

SENATOR CRANE NOT CANDIDATE

Massachusetts Leader of Old Guard Announces His Retirement.

(Special to The Journal.)
Washington, May 22.—Senator W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts announced that he will not be a candidate for reelection. His term will expire in March. He is also Republican committee man from Massachusetts.

His announcement means that Senator Crane acknowledges defeat in his fight for the old guard in which he sought to control the machinery of the Republican party. Crane's defeat in the recent primaries in Massachusetts was a disastrous blow.

Crane announces that he had intended not making his statement until after the Republican national convention, but that as the possibility of the law making the election of United States senators direct, made an early campaign necessary to aspirants, he had decided to make public his stand at once.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT COUNCIL CREST PARK

The new scenic amusement park which opened last Sunday at Council Crest was visited by thousands who took advantage of the warm weather and bright sunshine to enjoy the formal beginning of the season. The visitors found many changes and much that was novel in the way of recreation features. Of particular interest was the observation tower which has been equipped with an elevator and a searchlight, which latter was enjoyed by large parties at the top of the tower after dark. The light has a sweep of the country for miles around.

The refitted roller skating rink was most largely patronized and the music from the new $5000 pipe organ proved a treat. The fireworks which were to have been sent off during the evening were held back until next Sunday night because of wind.

Picnic parties will be the order this summer at the crest, the management having fixed over the old apple orchard near the grounds for picnic purposes. The Council Crest Roller Skating club composed of residents of Portland Heights is holding fortnightly parties at the rink and another club of beginners who live in the Sunnyside district has been formed to skate at the crest on alternate Wednesday nights. Already four Sunday schools have booked dates at the picnic grounds for their annual outings, during June and July.

Tickets for the Tennyson recital, to be given Friday night, May 24, at the Y. W. C. A., are now on sale at the Y. W. C. A., Seventh and Taylor streets, at the corner of Grand Avenue and East Taylor, and by members of the association.

EXHIBITION OF WORK IN WASHINGTON HIGH

Tomorrow, from 2:40 to 4 o'clock, there will be an exhibition of the work done in the various manual departments of the Washington high school. These exhibits will contain the results of the work done during the last term in domestic science (cooking), domestic art (sewing and dressmaking), freehand drawing, crafts work, mechanical drawing and manual training (both woodwork and ironwork). The exhibition of the sewing and dressmaking classes will be held in the new gymnasium building, half of which is devoted to this purpose. The rest of the work will be shown in the different rooms in the main building, on the third floor. The articles on exhibition will be such as are made term after term in the classes of the school and will not be such as are gotten up especially for exhibition purposes. The public is very cordially invited to attend, in order that the work of this kind that is being done in the high schools may be better understood by people generally.

ALLEGED BARTENDER SOLD LIQUOR TO INDIAN

A four-months-old Indian baby, wrapped securely in a brilliant blanket and strapped onto a board which its mother carried on her back, was the center of attraction this morning at police headquarters, and from the actions of the tiny brown skinned child, it enjoyed the spotlight.

The mother, Mrs. John Thomas Eyle, appeared to attend the hearing of the charge against John West, a bartender at 63 North Third street, accused of selling her husband whiskey. West and the Indian were arrested last Monday night by Captain Riley. This morning West was held to answer to the grand jury and Eyle was held as a witness. The family is destitute and arrangements are being made to obtain enough funds to send the woman, babe and the wife's sister to their farm, near Vancouver.

It is good for men as well as for boys to play some.

I. O. O. F. GRAND LODGE IN SESSION

Spectacular Parade of 1000 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Surprises Pendleton.

(Special to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., May 22.—With more than 1000 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in line, the parade of the I. O. O. F. grand lodge filed through the streets of Pendleton at 1 o'clock this afternoon, ending at the courthouse, where the public witnessed the grand decoration of the building.

The parade was headed by Brigadier General Hants of the department of Oregon. Beside him, bedecked delegates, several uniformed cantons and two bands were in the line of march.

The grand lodge convened this morning at 9 o'clock and the grand lodge degree was conferred on 22 past grand officers, including all other matters coming before the convention is the election of officers tomorrow.

