

PLEADS WITH U. S. TO SAVE YANKEES ON MEXICAN COAST

Consul Sends Last Entreaty to State Department for Protection—Refugees Arrive on German Steamer.

(By the International News Service.) Los Angeles, April 27.—Hearing dispatched to the state department from United States Consul William A. Alger at Mazatlan, containing a last entreaty to the government to save the thousands of Americans upon the west coast of Mexico, Major Carl F. Petersdorff of Los Angeles fled from the German steamer Abyssinia in Los Angeles harbor this afternoon to the nearest telegraph office.

DECK OF TITANIC, SHOWING SMALL SPACE OCCUPIED BY LIFEBOATS

This photograph was taken before the great vessel sailed from England on her journey of death.

FAT AND CHEERFUL, THAN MAKES NEW PLEA OF SANITY

Bright Eyed and Gay, Slayer of Architect Holds Levee in Court—Case is Set for May 6.

(By the International News Service.) New Rochelle, New York, April 27.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, appeared today before Justice Knagh in chambers in another effort to be freed from a Matteawan state hospital where he has been confined for more than four years. The appearance was on a writ of habeas corpus.

TAFT IN QUAKER CITY KEEPS AWAY FROM POLITICS

Responds to Toast at Banquet of Union League Club—His Hoarseness is Worrying His Advisers in Massachusetts.

(United Press Associated Wire.) Philadelphia, April 27.—President Taft was the guest of the Union League club at their Great Day banquet tonight. The president made an address that met with a reception in politics. The meeting fully opened the president to make some reference to Colonel Roosevelt's illness, but he had nothing to say. Pleading golf in the rain after a day of strenuous speechmaking affected President Taft's voice, for he was very hoarse when he spoke.

AGED HILLSBORO MAN IN TOILS OF BUNKO MEN

Invited into drawing $600, the savings of a lifetime, from the bank, to purchase the release from the insane asylum of his nephew, Joe Fryrier, by being told that a bloody towel displayed to him had covered his nephew's wounds, and then lured into a carriage and driven into the country, from which trip he has not returned, was the fate of J. B. Berry, aged 74, a pioneer Hillsboro rancher yesterday.

BOOSTER DAY DRAWS HOST TO OREGON CITY

(Special to The Journal.) Oregon City, Or., April 27.—Virtually the entire population of Clackamas county and hundreds of persons from other parts of the state were in Oregon City today attending the annual booster day celebration. The attendance was much larger than last year. Main street was lined with industrial exhibits and the country demonstration car of the Oregon Agricultural college was a center of attraction.

MOTORCYCLE RIDER IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

While riding up Ankeny street on his motorcycle at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Sam D. Van Ness, 25 years old, an employe of the Read-French Piano company, who resides at 125 Tenth street, collided with United States mail wagon No. 4, and sustained serious injuries. His arms and head were severely injured by the exploding of the gasoline tank of the machine. He was rushed to the St. Vincent's hospital, where he was attended by Dr. J. B. Fenton. Although his injuries may prove fatal, he was resting easily last night. The wagon was driven by Gus Nelson, of 327 Flanders street.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 27.—Sam Gleason, an employe in the office of the city engineer, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon when he ran into a street car on his motorcycle. He received a semi-circular scalp wound, which laid bare nearly six inches of bone. Dr. W. Carlton Smith, who attended him, says he does not think the injury will prove fatal as he has not discovered any fracture of the skull.

TORNOW'S CAMP FOUND; POSSE IS IN WAITING

(Special to The Journal.) Hoquiam, Wash., April 27.—In the foothills of the Olympic mountains, within four miles of where he murdered Sheriff Colin McKenzie and Al Elmer, a posse has found the camp of John Turnow, the alleged slayer of six men. The camping place was discovered several days ago when members of the posse saw a tiny curl of smoke arising through the trees. From now on a waiting game will be played. It may last for weeks and may end quickly, this being simply a matter of conjecture, but one thing is certain: the posse as well supplied with food, while the outlaw will have to depend on hunting for food.

WOMAN WITH INFANT WANDERS STREETS, LOST

Wandering the streets for half the night in the rain, wheeling a baby carriage containing a baby less than a year old, Mrs. E. Henderson, who says she resides at Lanthan, was found at the upper end of Washington street last night at midnight by Patrolman Welch. The woman stated that she didn't know where she was and that she wanted to get to the home of Mrs. Maybell White, at 262 1/2 Jefferson street. She was taken to the police station where the baby, cooling and growing, was warmed. Grieffully it played with the various patrolmen at the station, despite the fact that it was cold and had been exposed to the rain and weather for many hours. The woman and her babe were taken to the White home in the police patrol.

HOTEL MAN ARRESTED AFTER WORDY BATTLE

Repeating an insult that had been hurled at friend Charles E. Mitchell, a capitalist, 631 Marshall street, yesterday afternoon, took E. P. Morris, former manager of the Cornelius, to task, and as a result of the wordy battle, Morris attempted to assault Mitchell. It is alleged Mitchell, after parting from Morris at Sixth and Stark street where the argument took place, hastened to find Deputy District Attorney Hennessey and secured a warrant for his arrest. Later in the evening, Detectives Van Over and Latheland arrested Morris who was released on $500 bail.

