

REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS PRESENTED PICTORIALLY AND IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

PHOTOS BY INT. NEWS SERVICE

1—Prosecuting Attorney Landreth and Judge Bolen, who will preside at the trial of the Allen gang of outlaws, posing for moving picture men before the courthouse at Hillsville, Va. These pictures were prevented from being shown anywhere in the United States by the action of the national board of censorship. 2, 4, 6—(Copyrighted 1912, by International News Service)—Quaint special train used by Secretary Knox and party in tour of Central America; Secretary and Mrs. Knox going ashore in "trolley chairs" at Acajutla, San Salvador. 3—Monument to Daughters of the Confederacy to be unveiled at Columbia, S. C., April 11. 5—Monument to John Paul Jones, in Washington, D. C., to be dedicated April 17. 7—Miss Esther Mercy, former University of Chicago co-ed, awarded a $2500 judgment against Dean Talbot whom she charged had attacked her character upon expelling her from the university.

All the Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for the Edification of Journal Readers—Foreign, Eastern, Political and Congressional News—Notes to Be Preserved for Reference.

Congressional

Twenty Republicans joined the Democrats in passing Underwood's wool bill, the measure going through the house by a vote of 189 to 82. While not cutting the government's revenue, it is said the bill will save more than $50,000,000 a year to consumers because of the readjustment of rebates.

The Florida Everglades investigation by congress has resulted in the indictment by the federal grand jury of C. G. Elliott, A. D. Morehouse, Gray P. Teels and Frank E. Singleton, of the agricultural department, who are charged with having approved or presented false vouchers against the government.

A bill to amend the law giving the Interstate Commerce commission authority over express companies has been reported favorably to the house. The bill would govern the transportation of packages not exceeding 11 pounds in weight, and fixes the rates at 2 to 12 cents per pound according to distance hauled.

Representative Taylor of Colorado has introduced in the house a bill providing for the recall of federal judges by popular vote.

The senate bill creating a children's bureau in the department of commerce and labor has passed the house 173 to 17. The measure now goes to the president for his action.

The four new senators from Arizona and New Mexico were sworn into office last Tuesday. Catron and Ahearn drew the long terms and Smith and Fall the short terms.

Representative Humphrey of Washington has introduced a bill designed to break up foreign shipping pools and combinations and to give the government greater control over such alleged restraints of trade which originate outside the United States.

Executive

President Taft on Tuesday sent a special message to congress urging an appropriation of $500,000 to fight the floods raging along the Mississippi river, that amount being needed to prevent the loss not only of millions of dollars' worth of property, but lives as well. The sum of $500,000 was appropriated.

Political

The Socialist administration of Milwaukee, Wis., met its Waterloo at the election Tuesday. Dr. G. A. Bading, the non-partisan candidate, was elected over Emil Seidel, the present socialist mayor, by a majority of over 12,000. Only 11 of the 33 aldermen elected were Socialists.

In Wisconsin Tuesday, Senator La Follette defeated President Taft on the Republican ticket, and Woodrow Wilson over Speaker Champ Clark.

United States Senator Gardner (Democrat) has been elected by the Maine legislature to serve for the rest of the term ending March 4, 1912. He had previously been appointed by Governor Frye to succeed the late Senator Frye.

The entire Democratic ticket outside of a few aldermen was elected in Kansas City Tuesday. Henry L. Joet defeated the present Republican mayor by a majority of 8500. The council will stand 18 Democrats and six Republicans.

Richmond P. Hobson and his colleague William Richardson have been renominated for congressmen from Alabama.

were passed calling upon Rev. Harry Ferguson, the commission mayor, to resign. The trouble grew out of the I. W. W. strike, Mayor Ferguson making an impassioned speech condemning the police and citizens' committee and upholding the strikers.

Dr. John Wesley Hill, president of the International Peace Forum, will arrive in Oregon April 10 to stump the state for President Taft.

Progressive Democracy, led by Carter Harrison, scored a great triumph in the Chicago aldermanic elections. Out of 26 candidates pledged to support Mayor Harrison's policies, 18 were elected. The new city council will stand 46 Democrats to 28 Republicans, the Democratic majority being the largest ever known.

Commercial and Industrial
E. CHILBERG, of Seattle, banker and former president of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, has initiated a movement to induce the next session of the Washington legislature to submit a bond issue of $15,000,000 for a highway fund to build five trunk lines through the state.

The Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper company at Oregon City has ordered machinery for the largest paper mill of its kind in the world. When newly equipped the mill will manufacture paper 156 inches wide, nearly 20 inches wider than can now be produced.

Workers thrown out of employment by strikes of silk weavers at Paterson, N. J., have organized a cooperative company, purchased the Magnus & Faber plant and will begin operations within a few days under the name of the Royal Silk company.

Millmen declare that 1912 will be the biggest year in the lumber industry the northwest has ever known. Railroads are at present the best buyers, different lines having orders on file amounting to over $60,000,000 feet.

aided to issue $5,000,000 bonds for municipal improvement. An air line that will shorten the coast run 75 miles is being surveyed on the Great Northern from New Richmond, N. D., to the Montana state line.

The Alaska-Ebnor Gold Mines company, a New York corporation, has been placed in the hands of a receiver. The liabilities are listed at $3,577,000 and the assets at $121,000.

Orders for two palatial twin-screw steamers, to be placed in coastwise passenger and freight service between San Diego and Seattle, have been placed by the Pacific Coast Steamship company. It is estimated that each will cost $1,000,000, will have accommodations for 600 passengers and be ready for service in about 14 months.