It is rumored that the reactionary element is working up sentiment against E. E. Shanon, Portland, grand secretary, with a view to defeating him for reelection. Shanon has been in office many years, and his old friends are rallying to his standard.

Officers Elected.
At the meeting of the Grand Encampment yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: G. A. Pogue, grand patriarch; G. P. Rickley, grand senior warden; E. E. Shanon, grand scribe (re-elected); W. W. Francis, grand treasurer (re-elected); G. W. Wright, grand high priest; Robert Andrews, grand junior warden. The office of grand junior warden was the only one contested.

At the meeting of the grand lodge today, principal interest was centered in the annual report of Grand Secretary E. E. Shanon. He showed the condition of the order throughout the state. The total membership in Oregon, according to the report is 18,510, an increase of 736 over the year preceding, while the total assets of the various lodges foot up to $1,474,271.95, a gain of $65,371.11 over the year 1910.

Five New Lodges.
Five new subordinate lodges were instituted during the year as follows: Wilsonville, No. 223, Wilsonville, Clackamas county; Redmond, No. 224, Redmond, Crook county; Tualatin, No. 225, Culver, Crook county; Tualatin, No. 226, Tualatin, Washington county; and Eagle Point, No. 227, Eagle Point, Jackson county. This brings the total number of working lodges in the state to 269.

Big Relief Fund.
The total income of the lodges during the year was $260,461.21, an increase of $12,958.78 over the preceding year. Of this amount, $73,242.20 was paid out for relief for 1640 members. The current expenses of the lodges amounted to $109,721.91.

A summary of the annual reports of the Rebekah lodges, made by the secretary of the Rebekah assembly, shows a net gain of 716 for the year 1911 and a total membership of 18,194. Nine new lodges were instituted during the year in the following cities: Beaver, Tillamook county; Carlton, Yamhill county; Nyasa, Malheur county; Portland; Redmond, Crook county; Rockwood, Multnomah county, bringing the total number to 381.

The income of the Rebekahs for the year was $268,312, of which amount $220.60 was paid for relief. The present assets amount to $38,327.45.

ACTOR LOOKS PART OF REAL MILLIONAIRE

Harry Hilliard.
Harry Hilliard, the young leading man of Baker Stock company, who is showing patrons at the Baker how hard it is to spend a $1,000,000 a year legitimately as Monty Brewster in Brewster's Millions this week, looks every inch the part of the devil-may-care young spendthrift one picture in his mind when reading the fascinating book from which the play is made. There is a fascination in watching some other person spend a $1,000,000, and therein lies the secret of the success of this play. To wake up some fine morning and hear that some relative has just died and left a $1,000,000, to be relieved of all the drudgery and cares of our daily work or business, to be able to go wherever you like and do whatever you like without consulting anyone—that is the experience of Monty Brewster. The comedy situations keep the audience in good humor all through the play. It is one of the Baker company's biggest successes of this season.

London Sees Roosevelt Victory.
London, May 22.—A death blow to President Taft's hope for re-nomination is seen here today by the London newspapers in Theodore Roosevelt's victory in the Ohio primaries. Editorially discussing the Ohio result, the Pall Mall Gazette says:
"The blow delivered to President Taft in his native state is a mortal one, and completes the tragedy of a judicial mind in demagogic politics. The sooner the president is retired from the dog fight, the better."

REHEARING RESULTS IN SIMPSON'S CONVICTION

The rehearing of the charges against Hugh Simpson, a member of the Elks lodge, who was arrested last week at the Union depot on a vagrancy charge and with peddling without a license following his attempt to sell a watch, resulted in another conviction of the man yesterday in police court and a fine of $10 being imposed.

Last week, Attorney McCue charged that Simpson had been retrofitted into pleading guilty to a charge of peddling without a license, and sentence was suspended. After his release Simpson paid Lew Dawley the $10 fee asked and then complained to the local Elks that he had been imposed upon.

