Roosevelt Wins Over Taft Forces in Ohio Election :. Harmon Leads Wilson Mrs. Pankhurst Given Nine Months in Jail :. Clarence Darrow Jury Chosen

PRISON TERMS OF 9 MONTHS GIVEN 3 SUFFRAGETTES

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and Lawrence are convicted and sentenced for conspiracy to damage property.

JURY RECOMMENDS THAT LENIENCY BE SHOWN

Court's Action Direct Result of Window Smashing Campaign of Militants.

(Special to The Journal.) London, May 22.—Militant suffragettes were put into the criminal class today when Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and Fethick Lawrence and his wife were sentenced to serve nine months in prison.

The conviction and sentencing of the suffragettes are due directly to the women's window smashing campaign. They are taken to mean that the cause of the militant "Votes for Women" advocates is irrevocably lost.

Charges of conspiring to damage property were made against the suffragette leader and the two editors of the London publication of the militants— "Votes for Women." Indictments were for "unlawfully conspiring and agreeing together to commit damage and injury to property and with having aided, abetted and procured offenses against the malicious injuries to property act."

Evidence adduced in the trial showed that Mrs. Pankhurst and the Lawrences issued public calls for suffragette "demonstrations" and openly urged the destruction of property. Some of this evidence was procured when, while an army of suffragettes were raiding downtown stores, their headquarters were demolished by a group of students.

Immediately after the three were convicted, sentence was imposed today. The jury, in announcing its verdict, recommended leniency, and nine months in prison without hard labor was given in each case. Costs of the case were assessed against the defendants.

The three defendants all but collapsed when the verdict was brought in. Mrs. Pankhurst almost fainted as she approached the dock and appealed to the court to make her offense a political and not a criminal one. She seemed greatly weakened. With her voice choking, the once militant suffragette leader tearfully defended her action.

TILLAMOOK CHEESE FACTORIES VISITED BY EXCURSIONISTS

Great Industrial Activity Appeals to Portland Men Who Are Being Right Royally Entertained.

AUTOS AND LAUNCHES CARRY CROWDS ABOUT

Banquet Last Night Makes Good Impression on Portland Boosters.

(Journal Staff Correspondence.) Tillamook, Or., May 22.—The Portland excursionists were aroused early, favored by a beautiful, sunny morning. They visited Tillamook business friends up to 9 o'clock, and then left in automobiles for a 20 mile inspecting tour of cheese factories. They touched at the Maple Leaf, Fairview, Red Clover, South Prairie and Tillamook factories, the combined receipts of which are 90,000 pounds a day, giving a daily output of about 9000 pounds of cheese.

Returning at noon, the visitors had luncheon at the Commercial club and left this afternoon on a launch trip to Bayocan and Bay City. Eighty-eight Portlanders and 80 Tillamook citizens filled the Tillamook Commercial club's large banquet hall last night and devoured a menu that showed Tillamook a pretty independent and self-sufficient country whether shut off from the world or not.

The Tillamook Commercial club introduced one novelty, which veteran excursionists pronounced unusually original. A long necked, suggestive bottle was placed before each plate, its contents wholly hidden by a label reading "The Bull's Head Brand, Tillamook's Superior Beverage. Brewed twice a day; the Beer that Made Tillamook Famous. Specially Brewed for the Portland Business Men This Morning."

The list of speakers was long and more than one Tillamook man begged Portland capitalists to become interested here, pointing out chances to manufacture profit.

ANGERED AT WIFE HE BLOWS UP HOUSE; TWO INFANT SONS KILLED

"I Hope She Dies," Says West Virginian of Mortally Injured Mate. (United Press Leased Wire.) Wheeling, W. Va., May 22.—Blowing up his house, killing his two infant sons and mortally wounding his wife because she refused to live with him when she heard he had another wife living and undivided, James Mungrore is under strong guard in jail today, threatened with lynching by an infuriated mob of citizens.

METHODIST CONFERENCE CHOOSES TWO BISHOPS

Minneapolis, May 22.—On the eleventh ballot Rev. W. O. Shepard, D. D., of Chicago and Rev. T. F. Henderson, D. D., of Brooklyn were elected bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church at the general conference. Dr. Shepard received 532 ballots, with 824 necessary to elect. Dr. Henderson received 522 votes. Rev. R. E. Jones (colored) dropped out of the race and the colored vote has been centered on W. P. Threlk, a white instructor in a school for colored people. Dr. Benjamin F. Young of Portland, Or., has increased his following to 151, with good chances for further votes.

DECISIVE VOTE UPON MEASURE TAKEN IN CONGRESS TOMORROW

Friends of Measure Urged to Use Every Endeavor to Effect Bill's Passage.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, May 22.—That the house will reverse its action of last night, when it voted to permit American owned ships engaged in coastwise trade to pass free of tolls through the Panama canal was the prediction here today of Representative W. C. Adamson (Dem., Georgia). A final vote on the measure will be taken in the house tomorrow.

