A Permanent Cure For

Chronic Constipation Although those may dispute it who | not been exaggerated.

Roscoe Howard, the railroad man and Although those may dispute it who have not tried it, yet thousands of others, who speak from personal experience, assert that there is a permanent cure for chronic constipation. Some testify they were cured for as little as fifty cents, years ago, and that the trouble never came back on them, while others admit they took several bottles before a steady cure was brought about.

The remedy referred to is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been on the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularised on its Oregon, is registered at the

the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularised on its merits, by one person telling another. The fact that its strongest supporters are women and elderly people—the ones most persistently constipated—makes it certain that the claims regarding it as a permanent cure for constipation have

There are already a number of good prune orchards in the vicinity, and as it is not far from the premier prune district of the state, he says there is no reason why Dayton should not be a great prune center.

Recently Mr. Bradford visited the orchards near Newberg and Springbrook where experiments with commercial fertilizers are being carried on in cooperation with prune growers. The work is not sufficiently advanced to make a report of results possible. He has also visited the Wallace orchards at Salem to inspect similar work there.

F. R. Brown, also of the horticulture department, is to address a week's institute in the Dufur valley, for which the college extension division is mak-ing arrangements.