The rehearing yesterday resulted in sustaining Detective Swensen and Muloney who made the arrest, and also resulted in the methods of police court attorney in soliciting business being attacked by the court and city attorney. Dawley was reprimanded by the court for soliciting business among prisoners, and Judge Tazewell stated that hereafter prisoners would be allowed more protection from soliciting business and at the same time would be given a chance to see legitimate attorneys.

The attorneys asked for a fine of $25 so an appeal could be taken but this was denied. A stenographic report of affairs was taken with an idea of demanding a writ of review before the circuit court.

Ehrgott Lecture Tonight.
"The Preacher as a Troubler" will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered by Rev. Albert Ehrgott, formerly pastor of the East Side Baptist church, who was expelled, it is said, from his pulpit, on account of his progressive policies, at the Woman's Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets, tonight. Rev. Ehrgott will be introduced by Col. C. E. Wood.

DANISH PEOPLE HONOR LATE KING'S MEMORY

Memorial services were held last Sunday morning in the Danish-Lutheran church, Union avenue and Morris street, for King Frederick VIII, who passed away in Hamburg, Germany, May 14. The church was draped in mourning and beautifully decorated with flowers and the American and Danish flags. So many of the Danish people of Portland attended the services that extra seats had to be provided. The Danish Singing society, "Dannebrog," opened the services with "So! i Ro" (Sleep in Rest).

Rev. J. S. H. Scott preached a very impressive sermon, touching on the life and character of the late king, the premier of the Danish-Lutheran church. Following the sermon a solo was rendered by Miss Martha Kruse. A. T. Schouboe, addressed the congregation, giving the statistics of King Frederick's life, and speaking also of what he had done for Denmark and its people during his reign. The services were concluded with "Der er et yndig Land," beautifully rendered by the singing society. A collection was then taken up which was to defray the expense of a cable-gram sent to the new king, Christian X, Copenhagen, Denmark, expressing the condolence and sympathy of the Danish population of this city over the death of the king. King Christian's reply was received by cable today and read, "Sorgenfrihed, Danmark, Europe" (Bring countrymen sincere thanks). "CHRISTIAN."

WASHINGTON HIGH BAND WILL GIVE A CONCERT

Next Friday and Saturday evenings, the Washington high school band will give a concert at the high school auditorium, East Fourteenth and Stark streets. This is the second concert to be given this term by the band. Although the first one was given just one week, this time will be given two nights. The band numbers 30 players, each of whom has practised faithfully for two months on the present program and the results of this practice will be seen at the concert.

There are many special features this time. One especially is the one to be given by Maurice Hyde and Walter Grebe—the one with the cornet and the other with the trombone. The name of this little "stunt" is "Music Talks." At the last concert it was the hit of the evening. The proceeds of the concert are to be given to the student body to be used for student activities.

A TYPICAL EXAMPLE OF SUBURBAN HOME COMFORT

MADE POSSIBLE VIA THE MITCHELL-LEADER WATER SYSTEM

This delightful home is located more than eight miles from the heart of Portland, five miles from the nearest Portland water main, yet its owner, Mr. W. H. Edwards, enjoys all the advantages of the city as well as the country. This home has its bath, washroom and sanitary lavatory, the equal of the finest city home. Furthermore, Mr. Edwards has an abundant supply of water for sprinkling, which enables him to keep his lawn in the condition shown in the photo. The fire bogey does not keep this suburbanite awake nights, for he and every other Mitchell-Leader owner knows his system is positive protection against fire — always ready with a pressure as high as 125 pounds, if desired. Note that the water plant in no way mars the beauty of the home; the tank is located underground adjoining the basement, where it not only keeps the water cool in Summer, but prevents freezing in Winter. The pumping end of the system is installed in a small pumphouse in the rear and is automatic in operation.

W. H. EDWARDS—THE G-B MAN—SAYS:
MILWAUKIE, Or., May 14, 1912.
Gentlemen: I am more than pleased with the Mitchell-Leader Water System which you installed for me about a year ago. We have cool drinking water at all times and are able to enjoy the conveniences of the bath, washroom and other modern water fixtures. The system needs no attention, except for an occasional oiling, as it works automatically, keeping up a good pressure at all times and at very little cost. We cannot recommend it too highly. Yours truly,
W. H. EDWARDS.
