

Tomorrow's Assemblage of Removal Priced Merchandise Excels Our Previous Efforts—Extraordinary Prices That Are Certain to Surprise You

Postscript
 —Not nearly enough people know the possibilities of this Great Removal Sale in placing reliable merchandise at removal prices, although thousands of shoppers already do. Here is news in this two-page announcement calculated to make a lot of new friends for this store, as well as strengthening old ones.
 —At the very height of the Spring season we are sacrificing merchandise reflecting the latest Spring fashions, together with staple merchandise in constant demand for personal adornment and beautifying the home. Our every effort this season is measured by the outlook for the future. The Removal Sale is but a stepping stone in preparation to presenting the public of Portland, Or., a new retail establishment, with everything new from basement to roof.
 —No economical shopper can afford to supply Spring and Summer needs excepting at this remarkable sale. There is a saving on everything you buy, for every article in the store is reduced.

Why Not Buy Dresses Now? With Time and Price Right One-Piece Dresses
 Removal $29.95, $31.95 and $33.90
 Selling Normally to $45.00

—The disposal of one-piece dresses for women and young women measures up to an ideal sale, for it is not a disposal of ordinary dresses just to make a sale, but Lipman, Wolfe & Company dresses, reproductions of French models. Savings are worth while, as is readily seen by the prices.
 —All the new models created by French designers are found in these dresses—the deep waist line—narrow clinging skirts—deep chignon collars—heavy embroideries and silk cord and braid trimmings. Made in serges and other popular weaves.

Pongee Sale at Removal Prices
 87c, $1.10, $1.29, $1.59, $2.18, $2.45, $2.95
 —These silks come to us from the new Chinese republic. They were purchased, however, before the revolution, when the Chinese looms were busy turning out their customary fabrics; before agitation, war and pillage interfered with their commerce. Shrewd merchants, at the first inkling of revolution, anticipated the rise in silks that was to follow, and secured what silks they could at former prices. The last shipment of pongee silks has just come to us.

Two of the Very Newest Models Selling at About Wholesale Cost

Removal $22.45
 A Norfolk and a Cutaway
 —An advertisement of merely tailored suits would probably not be of sufficient interest to all women to create a desire to examine them more closely with a possible intention of buying. These suits are SO OUT OF THE ORDINARY that a more detailed description will be welcome to women interested in new tailored garments.
 —These suits are made of imported serge, shrunken and sponged, of such dependable quality that we can guarantee them to withstand the severest tests.
 —Nor is the beauty of these suits only skin deep. They are good through and through. The tailoring, the lining, the superior workmanship are at once recognized.
 —The Norfolks are made with the regulation straps, pockets and belts, lined throughout with Peau de Cygne, high-waisted skirts, trimmed with buttons and button-holes.
 —The cutaway suits are made with plain tailored collars and wide revers fastened at the side with two large pearl buttons. The sleeves are plain tailored, the jackets are lined with colored and plain Peau de Cygne. The skirts have the popular high waist line, panels back and front.
