

DARROW DENIES HE WILL CONFESS

"Such a Thing Has Never Been Considered," Asserts Accused Attorney.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, May 22.—Clarence Darrow today heatedly and unqualifiedly denied a report printed in a San Francisco newspaper to the effect that he will confess to the bribery of George N. Loewend to escape a jail sentence. "Such a thing has never been considered," cried the accused attorney when told of the report. "It is not being considered and never will be. I never, never will plead guilty. The thing has never entered my mind. I can't imagine where such a story could have originated, unless it was started by someone connected with the other side of the case."

TILLAMOOK CHEESE FACTORIES VISITED BY EXCURSIONISTS

(Continued From Page One.) Italy the by-products of lumber. The "88 Portlanders—every man an orator," spoke along humorous or serious lines, excepting Ben Belling, who bespoke for himself election to the senate. The Tillamook men, however, were mostly in serious vein and here are some random utterances that indicate the country's peculiar problem.

Tillamook's Problems. "We have 40,000,000 feet of timber, but only a few small sawmills. We need a more intensive system of cropping our high-priced dairy lands. We need several feet more water on our bar and a channel correspondingly deep to Tillamook City."

Particularly was it urged on outside capital to build a modern hotel in Tillamook. As Mayor John Harter put it—"Honest John," everybody here calls him—"Tillamook with this year pass three and one third miles of streets, will spend $50,000 on a sewer system and is about to put up a $30,000 high school, but it lacks hotel facilities and I am amazed that no capitalist comes to build one."

Long List of Speakers. The list of banquet speakers follows: Tillamook—D. L. Skirde, president of the commercial club, chairman; George Willets, deputy district attorney; John Harter, mayor; James Walton Jr., First National bank; Rollie W. Watson, editor, Attorney H. T. Botts, president of the Port of Tillamook; Charles Kunze, dairyman, and Fred Christensen, cheese inspector.

Nice for Both of Them. (United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, May 22.—When a drowning stevedore grabbed Pete Peterson by the leg, Pete slipped it off and swam to shore. The limb was cork, and the stevedore floated with it until rescued.

ANARCHY THREATENS THE PACIFIC STATES, ASSERTS AGNES LAUT

Magazine Writer Declares the Crisis Is Rapidly Approaching; I. W. W. at Head.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Vancouver, B. C., May 22.—According to Miss Agnes Laut, the well known magazine writer, the Pacific coast is threatened with anarchy. Miss Laut has just reached Montreal from the west, and declares a crisis is rapidly approaching. "I am not against labor organizations," she said, "on the contrary, I am in sympathy with them; but there are so-called labor organizations in British Columbia, Washington and California which are nothing more than organized anarchy, the only object of which is to overthrow capital and law and order."
