WEDDINGS and rehearsals for the "Campus Mouser" have claimed the major portion of society's time the past week, which was not unlike some of the Lenten season not yet far gone. Many of those who were not busy with rehearsals were devoting themselves to golf and riding, with the theatre and very informal affairs for indoor diversion. Centering interest for this week is the tea which Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis has planned on Thursday for her sister, Mrs. E. H. Brooke, and Miss Brooke, who are always welcome visitors in Portland. Looking still further ahead is the Apollo club concert a week from tomorrow night at the Heilig. Always popular with the hosts of society, this concert promises to be unusually brilliant, with the possibilities for box parties that the theatre affords. H. W. Newton, a tremendous favorite in Portland, will be the soloist.

Mrs. Cicero Hunt Lewis has asked guests for an at home Thursday afternoon from three until six at her Riverdale home, "Crossways," for her sister, Mrs. E. H. Brooke, and Miss Brooke, of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Brooke and her daughter arrived last evening for a visit of indefinite length with Mrs. Lewis. Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman will give a theatre party and supper for them the opening performance of the "Campus Mouser," and Wednesday of this week Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke will compliment Miss Brooke at luncheon.

Miss Elisabeth Bryan, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols, received a pretty social compliment when Mrs. Holt C. Wilson invited guests for luncheon in her honor yesterday. Attractive with its decorations of pink and yellow, the table was circled by Miss Bryan, Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, Mrs. Elliot R. Corbett, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. William S. Biddle, Mrs. Sherman Hall, Mrs. Charles Scadding, Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Florence G. Minott and the hostess.

* *

A small but very attractive tea was given Friday by Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols for Miss Martha Shaw, who is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Clarence L. Nichols. Mrs. Stanley Jewett (Miss Leslie Weidler) and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe (Miss Caroline Wilson) were at the table.

* *

Mrs. J. N. Teal and her daughter, Miss Ruth Teal, will sail from New York May 29 on the Lusitania to spend four months abroad. They will first enjoy a short motor trip through Wales. The remainder of the time will be passed in France, with a motor trip in the north of France and Switzerland.

The "Campus Mouser" has passed beyond the visionary state and is fast becoming a splendid reality. Rehearsals are coming thick and fast with the choosing and making of costumes of keen moment at present. Miss Grace Gerrish, the author, and Miss Edith Varney, conducting the dances, are rapidly swinging the cast and specialties into a professional state of excellence and as the time of production draws nearer the interest grows proportionally greater. Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett will act as patroness for a new musical specialty, one of the big hits of the piece, "A Parisian Novelty," to be given by Miss Margery Haussman and James Alexander. A splendid attraction to be introduced at the Wednesday matinee is the maypole drill, to be given by 35 or more city school children under the direction of Professor Robert Krohn.

That the "Campus Mouser" will add materially to a building fund for the new Day Nursery, which the Fruit and Flower Mission plans to build is evidenced by the advance sale of seats. When the boxes were auctioned they fell to Miss Failing, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, B. S. Josselyn, William D. Wheelwright, Henry Ladd Corbett, J. W. Cook and W. B. Ayer. Tickets are on sale every day at the Multnomah hotel from 11 until 2 and 4 until 5. A week from tomorrow, April 29, the Heilig box office will be open from 10 until 1, for the exchange of ticket holders only, before the regular box office sale opens.

Orders for flowers to go over the footlights will be received by the flower committee from now on. The members are Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Miss Mabel Beck, Miss Harriet Jellison, Miss Louise Williams, and Miss Marjorie Portia.

Three tables of bridge with a few guests for tea was the informal diversion planned on Wednesday by Mrs. Alma D. Katz. Mrs. Louis H. Tarnley presided at the table.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Owen opened their home Tuesday evening for the rehearsal of the "Campus Mouser" Parasol specialty followed by an informal dance and supper. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Angus McDonell, Mrs. Harry Litt, Miss Cully Cook, Miss Malda Hart, Miss Margery Hoffman, Miss Anita Burns, Miss Marion Jackson, Miss Angela Kinney, Carl Wernicke, John C. Banks, Philip Fry, Jordan Zan, Chester Murphy, Lester Hudson and Howard Schroyer.

* *

Miss Ethelwynne Glass entertained with a box party at the Heilig Wednesday for Elsie Janis, in "The Slim Princess." In the party were Mrs. Alexander Angus McDonell, Mrs. Harry Litt, Miss Cornelia Cook, Miss Angela Kinney, Miss Malda Hart and Miss Cully Cook. Later the guests enjoyed tea at the Glass home to meet Miss Janis.

* *

Mrs. John Claire Monteith asked a few friends to enjoy an informal cup of tea yesterday with Miss Delta M. Watson, popular bride-elect.

* *

Mrs. Adolf Knoblz Jr. (Miss Gladys Feis) was the honor guest at a large reception given for her Monday in Los Angeles by Mrs. Koebig Sr.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. La Follette were the dinner guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Thomas.