O.-W. BEGINS SURVEY FOR MONTESANO BRANCH

(Special to The Journal.) Hoquiam, Wash., April 27.—Engineers for the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company today began making the preliminary survey of its extension from the south side of the Chehalis to Montesano. The improvement will cost $17,000 and will give Montesano two more transcontinental railroads to its mills.

ORGANIZER OF LODGE ONLY INVENTED "ORDER"

The ambitions of at least 12 physicians of Portland and many other prominent people of the city to be charter members of a brand new secret society that was to be nationwide in its scope were rudely shattered yesterday afternoon when Detectives Hellyer and Howell arrested George W. Wilson, alias George Walker, the organizer and self-styled supreme head of the Fraternal Order of Bison of North America, on a vagrancy charge, and secured from him a confession that his order was one of his own invention.

SMITH MOST CAREFUL CAPTAIN SAYS STEWARD

(By the International News Service.) New York, April 27.—An interview with Charles C. Binns, a former bedroom steward under Captain Smith on the Baltic, seems to bear out the general belief that orders were issued by Ismay or some member of the White Star company to Captain Smith to make all possible speed, despite the conditions. Binns said today that Smith was the most careful commander he had ever worked under, always looking out for the safety of his ship and passengers.

"Bogie Man Get Him."

Albany, Or., April 27.—While playing on the bank of the Willamette River yesterday afternoon, Gibson Graham, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Graham, fell off the bank and was drowned. The child was playing with a young girl about the same age and being missed by the mother she went to look for the baby and found the young girl looking down in the water. Upon asking where Gibson was, the baby said: "Bogie man get him."

One Drowns, One Falls Dead.

(Hoquiam, Wash., April 27.—Two casualties occurred here last night when Albert Chapman, age 27, lost his life in Elk River, and Frank Kline, an aged citizen, dropped dead from apoplexy. Chapman attempted to cross the river by walking on the logs and fell to his death. He was the nephew of C. C. Flowers, the well known Hoquiam

TOLEDO DEDICATES NEW I. O. O. F. HALL

(Special to The Journal.) Toledo, Or., April 27.—The large I. O. O. F. hall recently built in this city was formally dedicated this evening. Grand Manager A. B. Bowersox of Albany, doing the honors. After the dedication exercises a banquet was served, feeding about 300 or more Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. About 50 Odd Fellows were in attendance from Albany, Corvallis and Kings Valley. Newport sent up some 75 and Elk City its full quota.

OREGONIAN UNDAUNTED BY TITANIC DISASTER

A child's rocking horse moved by an electric motor has been patented by a New York man. The reports say that of the rescued women 37 were widowed by the accident and the lack of boats. Their husbands were quite as indispensable to them as Mr. Ismay to the company.

Arthur Woolcott of Cottage Grove, Or., and Marion Wright, who have just been wedded in New York, according to schedule, in spite of the fact that the bride was a passenger on the sunken Titanic. Luckily she was placed in a lifeboat by one of the heroic officers who went down with his ship and arrived in New York on the Carpathia. Woolcott, who is the owner of an apple orchard in Oregon, traveled from his western home to New York to meet his bride-to-be, and for several days after the arrival of the Carpathia he searched the hospitals and hotels for his sweetheart and finally located her at the home of friends.

REAR ADMIRAL MAHAN DENOUNCES J. B. ISMAY

New York, April 27.—In a letter declaring that J. Bruce Ismay, as responsible official for the Titanic's lack of lifeboats, should have been the last man to have left the vessel, Rear Admiral A. T. Mahan today assailed the claims of Ismay's friends that he was a "mere passenger."

Postmaster at Timber.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, D. C., April 27.—Nicholas Bangs has been appointed postmaster at Timber, Washington county, vice C. L. Brand.

This is your last chance to secure the— Photographic History Of The Civil War At the present LOW PRICE! Call as early as possible this week and make your reservation. Clip this ad. NOW, so you won't forget. $1.00 down. Gill's The J. K. Gill Co. Third and Alder. Books and Stationery.

On a Windy, Rainy Day —the time comes when you must sacrifice your glasses or your umbrella unless you wear Shur-On Eyeglass or Spectacle mountings. When adjusted by us Shur-Ons hold on in all kinds of weather. —If you have never worn glasses, see us. If you have suffered the disadvantages of ordinary glasses, see us. If you would see better, see us.

Vancouver Officers Shifted. (Washington Bureau of The Journal.) First Lieutenant Frank H. Wolven has been relieved from duty at Vancouver Barracks and has been assigned to Fort McDowell, Colo. First Lieutenant Raymond E. Ingrams of Fort Douglas, Utah, has been assigned to Vancouver Barracks for duty.