THE OREGON SUNDAY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1912.

1E AMERICAN

PRIGINAL

GRANGE APPEALS CONFERENCE WILL TEACH VALUE OF ORGANIZED EFFORT Issues Call to Farmers to Vote

8 80

All Movements of Interest to the South Will Be Discussed at Nashville Meeting; Notable Speakers Listed.

(Sr the International News Service.) Manbyllin, Tuton, April 6 --- The suthern Commercial picegross, in milwith the Waterways conferialiss. range, will present to the world a bullyde where it meets in this city for its fourth dings, it will listly influence the adop-seminal three day conference, April 5 to then of a parcels post law at the pre-18. For four years the heads of south and seadon of congress. The appeal is arm politics, moreous and sommerce have signed by C R opence of Oregon City. Ress handed together in an organization the state master, A. I. Mason of Hoad then behing toward the advancement of Hiver. C. L. Shaw of Albany and P. M. south and with each succeeding con-Gill of Retards. It mays. vention their scope has sniarged and itrear the organization meets with a list pantee and merchants' associations to defeat any candidate for the sifice of ary southern movement of importance. "I the thousands and a program of sub- All who have been aggressive in supits every man, woman and child be-

The men who will lead the debates on the different questions that face the harm farmer, merchant and aducaionalist will include Senator Joseph W. ay of Taxas, Governor B. W. Cooper Laphies the International Institute of Agricult-wrs. Home, Italy, Representative John EL Small, of North Carolina, and Sec-will be held April 18. II. Brnall, of North Carolina, and Sen-ator Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada, many heads of southern educasmal projects and a large number of merchants.

In addition to the Waterways conferwhich will held sessions on April anos, which will held sessions on April sent you in this matter. We have no a finitative and referendum as yet in Increase and render more, efficient The wast waterway mileage of the south, the Southern Commercial congress will educational bill, good roads, small grains, real estate, forestry, fruit growng, poultry raising, cooperative marketing, horse and mule breeding, cotion, soils, the extension of teaching, drainage, hog raising, fruit raising and the proxy at the November election and he care and culture of cattle.

Each of these subjects, which will be treated by experts, has an interested optaris of southern, delegates, who started today to drop off the incoming trains and throng the streets of Nashwork already done for this cause, it will wills. Already their numbers run well likely infuence the enactment of a likely infuence the enactment of a ville. parcels post law at the present session hotel lobbles today it is estimated that of congress, but if we neglect this opthe present meeting will draw the larg- portunity and the interests succeed in est attendance of any convention of renominating their candidate, it will be cent years in the south. Governor B. W. Hooper, of Tennesses, some time before another senator or representative will dare to take a prowill welcome the delegates on Monday, nounced stand for parcels post. Incorporating in his address an sulogy "Six years is a long time to walt. will weldome the delegates on actions "Six years is a long time to incorporating in his address an sulogy "Six years is a long time to of President Jackson, "Old Hickory," Many of us will be dead before that time. Every civilized country on the time. Every civilized country on the place, was selected as the convention globe, save the U. S. A., has a general city. parcels post. Farmers, do your duty, Closely following Governor Hoapar in your votes are your own, and remem-the list of speakers, is Senator Joseph ber that the great issue is a general W. Balley, of Texas, who will address parcels post." the meeting on "The Mississippi Valley."

After these two opening addresses, Maurice F. Egan, United States minisnoon of April 9, the parading farmers ter to Denmark, will explain the cooperending their journey at the auditorium, where presiding Officer Walter H. Page ative dairying systems of Denmark, and other prominent men will address The new season's interpretation of a the life and teachings

FOR PARCELS POST Only for Candidates Favoring Their Plan.

Desgun City, Or. April 6 .-- A sail in the farm-are to work only for candifiates for United States senstory and congressment who favor the paronia post is being sent out by the eascutive and legislative committees of the Oregon state syange.

The appeal desiares that if the farm ers take advantage of this opportunity to do something for parcels post and non in the value of combined effort show appreciation of the work already in their project increased till this effort being made by the express com-"nited States senator or pepresentative songress who favors parosls post. incurred the entsity of the above interterest not a few of these above. defeat them at the primary election and secure the numination of men who are in symphility with the interests and are ppeaced to parcels post. The usual tactics are resorted to, such as personal abuse, in order to throw dust in the d Tennames, Maurice F. Egan, United abuse, in order to throw dust in the states Minister to Denmark. David errs of the voters and cover up the real insue, but their main hops is that a great many will particul to will be held April 18. "We appeal to the farmers of Oregon, and all others who favor parcels post, to register before the books are closed on April 5, at 5 p. m., then go to the polls on April 19 and vote for parcels post by voting for men who will reprenational affairs and must be represented by proxies in these important issues. He sure you vots for men who repreaider cooperative dairying, the Page sent you and not the merchants' assoclations and express companies.

other fellow to make the selection you will have no choice but to vote for his

"The candidates are selected at the primary election, and if you allow the will have a representative in congress ۵ 0 nificant prominence to the hips. lingerie dress style and shows how misthe all-over embroidery-all of it-in so pronounced a pattern, has the appearplicity is taken to mean plainness. This embroidery is a combination of Eng-lish eyelst, French stitches and "Burlingame." which is the latest fashionable The sleeves being out in one Crase. with the blouse, the pattern is not interrupted at the shoulders, and there are two or three tucks that add to the effectiveness. The narrow stock is of

OF FIFTH AVE, NEW YORK. CREATOR OF AMERICAN FASHIONS

The summer's lingerie hat and sunshade.

ous embroideries capable of producing the new lingerie hats and the sunbouffast effects. shades that I am advising as an accom-

Well then, with your promise to use paniment to airy looking frocks. How cars. The locomotive, tender and first discretion in adopting this model I do the ones in the filustration appeal car got across all right, but two oil will explain it. There is, first, a tatfets skirt, scalloped about the foot. The hat is a monstrous affair with the scallope bound with the same. a mound-shaped crown and a brim very The hat is a monstrous affair with Above this is a fitted flounce, nine slightly concave and comparatively inches deep, its edges likewise scal-hoped and bound and applied perfectly broadly everywhere else. The crown ion of plain margutaette let in. It is flat to the foundation. is of black velvet and the brim inside Then from the belt is hung a batiste and out a fine figured net. full yard in width, but gathered at half skirt. It misses reaching the top Decorating the top of the grown at ne top till it takes up not more than of the taffets flounce by five inches the side front is a long, straight bow wo inches of space. Half way down t is gathered sgain into a four-inch space, and from there the fuliness is allowed to fall freely, increasing the volume at the back, but not perceptibly tinue to within four inches of the belt, inches till it is caught and held by a where all the little folds and creases fixed looking ornament composed of a in front. This feature is entirely originsi. It will be noticed, also, that the have been pricked into definite straight rose surrounded by its leaves. After lines. Then each of these shirr lines that it is drawn along under the chin gathers around the top are grouped at the sides, giving a trifting but sig- is held down by a narrow Cluny inser- to fall over the shoulder, estensibly tion 17

In the most targetone further, set in reality to book targetone further, set the contains the first at the expected set. Outside the first set the expected set another rose ornament, holds swar. While the lingerie had will frequery. While the interior at the freek magaria. I then the structured a solid of contrast if there he intriduced a solid of contrast in the way of a first of plain ballars, as suggested in the first studied bet this as I say, to a matter of individual preference.

The sumshade pictured is another matad-shaped affair of ballets lined with the burns. The upper past is pials, but like increase is sizesty shirred. To match the gat, if it is of the figured ust, the sumshade might he alther of the deat or of the bat lined and bordered with the building

FATHER IS SHOCKED BY SHAKESPEARE'S WORDS

New York April 8. - A sensitive "father" writes to a local newspaper of Flushing, L. I., asking if the Flushing board of aducation samnel "provide some harmiess explatives to be used in case of amarganey."

It seams that this father's daughter is in the eighth, grade of public school No. 10 in Flushing. The girls of the school are reading the "Merchast of Vanice," and the father objects to some of the bad Mnguagu that Shakaspeers

For example, in the scene in a room in Portia's house where her suitors are choosing the cashets the Prince of Moronce unlooks the guidan masket and anstatus:

"Oh, hell, what have we here?" The Fluching father objects to the word "hell," and seems to think that the twice below, suggesting a poke, the shires stallarly being fixed by the lace insertion and frilling. This gives a bretaile effect, ancioning a tunker and vest of embruidery. If it essue from the wrecking train clearing away a rreak in the heart of Portland was the unusual spectacle that attracted a big crowd to the Southern Pacific track in East First street, between East Salmon bandings, rufflers, and gathering and East Taylor, early this afternoon A freight train, northbound and proceeding slowly, struck a piece of soft track and the ralls spread, deralling six > flat loaded with pilling went off the ralls, but did not apset. No one was injured.

The wrecking train will have the track cleared before # o'clock tonight.

Cafe Planned for Portland.

(Special to The Joarnal.) San Prancisco, April 6. - Surgent Brothers, who are planning a magnificent cafe on the old site of the Alcant theatre, announce that they will soo establish an eating palace in Purtland Both James and Nicholas Bargent are well known in the Oregon metropolic

Have you read the great plane pur chasing opportunity on page 5, see

The gown itself represents the new leading is the affected simplicity, for Now Is the Time! This Is the Place! ance of anything but simplicity if sim-

If it estims from this description to be a fussy idoking creation descriptions are deceiving. for to the casual ob-simplicity because lines are so carefully maintained despits the interruptions of strings

heading the regular programme. the audience on the lif An interesting feature of the con- of the great southerner. vention will be the memorial services In honor of the late Dr. Seaman A. Enapp, whose educational efforts among the farmers did much to bring the south out of the financial and industrial stress of ante-bellum days. The first feature of the Knapp memorial exercises be a parade of farm boys on the after-

Get This Free Book-Commence to Remove Your Wrinkles at Once.

y Dectors and the Medical Profession of Aghest in Amazement, Marveling at is Wondrous New Method of Remov-ing Wrinkles, Which Has for Ages Baffled the Leading Experts of the Earth.

