filly it to our handsome young manager. Mr. Nicholas Williams for knowing Spokane's weakness. He sent Lefty Tonneson against the pale faced abor-Tonneson against the party was the speas, of testing yesterday and lefty was the speas, of Fries, etc. whole show. Until the ninth inning the a shutout, but Elmmerman, who had been playing a scintiliating game all afternoon, wedged in with a two barger and before Willis and Shaw had fanned two runs were across the plate.

The Colts fell on Willis in the opening chapter for enough runs to put the came on the shelf After that they wire pulled up. About the most conspicuous feature of the game following. Tenneson's pitching was the change in the attitude of the Indians. Last year they biew into town with abnormal conning towers to the long lead they had, but before the week was over they were a badly tamed lot. If memory serves, the redskins took but one game during the week. This year they are well down the list, and there is no cockiness ap-print, and then he rode in on a shoe-atring, to-wit, the Cobb affair.

Oh, Yes, the Game. But the game's the thing. There was nothing to it but Tonneson, as aforementioned. Until the ninth the only man to reach third was Cartwright, via three times and Hap Myers breezed twice. Cartwright was the only one successfully to solve Tonneson. Hitting from the right side of the plate, he gathered in two corking doubles. Willis looked good at the start when he fanned Mensor, but Cruikshank, the Detroit newest of the stable, drove the bail Philadelphia him with a stinging single to center. and Billy took second on the throw in. A wild pitch put Speas on third, and he scored on Fries infield out, Shaw to Myers. Williams walked, and Harris followed with a scratch single. Kibble was there in the pinch and drove one to left that scored Nick, but Harris was caught 'twixt second and home and fi-mally fell from exhaustion after the en-Boston tire Spokane infield took a hand in running him down.

Zimmerman robbed Coltrin of a hit in the fifth, but Tonneson singled, took third bag and third when Cruiksbank singled to short. A wild pitch let Tonneson score. Speas was out to Zim- Eagan, Lapp. nerman, and Cooney made a great one handed stab of Fries' liner over short r the last out.

Williams was safe in the sixth on Davis' error and Harris sacrificed. Kibble worked Willis for a walk, but Coitrin skied to Cartwright. Tonnesou got a freak double down the first base line, the ball hitting a couple of inches New York on fair territory after it passed the bag.

That Fishing Trip

After you've spent time, labor and money in getting to your favorite fishing stream, there's a lot of solid satisfaction in knowing that your tackle is the best the market affords.

Selling that kind of tackle is our regular business.

and the bases were cleared. Tonneson then tightened up and fanned both Willts and Shaw. Eliminatman played a splendid out-field, cutting off clean hits from Kibble, Coitrin and Harria. Score:
