Miss Cornelia Cook, appearing in the "Campus Mouser."

LENT, with its season of denial and drab social days, is again a thing of the past and the Easter chimes with their ever joyous story usher in a renewal of all that is gay. Gathering energy from the days of rest, society will plunge into a whirl of affairs, planned on elaborate scale. The calendar for this week is already almost filled and from now until the summer exodus the "Campus Mouser," for the Fruit and Flower Mission, engagements, June brides, and all of the affairs that must needs be given for them, will make busy days. With the social activities at a standstill during holy week, "The Campus Mouser" has had full sway with uninterrupted time for rehearsals and furthering of details. At the Thursday meeting of the Fruit and Flower Mission at the Day Nursery, the president, Mrs. E. C. Gilmer, appointed a number of important committees. On the committee to select chaperones for the cast and specialties and patronesses for the play are Mrs. E. C. Moore, chairman, Mrs. E. Froelich, and Mrs. George Kleiser; ticket committee, Mrs. Chester Deering, chairman, Mrs. W. B. Fecheimer, Mrs. F. E. Reed, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Miss Harriet Jellison and Miss Eva Sternberg; flower committee, Miss Mabel Beck, chairman, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Miss Marjorie Forbes, Miss Harriet Jellison and Miss Louise Williams; candy committee, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, chairman, Mrs. Lewis G. Clark, Mrs. F. E. Spencer, Mrs. Oscar Rittenberg, Miss Lola Sanders, Miss Rosemary Baldwin and Miss Katharine Hoyt; program committee, Mrs. F. E. Watkins, chairman, Mrs. Fenton E. Grigsby, Mrs. Benjamin Frankman, Mrs. Oscar Rittenberg, Mrs. William J. Lyons (Miss Hazel Tichner), Miss Marjorie Forbes and Miss Mabel Beck; property committee, Mrs. Irene M. Pfunder. Beginning Tuesday tickets will be on sale every day with Mrs. Chester Deering at the Hotel Multnomah from 11 until 2 o'clock and 4 to 6:30 o'clock. Thursday from 2 until 4 o'clock Miss Ursula St. George, who plays Rebecca in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," will sell tickets at Meter & Franks; Miss Ruth Gerrish, the author, is in general charge and is conducting rehearsals of the play while Miss Edith Varney is in charge of all the dances. Miss Varney is a dramatic school graduate and has studied dancing with Mr. Challa in New York, who has a normal school for dancing teachers and the only Russian dancing school in America. Between the first and second acts a clever mechanical doll specialty will be given by Miss Gertrude Scottford. Three new specialties have been filled as follows: College Widows, Mrs. Erskine Wood and Mrs. Stanley Jewett (Miss Leslie Welder), chaperones, Miss Cully Cook, Miss Ethelyn Glass, Mrs. Henry William Sharp, Miss Catherine Emmons, Miss Margaret Hewitt and Miss Louise Burns; Society, Mrs. Morris E. Whitehouse and Mrs. Robert Wilson Forbes, chaperones, Miss Mildred Josselyn, Miss Theilma Garrett, Miss Frances Brady, Miss Katherine Graham, Miss Helen McCusker, Miss Clarice Biles, Miss Maurine Campbell, Percy Hiller, James Brady, Herbert Thatcher, Norman Matchek, Mr. Brennan and Mr. Schroeyer; Daffodil Dance, Mrs. George Hyland and Mrs. Chester Deering, chaperones, Miss Hazel Russell, Miss Crystal Hyland, Miss Madeline Groh, Miss Buehler Hay, Miss Harriet Heston, Miss Evelyn Shea, Miss Marjorie Cameron, Miss Nellie Preble, Ted Edwards, Guy Perham, Fred Preble, Denton Catterlin, Anson Cornell, Allen Emery and Lloyd Wells. There is yet to be filled the Japanese specialty of which Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett is a chaperone and which Miss Marjorie Hausman is getting up, as well as the College Boys and two or three other small dances. Miss Mary Felling has asked guests for luncheon on Thursday in compliment to Mrs. Kirk Smith (Miss Lisa Wood).

Miss Margery Hoffman, who will have a prominent part in the "Campus Mouser." is the daughter of H. H. Buffum, of Boston, and a Wellesley graduate of the class of '08. Mr. Dudley is the elder son of Mrs. Elliot Habersham. He is a graduate pharmacist. The wedding will take place early in June.

