago-Rogue River company, owner of a big irrigation enterprise here, to recover $22,248 from C. M. Leonard of the Leonard & Construction company of Chicago and Portland; P. Phillips, a banker of Chicago; and R. B. Slaughter, of the firm of A. O. Slaughter & Co., bankers of Chicago. The sum sued for is alleged to be owing to the irrigation company under a contract with defendants, whereby the latter were to finance the company to the extent of $75,000. After paying in $7000, the defendants defaulted, it is claimed. The property has debts of about $29,000.

"At this time, also, La Follette had Michigan, despite the treason of Governor Osborn, and the physical collapse of the senator did not come until February 5 at Philadelphia. On that day I received a telegram from Houser, saying that because of the serious illness of La Follette he might withdraw. He said this would depend on conferees to be held. In two or three days Houser

ILLINOIS IS TO HOLD NATIONAL PRIMARY; DENEEN SIGNS BILL

Governor Puts "O. K." on Presidential Choice Measure Which Voters Will Take Advantage of April 9.

(By the International News Service.) Springfield, Ill., March 30.—Illinois voters will have the privilege of expressing their choice of the presidential candidates as the nominees of their respective parties at the general primaries to be held throughout the state on April 9.

The presidential preferential primary bill, which passed the senate yesterday was passed by the house today and signed by Governor Deneen late this afternoon.

The bill provides for a preferential vote by congressional districts for district delegates to national convention and a state wide preference for delegates at large. In the next Democratic and Republican national convention Illinois will have 50 district delegates and eight delegates at large.

President Taft's supporters were the first to file their petition and his name will be first on the ballot. Petitions are in circulation for Theodore Roosevelt and Senator La Follette, Republicans, and Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson, Democrats.

The new law will break up the unit rule that the Democratic party always has invoked for Illinois—that is, the rule whereby the entire delegation was voted the way the majority wished or the state convention instructed.

LA FOLLETTE MANAGER PREDICTS LANDSLIDE, 3 TO 1, AGAINST TAFT

(United Press Leased Wire.) Milwaukee, March 30.—With Wisconsin's first statewide presidential preference primaries election but two days in advance, State Senator John J. Blaine, La Follette's campaign manager, tonight predicted the progressive leader would sweep the state in Tuesday's voting with a plurality of 3 to 1 over the Taft candidacy in the race for the Republican presidential nomination. Roosevelt is out of the contest in La Follette's home state.

Emmanuel L. Phillip, Taft campaign manager in Wisconsin, tonight declined to make any definite pre-election statement. He, however, stated that reports received by him within the past few days indicated Taft sentiment had been rapidly growing and he looked for a close result in the First to Ninth districts.

Both supporters of Governor Wilson and Champ Clark in the Democratic contest, predict victory in Tuesday's primary. Senator Gore of Oklahoma is stumping the state for Wilson.

OHIO COMMITTEE IS STRONG FOR TAFT; PLANS 2 CONVENTIONS

(By the International News Service.) Columbus, Ohio, March 30.—By a vote of 15 to 6, the Republican state committee this afternoon endorsed President Taft for renomination and decided to hold two state conventions, one in Co-

MAGDALENA PURELY "COMMERCIAL BASE"

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, March 30.—"That there may be some truth" in the report published from Tokio today that Japan has secured concessions at Magdalena bay, Mexico, was the tacit admission of state department officials tonight.

But it was insisted that if such a station were secured it was purely a "commercial base," according to the department. Mexico has recently published that she will grant all nations equal mercantile coal privileges at her ports.

While the state department officially denied having any information from Tokio on the report that Japan had obtained the long coveted station in this hemisphere, it was admitted by officials that perhaps big Japanese steamship lines had taken advantage of the Mexican government's tender of equal coal privileges for all nations.

