IN THE REALM FEMININE

Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton, Spokane suffragist, who has been elected delegate to the Democratto national convention.

Events in Society

real known in Portland, where she has fore daylight representatives requently visited and has a host of the Champ Clark, Roosevelt, Taft result. At Hermosa Beach the women's vote exceeded the men's three to one. Estimating that more than 10,000 women voted in Los Angeles city yester-RS. FLORENCE COLLINS POR-day and more than half that many in TER, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. the county, it is stated that fully 10 per Isabelle Blancy, of Sun Jose, rent of the Democratic women voted of have been elected on the Rocse-whom three to one cast their ballots for velt ticket, and will be the first Champ Clark. Determination of women so chosen is the entire United to make a success of their civic opportunities was evinced by the large Wednesday, but the statement is only county clerk's office. Fully three to one were from women. Not that they ave been rejoicing for more than a were more ignorant than men concern-sek over the election of Mrs. May Ark-ing where to vote-many changes of right Hutton, of Spokana who was precincts causing much confusion—but sected a Democratic delegate to the because they apparently felt more stional convention. Mrs. Hutton is keenly a personal responsibility. Bemobile to go to the polls. The careful In speaking of the election other leagues were at their posts. Card study which women gave the election systems were used to check off the vot-

Victorious Christ Heads Procession

May 19.—Pastor who are to reign with Christ in pre-Russell spoke here eminent positions; but following them of his two discourses he used the following as his text: When he ascended up on high, he led a multitude of cap-Ephesi ans iv, 8. This grand respecting glorious out-of the Sa-.come vior's work is quoted by the Apostie Faul from the Psalms. (Psalm Ixvili, 18.) The figure thus thrust before our mental eye is that of the great conwith the Romans we know that it was custom that generals returning from various wars were granted what were med "Triumphs"-that is to say, trismphal processions.

for instance, Titus, returning from the war upon the Jews in A. D. 70, brought with him certain notable perons, and the golden candlestick from he temple, and these were displayed to the eyes of the people following the conqueror. They were subsequently ulptored on the Arch of Titus, still standing in Rome. And evidently the custom was still older than the days of the Romans, since it was propheti-cally set forth by the Prophet David.

Let us permit our mental eye to feast upon the scene presented in our text. Jesus, in fulfilment of the divine program had left the heavenly conditions and descended to earth, taking a bondsman's form or nature in order "that he, by the grace of God, might taste death for every man;" in order that he might rescue Adam and his race from the dying and death condition in which they very-under divine sentence and under he power of Satan.

Therefore, the redeemer counted not livered himself up for our offenses and died "the just for the unjust," that he and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers."

It behooves us to notice that the aposted in death, but his triumph began the does not intimate that Jesus gave to Leading Forth the Captives.

With most of the conquerors, in olden Not so, however, will be the result of Jesus' victory. According to the divine program he leads forth to liberty and ternal life those who have been slaves work of the thousand years of that Messianic reign!
First of all in the procession are the postles, St. Paul taking the place of.

Society Women

Resutiful hair-natural colored-ever

Then will come a company, more num-ones of the past, ancient worthies. The prophet speaks ter, who is the delegate from Los An also of the "rebellious house." The geles, is an example of California's classes previously specified were not rebellious, but gladly and willingly for- anhood. sook all to do the will of the father ber 10, last, Mrs. Porter was not enand to attain the liberty of sons of God, as the first fruits of the triumph of feared its effect.

But during the thousand years of Christ's reign he will lead forth the "re-bellious house"—the world of mankind not all of them, we may be sure for Luncheon Date Set. some, the scriptures positively declare, will die the second death, because, after realizing their deliverance, they will love sin and will therefore be destroyed as enemies of righteousness.

"He Gave Gifts Unto Men."

It was the custom in olden times that Dance Given. a king coming into authority and power should give gifts according to his wealth! Governors and princes would be needed and he would dispense the wealth! be needed and he would dispense the honors of these offices to those found faithful in his service, loyal in the defense of his cause. So in this prophetic reference to our Lord's ascendary as the "Campus Mouser" specialty at the Hunt club. In the specialty were Miss defense of his cause. So in this prophetic reference to our Lord's ascendary as McLean Miss Rhoda Rumelin, Miss Clean Nickerson, Miss Grace Performance of the "Campus Mouser" specialty at the Hunt club. In the specialty were Miss defense of his cause. sion it is declared, not only that he ters, Miss Esther Tucker, Miss Gladys would lead forth a multitude of captives, Land, Miss Nancy Zan, Miss Mary Stugranting them freedom, liberty, bless- art Smith, William Wheeler, Blake Robtain gifts.

guessing the nature of these gifts which the great redeemer would dispense, but such a waste of these gifts and William Burgard. pense, but such a waste of time is unnecessary, since the apostle proceeds, following out text, to explain the matis life precious to him, but freely de- ter and tells us what gifts are meant.

then, as is recorded, God raised him some Methodism, to other Presbyterianfrom the dead by his own power, and ism, and to others Roman Catholicism, and to others Roman Catholicism, ism, and to others Roman Catholicism.

