OREGON TO MEET THE AGGIES IN CORVALLIS

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., April 30.—The first ball game between O. A. C. and Oregon will be played at Corvallis instead of Eugene as was originally planned.

The continued rains have made practice impossible on the Oregon diamond. The batteries are working out in the "gym" but otherwise the team is getting a long rest.

MORE SCHOLASTIC CROSSERS ARE OUT

Colvin Latest to Feel Hand of League Baseball Directors.

Ralph Colvin, one of Jefferson's catchers, has been barred from playing in the intercollegiate baseball league on the basis of his age.

The other suspended players are First Baseman Masten of the Portland academy team, Catcher Peterson of the Lincoln high school nine and Captain Heywood of the Columbia university squad.

Peterson's loss will be felt more than any other because he was the backbone of the Lincoln team.

WILL GIVE WHEELER CHANCE

San Francisco, April 30.—President Baum of the Coast league branded this afternoon as absolutely false a report from Los Angeles that he had decided to dispense with Umpire George Wheeler.

SCHOLASTIC ATHLETES BACK FROM BERKELEY

Portland's high school athletes who took part in the second annual Pacific Coast intercollegiate track and field meet last week at Berkeley, Cal., returned home yesterday afternoon and were greeted at the depot by the Washington high school band.

Amateur Baseball

Dallas, Or., April 30.—The local high school team defeated the Sheridan team last Saturday by the score of 11 to 1.

The line-up of the Dallas team is Herzog, catcher; Barham, pitcher; Gardner, first base; Boydston, second base; Woods, shortstop; Howard, third base; Cadie, left field; Matheny, center field, and Campbell, right field.

The Brooklyn Grays defeated the Oregoc team Sunday by the score of 4 to 3. The Grays would like to arrange a game for next Sunday.

The Jonesmore baseball team would like to arrange Sunday games with amateur teams, local or out of town.

The Country club team defeated the Hop Gold team Sunday by the score of 13 to 12 in an 11 inning game.

The Baltimore Dairy Lunch team desires games with any fast out of town teams for May 5, May 30 and June 23.

The Grammar School Games. The game between the Hoimas and Shaver teams of the Grammar School league was postponed on account of rain.

Showers at Seattle. Seattle, Wash., April 30.—The Seattle-Victoria game was postponed on account of rain.

BRITTON MOORE BATTLE TONIGHT

Winner May Be Possible Challenger for Ad Wogast's Title.

San Francisco, April 30.—With Jack Britton still ruling a 10 to 3 favorite, both Phil Moore, the Philadelphia boxer, and Britton, the Chicago lightweight, declared themselves in fine fettle today for their 10 round bout tonight.

Owing to illness, Jack Welch will be unable to referee the contest as scheduled, and Eddie Hanson, the former boxer, has been agreed upon as the third man in the ring.

The fight will be Moore's debut before a western crowd. If he wins tonight he will be in line for some good matches.

Klaus to Meet Dillon Again. New York, April 30.—Facts here today are looking forward to three middleweight bouts to be held here during the week.

Neil is picked as almost a sure winner in the javelin throw. He has won first place in this event in every meet in which he has competed.

Erne After Carpenter. New York, April 30.—Frank Erne, former lightweight pugilist is on his way to France today, where in Paris he will try to induce George Carpenter.

Johnson is Sincere. Milwaukee, April 30.—That Jack Johnson's declaration that he will retire from the ring September 1 is no fake was given added force here yesterday.

Jess Day Challenges. Marshfield, Or., April 30.—Jess Day, the local prize fighter who has offered a challenge to anyone in the United States of his own weight, has arranged for two fights to be held in this county next month.

Hayes Beats Brock. Youngstown, Ohio, April 30.—Governor Hayes of Columbus, although no decision was rendered, is admitted here today to have clearly proved his superiority over Phil Brock of Cleveland in their bout here.

WALKER BEATS TWO MULTNOMAH GRAPS

Hayward's Quintet Expected to Make Good Showing at Berkeley.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., April 30.—Accompanied by Trainer Hayward, five University of Oregon athletes left Eugene this afternoon for Berkeley, Cal., where they will take part in the All-Coast meet.

Hawkins will be pitted against Beeson and McClure of California. Beeson defeated Hawkins last year in 15-14. However, he has not been running the hurdles this season in form due to injuries.

Two Men in Distances. McClure and Huggins will compete in the distances for Oregon. McClure will probably take care of the mile and the half.

Neil is picked as almost a sure winner in the javelin throw. He has won first place in this event in every meet in which he has competed.