Sociological
To put her system of diet, which she believes is a solution of the cost of living problem, to the hardest possible test, Mrs. David Beach of New York will walk from New York to Chicago, starting on April 10. During this 1000-mile tramp she will eat only raw foods, such as wheat, raisins and nuts. She wishes to prove that her theories are practical for the workman under hard labor conditions.

Ministers of Salem, Oregon, have passed resolutions declaring their opposition to the marriage of any divorced person within the lifetime of the other party. In addition, the resolutions call upon the next legislature to pass a law requiring physical examination of candidates for matrimony and denying a license to all who are found unfit.

Mrs. Louise De Keeken Bowen, president of the Juvenile Protective association, in an address at Chicago, advocated the appointment of policemen as a means of lessening crime in large cities. She expressed the opinion that with women members of the police department, the number of wayward girls would be lessened and the attitude of incorrigible boys toward municipal authority would be changed.

Legal and Criminal
A Los Angeles Monday night, William H. Jamison, ex-superior court judge, was shot and fatally wounded by burglars whom he surprised in the act of robbing his home. Judge Jamison was shot three times, once in the head and twice in the abdomen. The burglars escaped.

wards, the remaining fugitives of the Allen clan, and the authorities are confident of soon effecting their capture. Clementine Barnabet, a negress of La Fayette, La., is responsible for the mysterious death of 25 negro members of the "Church of Sacrifice," of which she is the head. The main creed of the cult is that by life sacrifice alone may a person gain immortality. She confesses to killing 17 of the victims with her own hands.

J. T. Harcourt, sentenced to the penitentiary from Portland for forgery a few years ago under the name of O. R. Blystone, has been sentenced to 15 to 25 years in state prison, after being convicted of passing forged checks on Seattle merchants.

Frezzed because the woman had married his rival, Clarence Carr of Chicago, a man 55 years old, went to the bedroom of Mrs. Emily Shaw, where he cut her throat, and then cut his own throat. Both are dead.

J. A. Long, a wealthy cattleman of Tehama county, Cal., has under fence 2880 acres of government land. He is ordered to remove it by the United States Master in Chancery at San Francisco district court.

Bud Smith, a discharged negro employe, engaged in a revolver battle with other employes of the Missouri Pacific railway shops at Holston, Kansas, and when the fusillade was over two men were found dead, Smith mortally wounded and three others badly injured.

Foreign
PROSPECTS are favorable for an early termination of the coal strike in Great Britain, in spite of a majority vote by the strikers against resuming work. Large numbers of miners have returned to work in Staffordshire and work in the coal fields is rapidly extending. Federation officials are agreed that the majority against resuming work is too small to justify a prolongation of the conflict.

One of the auto handits who killed a chauffeur at Villeneuve St. Georges, France, held up a bank at Chantilly, killing two employes and robbing the institution of $8000, has been arrested and taken to Paris, where he confessed. He refused to betray his accomplices.

of the City of Mexico, has been found guilty of misappropriating funds of the institution and sentenced to 12 years imprisonment. The Standard Oil company's main storage plant at Manila has been destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $1,000,000.

General Leonidas Plaza has been elected president of Ecuador. He was president from 1900 to 1904, minister to the United States in 1905, and served also as minister to other countries.

Chinese have established a representative council at L'hasa, the capital of Tibet, and proclaimed a republic. The officials have cut off their queues and are wearing silk hats and frock coats. Tibetans oppose the change and threaten to massacre the Chinese. Some fighting has occurred.

The treaty establishing a French protectorate over Morocco, which was signed by the sultan recently, provides that France may occupy any part of Morocco when necessary for the preservation of order.

The American legation at Peking has asked Yuan Shi Kai, president of the Chinese republic, to prevent the soldiers from fulfilling their threat to attack the missions and hospitals at Pao Ting. Looting continues at Pao Ting and in other cities of the new republic.

be adjusted. Approximately 400,000 men are out of work, but it is believed an agreement will be reached by April 20. One thousand shipwrights and caulkers of San Francisco who struck several weeks ago, demanding a closed shop, eight-hour work day and a minimum wage of $9, have returned to work, their demands having been accepted to a large extent.

A strike of freight handlers on the Canadian Pacific railway threatens to tie up all freight to and from the United States. Eight thousand men employed in construction work on the Canadian Northern railway in British Columbia are idle on account of a strike. The Industrial Workers declare the fight is not between the laborers and the Canadian Northern, but of labor in general, in all parts of the universe, against capital. Idle men are congregating in the cities, but no disorder is reported.

An increase of 10 per cent in wages has restored industrial peace in the cotton mills of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Striking employes to the number of nearly 10,000 have returned to work. More than 18,000 carpenters struck at Chicago on April 1, affecting $35,000,000 worth of building operations. Officials declare that unless the men get 5 cents an hour increase, making their wages 65 cents an hour, the entire building trades of the country will be paralyzed.

Rioting is expected when 8000 men, sent out from Winnipeg, reach the construction camps on the Canadian Northern railroad to break the strike. Ten thousand strikers are pouring into Calgary as a result of the agitation of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Miscellaneous
CAPTAIN ROBERT SCOTT, the British explorer, is pushing on toward the South Pole. He is still 120 miles from his destination and sends back reports of harrowing experiences in the frigid Antarctic. He says no further news will probably be received from the expedition this year.

Labor Notes

PAINTERS, decorators, carpenters, granite workers and stove clerks in various parts of New England have joined the ranks of the thousands of striking textile operatives. Like the mill workers, they are seeking an advance in wages.

The strike situation on Grays Harbor reached an acute stage during the week. The authorities of Hoquiam, Aberdeen and Raymond, reinforced by hundreds of citizens, put an end to the strike by jailing the leaders, loading offensive striking foreigners on box cars and shipping them out of town. The mills are resuming work at increased wages, but no foreigners or members of the I. W. W. are employed.