* *

The Portland members of the Oregon Gamma Phi Beta alumnae were hostesses at a delightful dancing party given at the Portland Heights clubhouse Friday evening. About 50 couples were present.

* *

"An Old Fashioned Rehearsal," given by members of the council of Jewish Women, was the magnet which drew 500 or more guests to the Concordia club Thursday evening. Mrs. Simon Harris was the author and the clever little play was reminiscent of the old days of Portland. Mrs. Ben Selling was the "leading lady" and "Aunt" H. Bertha Myers, almost 70, was the soubrette. Old time costumes were worn, old pictures shown on slides and old songs revived under the direction of Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed. Mrs. Henry W. Metzger was a charming soloist of the evening.

* *

An attractive affair of Thursday afternoon which assembled 300 or more guests in Linnea hall, was the final exhibition given by the dancing class of Miss Edith Varney. The participants were showered with many lovely flowers as was Miss Varney. The dances were beautifully conceived and carried out with remarkable skill and grace. The soloists were Miss Cornelia Ripley of Tacoma, and little Misses Jane Talbot and Owena Wolcott. Additional members of the class were Lucretia Pendleton, Helen Ransom, Margaret Biddle, Margaret Pendleton, Gladys Harrison, Ethel Malpas, Ruth Hubbell, Evelina Magruder, Marian Howe, Mary Bacon, Aurita Payson, Miss Isabella Gauld and Miss Barbara Crocker.

Mrs. Thomas Harland, mother of the late Henry Harland, the novelist, was a luncheon hostess last Friday at the Waldorf-Astoria in honor of her cousin, [illegible], Portland belle, is visiting in New York city. Louis R. Dressler, the well known organist and composer, gave a large reception last Sunday afternoon in honor of his sister, Mrs. Geisler. A number of prominent musicians called during the afternoon.

* *

The Portland Women's Willamette club has sent out invitations for a reception to be given at the home of Mrs. P. J. Mann, 441 Third street, Monday from 2 to 5. Rehearsals and plans are working out splendidly for the reproduction of "Queen Esther," which the club will give Friday, April 26, at Taylor Street Methodist church for the benefit of the endowment fund of Willamette university.

Quite the smartest prenuptial compliment yet paid Miss Delta M. Watson was the musical luncheon which Mrs. Warren E. Thomas gave for her Friday. The entire center of the table was a beautiful bank of fragrant apple blossoms with tiny sprays of the flowers strewn over the cloth. A striking bit of the decoration was the heavy black paper musical notes and rests of different values which were used about the board. Tiny white silk bags of rice with a bit of verse were at the places and among the appleblossoms were numbers of tiny cupids. Larger cupids swung from the chandelier in a cloud of white tulle and a fluffy bow of the same dainty material with white satin ribbons adorned the chair of the guest of honor. Many of the courses were served in heart shapes and the clever menu cards bore a bit of the staff with the names artistically written with the musical notes. Covers were laid for Miss Watson, Mrs. Elbert C. Peets, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, Mrs. W. A. Knight, Mrs. Beatrice Dierke, Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, Mrs. M. L. Bowman, Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw, Mrs. William House, Mrs. John Claire Monteith, Miss Lulu Paul, of Walla Walla, and Mrs. Thomas. Following is Mrs. Thomas' menu:

"If music be the food of love—feed on."

An event in which many are interested from the person as well as artistic standpoint is the concert to be given Tuesday evening in White temple by Mrs. Kathleen Lawler Belcher, who is just home from a season of most successful study abroad. Mrs. Belcher will return in the near future and her many Portland friends are regretting that this will be their only opportunity of hearing her. She will be assisted by the Treble Clef club, Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed, director. Edgar E. Coursen will accompany Mrs. Belcher. Those who will act as patronesses are Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. E. A. J. Mackenzie, Mrs Marcus Fleischner, Mrs. Charles E. Henry, Mrs. J. Andre Fouilhoux, Mrs. Donald Mackay, Mrs. Paul Wessinger, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. John F. Logan, Miss Failing, Miss Sallie Lewis and Miss Eleanor Ellis.

* *

Major and Mrs. James McI. Wood entertained at supper Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. William Faversham (Miss Julie Opp). Major and Mrs. Wood gave a dinner last evening, also for the Fayershams, who are spending Sunday here before continuing their tour in "The Faun."

* *

Mrs. Robert M. La Follette was the inspiration for much of the important entertaining last week. On Monday a luncheon of 225 covers was given for her at the Portland by the Woman's club campaign committee and the Portland Equal Suffrage league. After the luncheon Dr. Marie Equi took Mrs. La Follette and a party of friends for a motor trip over the city and up the Germantown road, at the special request of the honor guest. After the ride tea was served at the home of Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe. Tuesday Mrs. La Follette was the honor guest at a luncheon of sixteen covers given at the Portland by the executive board of the College Equal Suffrage league. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. La Follette spoke at the W. O. W. hall. In the evening, when Senator La Follette spoke at the Gipsy Smith auditorium, she was the recipient of a beautiful cluster of red roses. Mrs. La Follette made many personal friends and many friends for suffrage during her brief stay.