It was because of more or less misunderstanding—because we failed to see the catholicism. first that there is but the "one church of the living God, whose names are written in heaven," and second, that written in heaven," and second, that have left the Bowers and gone out to that one church is not any of the various sects and parties, but includes the gon Yacht called in all of these, "For the Lord the summer.

knoweth them that are his." Nothing carefully the apostle's arguwork of the thousand years of that Mes- "for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ"—the church, the sints—"the Church of the First-born, bride class. Is it supposable that the rhose names are written in Heaven" abostle erred in this statement and a the forefront of them we see the 12 that the fact is the reverse—that these gifts were provided for the conversion of the world, and that the apostle thoroughly misunderstood the matter? We are to be taught by the apos-> mistalte, no error in his statement. These Gifts Are Lasting.

Not merely for a few days or years were these gifts provided; on the contrary woman can have it. It's a simpy'c matter. Just get a bottle of HAY'S HAIR HEALTH today. Use it regularly and you'll not be troubled with gray hair or distressing Dandruff that's so annoying and irritating.

HAYS HAIR HEALTH to "chaste virgin," the church, to be the bride in glory, but the apostolic office, as sood for men as well. Skild mere provided by the father, has continued and needs no replenishment. We still have their instructions as fully as the carly church, "that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto sails sectory.

Not merely for a few days or years were these gifts provided; on the contrary, they were to endure throughout this entire age, until the church perfected shall pass beyond the veil and be forever with her redeemer. The Lord from time to time has raised up evangelists, pastors and teachers for this glorious service of preparing the "chasts virgin," the church, to be the bride in glory, but the apostolic effice, as represented in the twelve, specially provided by the father, has continued and needs no replenishment. We still have their instructions as fully as the early church, "that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto sails sectory," good work."

W. C. T. U. SEEKS NEW MEMBERS W

Multnomah County Works Plan to Add 2000 Names to List.

An active campaign designed to add toon new members to the organization will be made this week throughout tion Temperance Union workers, who make a house to house canvass. Members of the 173 unions in this noun ty will participate in the campaign. To insure effective work the city and county was divided into districts last week and each union was detailed to work specified territory if the campaign is aurorseful several new unions will be organized later

Among other unloss the Mount Boott T. I' inaugurated its campaign today and on Wednesday a noon lunchunn will be held. A 'progress meeting' will follow it, and the campaigners will report on work under way. The luncaeon and meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ward Swope in Lents. In addition to canvassing for mem bers, the white ribboners will also dis-tribute W. C. T. I'. literature and empley other means to spread knowledge of the aims and objects of the organi-

Since the committees that will have the local work in charge for the enter-tainment of the W. C. T. U. national convention here in October have been looking over the field and getting the work under way it has been evident that much that is now declared to be lack of sympathy' with the organization is resity lack of true knowledge of its work," said Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, president of the Portland union. "Comparatively few, outside the enrolled ranks fully comprehend the vast scope covered by the W.C.T.U. and the up to date methods of work used.

The organization has a worldwide membership of more than 500,000. It is nonsectarian and its works include all the correlated reforms that center in the protection of the home. Among other things it has secured scientific temperance instruction in the public schools of every state, and reguiar temperance lessons in the Sunday schools of the nation. It carries on savings banks, and in Oregon the first baby's home was founded on the east side by the W. C. T. U. The organiza-tion has worked also for the purification of our literature and art and it has largely influenced the change in publie sentiment in regard to social drinking, equal suffrage and equal educational, professional and industrial opportunities for men and women.