One of the very lovely affairs of the week was the at home given Tuesday by Mrs. Martha J. Patton in honor of her seventieth birthday. Mrs. Patton is one of the well known pioneers. Patton Road bears her name and her beautiful colonial home recently completed at Talbot and Patton Roads, Portland Heights, is built on the exact site of the old Patton farm house, which was razed to make way for the handsome structure. Gathered about Mrs. Patton on Tuesday were many old time friends and prominent pioneers. The yellow lights and draperies of the dining room struck the color note of the decorations, carried out with a profusion of jonquills and apricot. The reception hall and library were decorated with great clusters of flowering currant, trailing woodland vines and wild flowers. The reception room was a bower of many beautiful flowers, the gifts of friends to Mrs. Patton. Several clipsters were arranged of 70 blossoms, one for each year. Mrs. Patton was lovely in a gown of white poplin elaborated with rare old lace. In her hair and for a corsage bouquet she wore dainty lavender primroses. She was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Lena Patton, Mrs. C. M. Cartwright, Mrs. L. M. Parrish, Mrs. James Young and Mrs. Helen A. Clark. Mrs. Patton's little grand niece, Helen Patton, opened the door. During the hours the table was presided over by Mrs. C. M. Cartwright, Mrs. Helen A. Clark, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. Verena, Mrs. R. G. Morrow, Mrs. J. Haddock, Mrs. R. W. Shepherd and Mrs. David Ross. They were assisted by Mrs. Frank Moffatt, Mrs. J. S. Winchester, Miss Louise Watson, Mrs. Charlotte Banfield and Miss Winchester. Floating about the reception room were Mrs. Henry Dickson, Mrs. William H. Stevens and Mrs. Anna Erwin. During the afternoon an enjoyable musical program was given by Mrs. Baltis Allen, who sang Miss Louise Watson, Miss Irma Rounds and Lowell Patton, all of whom gave piano numbers. Among those invited to share Mrs. Patton's hospitality were Mrs. H. L. Pittock, Mrs. Blanche H. Hogue, Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. Meier, Judge and Mrs. R. G. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. M. Plummer, Mrs. C. M. Ban-invited guests for tea in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Smith (Miss Lisa Wood) and announced the betrothal of Miss Myrtle Lewis and Maxwell Wood. Miss Lewis is the daughter of John C. Lewis, a prominent railroad contractor. She came to Portland to make her home two years ago. Mr. Wood is the second son of Colonel and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and a brother of Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Erskine Wood and Berwick Wood. The wedding will be an event of May or June. Mrs. A. A. Morrison will entertain at tea Wednesday from 2 until 5 at the rectory. This is the annual birthday tea of Trinity Episcopal church. The walking club organized by Mrs. William S. Biddle and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies has been enjoying long hikes every Friday this spring. Last Friday the course took them over Mount Scott and to the Bidde farm, where they enjoyed luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Watson have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Delta Monroe Watson, to M. Donald Spencer, which will be solemnized Monday evening, April 22, at a quarter of nine o'clock, in their home on Cornell road. A reception will follow the ceremony. Mrs. Elfreda Heller Weinstein will have as patronesses for the farewell concert which she gives Tuesday evening, April 16, in the Multnomah ballroom, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. John F. Logan, Mrs. Ben Selig, Mrs. Julius Meier, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. Charles Dierke and Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong. Mrs. Weinstein leaves Portland April 28 for Europe, where she will enter grand opera. With her husband, Maurice K. Weinstein, she will sail May 21 from New York on the Ryndam for Holland. Miss Dorothea Spinney of England, who was in charge of a series of readings at St. David's parish house Easter week, will fill her first date at 8:15 Monday, April 15, when she reads Gilbert Murray's translation of "Hippolytus of Euripides." Wednesday, April 17, at 8:15, she will give W. B. Yeats' "The Land of Heart's Desire" and "The Hour Glass." Friday, April 19, at 8:30 she will give Gilbert Murray's translation of "The Trojan Women of Euripides."

In the future the opera classes conducted by Miss Dorothea Naab will be held every Tuesday morning at the home of Miss Jessie Lewis, where the music can be heard to better advantage. An engagement that has just been announced is that of Miss Jessie Buffum and John K. Dudley. Miss Buffum

Three tables were made up with Miss Howell, Miss Otten, Mrs. J. C. Harrington, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. William H. Meyer and her guest from Seattle, Mrs. L. C. Foster and Miss Marjorie Deering. Additional guests were Mrs. Fred Green, Miss Hazel Cook, Miss Lou Killingsworth, Miss Edna Patterson, Miss Jennie Backus, Miss Naomi Burgess, Miss Charlie Patton and Miss Helen Wessell. Miss Helen Knapp entertained with a bridge and lower shower Monday evening at her home. Card honors fell to Miss Marjorie Deering. Other guests were Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, Mrs. W. H. Boyer, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. E. C. Foster and Mrs. J. A. Applewhite. On Friday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Oliver King Jeffrey and Dr. and Mrs. Willard C. Holbrook gave a Dutch whist of three tables and a kitchen shower

Miss Clara Howell, whose marriage to George C. Lewis will take place Wednesday, April 17, is coming in for her share of prenuptial compliments. Wednesday Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong entertained at bridge for Miss Howell and Miss Mary Otten, another bride-elect.