* *

Mrs. W. C. Fox asked friends to make up six tables of bridge on Friday with a few additional guests for tea. Mrs. W. H. Raymond captured first card honors. The rooms were prettily decorated with dogwood.

* *

Miss Katherine Taylor gave the closing party of her dancing school season Wednesday at Murlark hall. About thirty-five children, representing different characters danced the cotillion with favors. A large number of guests were present.

* *

Invitations are out for the annual ball to be given by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in Christensen's, Thursday, May 2. The patronesses for the ball are the officers, Mrs. Nannie Duff Silva, president; Mrs. Emma Rountree Moses, vice president; Mrs. Grace Carr Stone, recording secretary; Mrs. Jennie Keene Thomas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Annie Joplin, treasurer; Mrs. Emma Jones Stovall, historian. It is expected that the grand march will begin promptly at half past eight.

GARRISON NEWS

Mrs. Reasoner will be hostess at a bridge on Tuesday and a tea on Wednesday of the same week.

* *

Many post people were shocked by the news of the death of Major-General Frederick D. Grant, son of Ulysses S. Grant, on [illegible] last June. A number of officers at Vancouver barracks knew him personally. Gen. U. S. Grant, before the Civil war, was on duty in this post and was then a lieutenant. The officers' club is said to be located where General Grant made his headquarters.

* *

Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer has as her guest Miss Eleanor Roob, of New York. Miss Roob was Mrs. Spencer's maid of honor at her marriage. After a few weeks spent in the garrison Miss Roob will visit friends in Portland.

* *

Lieutenant Arthur D. Budd was a welcome guest in the post for a few days last week. Lieutenant Frank Langly Whitley entertained in honor of Mr. Budd on Wednesday night with a stag party. The guests were Lieutenant Leth W. Schofield, Walter E. Pridgen, J. A. Hattie and James A. Ulio.

* *

Major and Mrs. Charles F. Layman have as their guest Miss Combs, from the east. Miss Combs will go to Honolulu with Major and Mrs. Layman in May.

* *

Mrs. Clarke, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Clarke, was hostess at a bridge tea on Tuesday to which most of the garrison women were invited. The house was decorated in dogwood, Oregon grape, wild currant and lilacs. The

Alveolar Dentistry

Does Away Entirely With Partial Plates and Ordinary Bridge Work

TEETH TO EAT WITH

One of the greatest features of the Alveolar Dental Co.'s Alveolar Method of supplying teeth without plates or bridgework is that they are instantly available to eat with.

A prominent physician came to us one day not over a year ago, and we supplied him with a new set of Alveolar teeth.

"Now for a sirloin," he said, as he left. He came back next day all smiles—"I have not enjoyed a meal so much in twenty years as the one I sat down to an hour after leaving your offices," he said. "These are the real thing; they are teeth to eat with, sure enough."

This is a common occurrence in these offices, but not every patient is able to voice his satisfaction in such an expressive and original fashion. We would like to show you samples of our work in the office and refer you to some of our patients. Some of the best known people of this city and state.

We are furnishing toothless people with teeth to eat with, so the human machine will run smoothly. False teeth on "partial" plates or a piece of ordinary "bridge" work that is a torture—something to bite on—are simply "teeth for looks." They fill up gaps in the line, but won't do for hard work.

All we ask is that you have two or more teeth left in the jaws, around which we build our structure.

We make the new teeth firm and solid, so you can bite and chew your food in a natural manner.

It is a practical plan of teeth restoration, and not painful at any stage of the work, and is permanent and beautiful.

You have no doubt been reading our announcements from time to time. Won't you take the next step and come and let us look your mouth over free of charge?

Alveolar Teeth Where Bridgework Is Impossible.

If only your front teeth are left, say three or four, or more, we can replace all those that have been lost on both sides, clear back with perfect Alveolar teeth, whilst bridgework would be impossible, even if you had eight or ten front teeth to tie to. If you have only two back teeth on each side, say molars, we can supply all the front teeth that are missing with beautiful, serviceable, lifelong Alveolar teeth. This could not possibly be done by the bridge route. And where bridgework is possible there is no comparison between the two. A very large percentage of our work is taking out bridgework put in by supposedly high-class dentists and replacing it with the beautiful and artistic Alveolar teeth. And, unlike bridgework in another respect, it is practically painless. No boring or cutting into the gums, nothing to be dreaded. Now, then, prices being equal, which would you choose?

We have samples (counterparts of actual cases) in our office to show. Come and see the work.

Curing Pyorrhea (loose teeth), a disease given up by most dentists as incurable, is another of our specialties. We cure it absolutely. It is a boastful statement to make, but we can do anything that is possible in dentistry, and what we do is always of the very highest class. Our booklets, Alveolar Dentistry, are free. Write for one if you cannot call.