No Greams, No Plasters, No Massage, No Hollers, No Medicine, Nothing to Inject Under Skin-Absolutely New Treatment Never Before Offered by thers in America.

PRINCESS TORIO Wrinkle Treatment Makes Old Faces Young.

simple lingerie frock

Waterways to Be Discussed. The deliberations of the waterways

EXPECT you are all a little disappointed that nothing alarmingly new has transpired to justify all the seconference will be largely supplementary to the national rivers and harbors you on the gui vive before the seacongress, which has lifted the subject of son opened. waterways into a compelling demand for attention through its yearly convention the orators and delegates will take up springs a new slashed skirt or a promi-and discuss the policy of that body in nent society woman who likes to see on the nation's waterways for the next tion with a cluster of beets as a cor-10 years, or to so place a bond issue sage ornament, and the indiscreet that all worthy waterway projects may slashed skirt, suitable enough for the be purchased at one time thus placing stage, and the corsage bouquet of veg-the burden of the development on pos-etables are heralded as "the latest terity. A vote will be taken on these whim of La Mode." But these are not two contempiated methods of bettering the sort of things we call "modes," the nation's waterways and the recom- about which so much secrecy is premendations of the majority will be made served during the period that presages known to the officers of the national a new season. They are mere details down its length, there is a succession of tucks, bandings and ruffling, but all arranged so that a straight effect is quite outside the creator's province of turning the trend of skirts or sleeves

First come three rows of fine tucks, one touching the other, then a banding of English eyelet, done on linen, is added, the edges on both sides being scalloped and the lower one applied over a full ruffling of German Valenciennes three inches wide. This se-quence is repeated till, at the bottom, and about which they were so secret was that of crinolines. I am sure you the lace ruffling forms the foot trim-into slavery to the Chinese and were ing tiny, warped waists, and everyforced to receive the attentions of the thing flounced and puffed and befrilled celestials, were this morning rescued to the limit of its possibilities. Hence, Celestials, were this morning reacued when Sergeant Klenlen, and Patrolmen Niles and Hutchings raided a rooming house at 1471/2 Second street. They ar-rested the two girls, Ruby Booth and Etta Shields, and Jack Doyle and Harry Kelley, the two men who have held them in captivity.

of police at Seattle to determine whether or not the girl's statement is two girls, sold into plain net and the belt of plain mar quisette.

I find marguisette and the various similar weaves not undesirable substitutes for the finer materials if only it crecy and valled prophecies that kept is for the sake of novelty, but quite as well as these all-over effects, I like the plain and small figured weaves

But wait! Some few fashion features made up with bandings of lace and em. at Washington. At the present meeting are made in a day-a favorite actress broldery, and fon all models in which the orators and delegates will take up springs a new slashed skirt or a promi- colored silk is to play a part I prefer to use the finest of the weaves, though calling for an expenditure of $53,000,000 herself in print appears at some func- for no explainable reason beyond a personal idea of the fitness of things. A feature that we are trying out here now has to do with plain marguisette, or, in this instance, it is a very fine voile. The skirt is mounted at the top with the gathers spread out rather more across the side and back than in the model of the sketch, but still leav ing the front plain. Then, half way or bodices in a different direction. preserved.

Any one can introduce a feature and start it as well on its way to popularity in a single day or night-but the vital points-that is altogether different. SLAVERY, ARE RESCUED In the winter the question upon which the great designers are working all expected to find all the new models Two young girls who had been sold built over hoop skirts, the bodices havming.

The Blouse Is Original.

The blouse of it is most original. Its uniform width sleeves are exshort, tended at the top clear to the neck, covwhen the new models turned out to be ering the shoulders, back and front, not so extremely exaggerated you were disappointed, although, of course, you all declared with every hint of such a and are of the volte, closely tucked, while drawn up to this is the blouse fashion coming in that you, at least, proper of linen all-over, embodying the would never, never, no, never in the wide world, wear a hoop skirt or a all around with a narrow, closely gath-The arrest of Kelley was geneational. It followed a long chase by Patrolman Niles, who fired one shot after the man as he fied from Second and Alder to will find that changes in modes have belt is of soft, fine linen. In this case, the arrest of Kelley, it is believed that the by easy stages with particle of the belt is of soft, fine linen, embroidered arrest of Kelley, it is believed that the by easy stages with periods of tran-local police have arrested a man who sition between. So, now, fashions are shot and possibly fatally wounded a in a transitory state. But articular shot and possibly fatally wounded a in a transitory state. But cripolines the center-back, these, too, being decor-scattle patrolman some time ago. Etta are on the way.

Shields, when brought to police head-quarters declared that Kelley, who had her is bondage, had boasted of having shot "a cop in Seattle." Chief of Po-it not that, at the back, which does Then I must give you another sug-gestion, but bear in mind that the model ce Slover has communicated with the not show in the sketch, there is a sec- more than draperies are these conspicu-