Regardless of party affilintions, Callers, and any laggard was immediately a Champ Clark club worker, who was stationed at Adams and Vermont, saved a man from losing his vote. This experienced voter, confused b the errors in the published lists of poll-ing places, had looked in vain for his name through three precinct lists. Disgusted, he was about to abandon his at tempt to vote when Mrs. Yeager found his name on the list in her precinct, Mrs. Emma Case Bishop, secretary of today in the Boston are some others of the saintly company the La Foliette Women's club, said last theatre. In one of kings in all a "little flock." night: "Our organization, both men and erous, but less heroic—"a great multi-tude," uncrowned, but with "palm about the polls. Every woman who branches." not antitypical priests, but voted for Senator La Follette voted for antitypical levites, associates and ser-vants of the Royal priesthood, the bride. Was not a partisan interest, but some-Then will follow (Hebrews xi, 38-40) thing higher that made Republican The geles, is an example of California's most progressive, representative wom-anhood. Prior to the election of Octotirely converted to woman suffrage. She Now she feels that the six months of equal suffrage in this state have been a splendid example and

Mrs. Gay Lombard is planning to compliment Miss Angela Kinney with a prenuptial luncheon on Thursday at Hotel Multnomah.

Miss Gladys Lang changed the date of her dance from next Friday to last when she entertained the members the "Campus Mouser" specialty at the ings, but also that he would confer cer- bins, Calvin Dyott, Alexander Morrison, Personal Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald B. McIntyre (Miss Dorothy Josselyn) are now estab-lished in their home at Joliet, Ill., afer a wedding journey which took them through California, as well as to Kansas City and St. Louis, where they visited relatives.

Morris H. Whitehouse is recovering o splendidly from his recent operation that he will be able to return from Good Samaritan hospital to his home about Wednesday or Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall Yates have left the Bowers and gone out to gon Yacht club, where they will pass

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Klein have been of sin and death. His train of captives ment we perceive that the master did enjoying a stay of a fortnight or more not give these gifts for the conversion in San Francisco. Mrs. Klein is better the procession has already occupied 1s of the world. He does specify, how-known as Lillie V. O'Ryan, the miniature artist.

Friends of Miss Pearl Barde are much interested in the piano recital which she gives this evening at the Hotel Multnomah under the direction of Miss Marie Soule.

Mrs. Alexander Reith and Miss Flor-ence Reith of Tacoma were at home Tuesday for their guest, Miss Pearl Berkey, of Portland. Miss Berkey and tle, and may be sure that there is no Miss Reith are both National Park mistake, no error in his statement. These Gifts Are Lasting. Phi Epsilon sorority. Miss Berkey will Not merely for a few days or years remain north for several weeks.

MOTHER'S DAY

By Frances L. Garsida.

HEN a number of appreciative souls succeeded a few years ago in having the account Sunday in May set aside as Mother's Day, they little knew what or's Day, they little knew what are a bay, they little knew what are a bay or a bay received to be a bay or a ba a day of noble sacrifice they were pre-paring for Daysey Mayme Appleton.

It is a day when in homes, church and Sunday school, special homage is shown to mether; pink carnations to be given the mothers who are present, and usually faded after such a strenupus day, in a glass by her bedside that she a white carnation to be worn in memry of the mother who has gone away. "It is the day," says Daysey Mayme may reflect as she inhales their frag-rance, what it means to be the mother with modest avoidance of praise, "when of an appreciative daughter like me." I never forget I have a mother! "I always begin my celebration of MARY GARDEN LEAVES this meet sacred of all days," said Day-acy Mayme, "by lying in bed a little ater in the morning. "I do this that I may have the hour for undisturbed meditation. As I lie there and think of the goodness of my mother, the faint sound of the slamming and dropping of kitchen utensils comes to my ear, forming an appropriate accompaniment to my thoughts. "She is out there getting breakfast for ME' She is experiencing the great est joy life holds for a mother, and that is the joy of Bervice. When I think of all this means to her I am giad I was born. I feel repaid for all the serrows life has brought to me.

"I always purchase my carnations or Saturday, and take pride in getting at least five dozen. It takes that many to make a coreage bouquet large enough to express my love, and, fortunately, father has an account at the florist's. Then, too, I always remember that he, being a Mure Man, and devoid of senti-ment, will forget the day, and I buy an extra dozen to make up for his lack of appreciation.

"I always prepare a little poem to relite while my mother serves me at breakfast. I had thought of one like

'All, my soul doth poise and swing, From its earthly habitations: Recklessly its life 'twould fling

For this bunch of pink carnations. I will recite this to her after I have dressed for church, indicating my carnations and the flight of my soul with appropriate gestures.

"I will bring company home with me to dinner. I always feel that the day furnishes opportunity for me to be a daughters, and my guests will hear me praise my mother while we eat the splendid dinner I shall ask her to pre-pare. Then while she does up the kitchen work I will take my guests to the parlor and play Boderiski's 'Mother' on the plane, leaving the doors to the kitchen open that she may hear. Dear, dear mother.