CAPITAL BEAUTY TRIES DEATH BY LONG PLUNGE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, May 22.—Plunging in a fit of despondency, four stories to the ground from the window of the room in which her husband died in the Barber mansion here, Mrs. Leiford Barber, famed as one of the most beautiful women in Washington, is seriously, perhaps fatally, injured today.

THRESHERMEN WOULD SPREAD THE GOSPEL OF BETTER FARMING

Convention at Condon Attracts Successful Farmers of 3 States.

(Journal Staff Correspondence.) Hood River, Or., May 22.—The men who thresh the grain of the northwest and help make Portland the greatest wheat shipping port of the United States are gathering from Oregon, Washington and Idaho at Condon for the annual convention. Condon is the meeting place of the threshermen this year because it is the center of the Sherman-Morrow-Gilliam, or tri-county country where an experiment in the benefits of diversified farming, that covers 4000 square miles of country importantly tributary to Portland is being tried.

FRENCH PRESIDENT GREETES COMMISSION

Paris, May 22.—The members of the Panama Pacific exposition foreign commission, who are touring Europe under the leadership of John Hays Hammond, were guests of United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick at a banquet here today at which a number of leading bankers and merchants of the French capital were their fellow diners.

ROOSEVELT GETS 38 OF OHIO'S 48 DELEGATES; OWN STATE AGAINST TAFT; HARMON AHEAD OF WILSON

Thirty-one and Perhaps 32 Districts Favor Colonel Against Native Son, Taft, Giving Former President Control of the State Convention, Which Is to Elect Six Votes at Large; Senator La Follette Makes Showing in Cleveland.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Columbus, Ohio, May 22.—Available returns from the primary election received late this afternoon indicate that Roosevelt carried the fifth, sixth, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, fourteenth, fifteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth and twenty-first districts. He also gets one delegate each in the third, fourth and fifth districts. La Follette failed to capture any delegates.

Washington, May 22.—The Taft bureau here this afternoon conceded Roosevelt 38 of Ohio's 48 delegates, while the Roosevelt managers concede Taft but eight delegates, declaring the other two still are doubtful. On the Democratic side returns from 2162 precincts of the 5163 in Ohio give Harmon 60,134 and Woodrow Wilson 36,178 votes in the presidential preference primary.

The Harmon managers conceded five districts to Governor Wilson, but Wilson managers claim nine districts, asserting that the outcome of two others is in doubt. The Harmon people are claiming the election of all district delegates, except the four districts in question, that Wilson has elected 14 district delegates.

NATURALLY PLEASED, SAYS COLONEL, BUT DID NOT NEED OHIO

"Hopeless to Try to Beat Us at Chicago by Unseating Our Delegates." (United Press Leased Wire.) Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 22.—"The result in Ohio is a victory for me, not only did it represent the victory of the people of Ohio, but it represents the victory of the people of Washington, Indiana, Kentucky and other states, nor will it be possible for them to win by seating delegates elected by fraud in southern states."

"I appreciate what the people of Ohio did in electing me, but I believe the Republicans and but for every good citizen, for in this contest we have stood for the fundamental rights of good citizenship. Every honest and decent citizen, no matter what his political party, should be profoundly concerned in our victory."

Colonel Roosevelt was showered with congratulatory telegrams today. He and his son Kermit went for a horseback ride in the morning. The former president will start his New Jersey campaign on Thursday.

Says Taft Should Quit. Washington, May 22.—"It's a crime for President Taft to continue in the contest," was the statement here today of Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager, on the result of the election in Ohio. "Friends of the president," continued Dixon, "should not permit him to go into New Jersey. He frankly stated in Cleveland last Thursday that the vote in Ohio would be decisive and settle the nomination question. The Republican party is bigger than the ambition of anyone."

BRITISH PRESS FREELY PREDICTS DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN AMERICA

London Newspapers Believe to Be Fatal to G. O. P. (Special to The Journal.) London, May 22.—London newspapers are discussing the political situation in the United States with interest. Followers of the press cannot remember when more editorial space has been given than now to American political events.

The comments indicate the general trend: London Morning Post—What concerns the Republicans a good deal more than the changes from day to day in the totals of the delegates, is the fear they have of a split that will result in two conventions in Chicago. After the nomination is made, differences may be forgotten in the face of the common enemy, but now it looks as if both factions would be better pleased to see the success of a Democrat than the election of the rival Republican candidate.

London Times—The cleavage in the Republican party goes so deep that the distinction between the Republicans and Democrats has lost much of its importance. If Mr. Roosevelt wins the Republican nomination, the Democrats will, in all probability, put up a conservative champion. Mr. Taft carries the day, it will be the radical feeling in both parties. A month ago, most competent judges would have said with some confidence that Mr. Taft would be re-nominated. Now these same judges seem very doubtful about the issue.