HERBERT HANLON TO GO TO PRISON, 2-15 YEARS

(Special to the Journal.) Seattle, Wash., March 30.—Herbert T. Hanlon, erstwhile newspaper correspondent, who wrote scathing articles last fall on members from this city in Secretary Fisher's Alaska party, today was sentenced to the state reformatory at Monroe for 2 1/2 to 15 years. Hanlon was convicted of stealing evening wearing apparel from the office of J. F. Douglas, and although his younger brother confessed, the jury found him guilty.

lumbus, June 3 and 4, to select six delegates at large to the Republican national convention, and another later to name a state ticket. The holding of two conventions is a concession to the Roosevelt voters. The election of a candidate for governor will depend very largely on whom is nominated for president. Primaries will be held in each of the 21 districts for the purpose of selecting district delegates to the Chicago convention.

LOOKS AS THOUGH TAFT HAS EVEN RUN TO TAKE IOWA FROM CUMMINS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Des Moines, Iowa, March 30.—With the Taft men victorious in Scott county today, capturing 35 delegates from a progressive stronghold and instructing them for the president it begins to look as though Taft had an even chance to take Iowa away from Senator A. E. Cummins.

Clinton and Muscatine counties will hold conventions next week and there will be a hard fight. If they go for Taft the state convention is his. The action of Scott county today insures the Second district to Taft with its two delegates.

The following counties gave Taft 84 delegates today: Scott 35, Dubuque 35, Delaware 12, Crawford 11. Following for Cummins, Howard 3, Plymouth 12, Wright 13, Black Hawk 23, Hancock 19, Buchanan 14.

Idaho Sways to Roosevelt.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Boise, Idaho, March 30.—The Ada county Republican convention held here today instructed its 31 delegates to the state convention at Lewiston to vote for a Roosevelt delegation to Chicago. Roosevelt has a majority of the delegates elected thus far to the Lewiston convention.

POPULATION NOW TOTALS 257,490, SAYS DIRECTORY

Greater Portland Has Added 50,000 People to Its List of Residents Since the Government Census of 1910.

Portland has semi-officially passed the 250,000 mark in population, and it's still growing. To be explicit, just 257,490 men, women and children now make their homes in Greater Portland, which includes Leuts, Milwaukie, Linton and St. Johns, as estimated in R. L. Polk & Co.'s directory for 1912, which makes the appearance next Tuesday.

In joining the 250,000 club among the cities, Oregon's metropolis has added almost exactly 50,000 folk to its family circle since the government census takers decided in 1910 that 207,214 was enough for such a lusty young western town. The census men originally gave us 222,957 that same year, but checked down the figures later without a quail. This makes the present showing all the more remarkable.

Moreover, the estimate of 257,490 is most conservative, says Harold T. Hutchinson, who had charge of compiling the directory for the Polk people. After deducting the names of minors and married women engaged in mercantile and professional pursuits, the 114,440 names in the big book were multiplied by 2 1/4 to attain the total. Mr. Hutchinson declares this multiple is very conservative indeed, and is more likely to underestimate than give too many.

In gathering names for the directory, arbitrary boundary lines were disregarded, all territory being included that is contiguous to and really a part of the city proper.

Some other interesting things about Portland are told in the directory. Just for instance, did you know that there are more than 400 churches and church societies in the city? That there are 223 miles of paved streets and 371.56 miles of sewers and that the bonded indebtedness is $11,944,000, compared to $8,144,500 for the year before?

You know of course, that the tax rate for 1912 is 24.4 mills, compared to 22 mills in 1911, and that just 737,772 volumes were taken out of the public library in 1911; but had you realized that this year there are 42 school buildings to 45 in 1911; 785 teachers to 750, and 23,367 school pupils enrolled to 20,000 13 months ago? Little matters like that are some criterion of a city's growth.

The directory is probably the largest ever printed in the northwest.

MOTORCYCLE SPEEDERS UNDER BAN IN SEATTLE

(Special to the Journal.) Seattle, Wash., March 30.—The police and the courts are determined to end the evil of speeding on motorcycles. The speeders have given the police the laugh, but Chief Baunick will place another motorcycle in his squad and man it night and day to catch the offenders. Police Judge Gordon has announced his policy of assessing speeders 10 per mile. Officers of the Motorcycle club say the offenders are not members.

Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York has announced positively that he will not be a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.