"In the afternoon I will go with my guests for a walk, and return alone for tea. I will devote some time in marking selections for her to read while I am at church, all bearing on the joy of being a Mother. will attend services in the evening for the reason that one cannot go makes hard water soft

By the use of Gold Dust you can at all times have nice. soft rainwater right at your elbow for the asking. Imagine what a help this would be for washing clothes, and for all cleansing purposes!

Just a little Gold Dust added to any water softens it, takes out the mineral substances and brings out the greatest cleansing value.

Gold Dust dissolves dirt and grease, works like lightning, and relieves housework of all its drudgery.

For your poor back's sake, don't try to keep house without Col Dust.

Donotum berax. oap, naphtha lasting form.

"Let the GOLD DUST TWINS

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE is actually made and bottled in England, right in the home of Worcestershire

Sauces.

Chauffeur Rushes Load of Joyriders Over Open Span in Chicago.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, May 20.-At least five persons were killed here today when an automobile containing a number of joyriders plunged into the Calumet river over an open draw at Ninety-seventh atreet. The driver of the machine disregarded a policeman's warning to stop and ran full speed over the draw. The New York, May 20.-Mary Garden has sailed on the George Washington. passengers screamed as the machine turned a somersault and sank in 20 She plans to make an automobile tour of the continent after filling an engagefeet of water. An hour later the body of a woman was recovered, the other ment at the Paris opera, and then she victims being pinned beneath the auto-will go to Scotland for the summer. mobile.

("I have taken a shooting box in Scot- Accounts as to the number of per-land," the singer said, "and I am going to have some very good shooting. I expect to be back in November." some in the automobile differ. It is certain, however, that five were in the machine, other reports placing the num-Asked if she was going to sing for ber as high as seven.

Although diverse in November."

Asked if she was going to sing for ber as high as seven.

Although diverse.

just bet your life I am."

"And, oh yes." called back Mise Garden as she hurried up the gang plank, "please don't forget my white spats in ger when 20 feet from the draw and nised the world over as the standard fried to run headon into a stone abut- | remedy for female illa.

FOR PARIS ENGAGEMENT

(By the International News Service.)

Celebration Opens at Charlotte, (Quecis) to The Poursil.)
Charlotte N. C. May 20.—Charlotte today opened her annual celebration in. observance of the anniversary of the signing of the Meckienburg declaration of independence, a document said to have been promulgated here on May 20, 1775, nearly a year in advance of the declaration at Philadelphia. The cele-bration will last nearly the entire week and is expected to attract thousands of visitors. The annual exhibition of manufactures together with baseball games, parades, aeroplane flights, band concerts and other features of entertainment. make up the program.

THE INDIAN MEDICINE MAN

was chosen by his tribe in pioneer days because of his expert knowledge in com bining medicines from roots and herbs to cure disease. They could conquer diseases that today baffle the most skilled physicians who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the field Lydia E. Pinkham nearly forty years ago gave to the woman of the world a remedy for female ills deemed mere potent and efficacious than any combi-

ALDER AND SEVENTH R. E. FARRELL CO.

ALDER AND

A Wonderful, Timely Sale This of 250 Samples of Dresses---at One-Third Off

Selling Regularly From $7.50 to $65

Three Complete Lines Secured by Us From Leading Makers From Whom We Buy Merchandise.

Tomorrow marks the beginning of an event, the like of which the women of Portland and vicinity have never before known-250 Dresses-samples, and therefore no two alike, secured by us at the interesting extra discount of 33 1-3 per cent and all express charges prepaid, enabling us to quote a reduction of one-third on every garment. Bear in mind that this is not a pick-up lot, but a most desirable line of clean, fresh, up-to-date merchandise. In the line are Lingerie Dresses, Dresses of Silk, of Linen, of Voile, of Crepe, of Ratine and Wool Serges-both colored and in white-all the very latest models. Included also are Dresses of allover embroidery, lace and net, suitable for all occasions of wear. Some very pretty models, suitable for graduates' wear. Be on hand early if you wish to share in this remarkable distribution of Sample Dresses at One-Third Less Than Their Regular Selling Prices.

> Our Entire Window Display Devoted the Showing of These Dresses.

ALDER AND

E. FARRELL CO

"Just a Little Different"

MY ADVICE

entirely aside from any idea of interesting you in an investment in Eastmoreland, is to visit Reed College. See it as it is today, for the memory of it will always be pleasant. When you are five years older, compare Reed College, then, with what it is today. Whether or not you pay any attention Eastmoreland makes little difference. Your judgment will decide.

TO YOU

F. N. CLARK

Selling Agent 818-23 Spalding Building

Sellwood Car to Bybee and Transfer