

W. HILL AND PARTY WILL PUT 1 DAY AT SEASIDE

Distinguished Men in Special Train of Rail Chief Then to Be Guests of Portland on Monday and Tuesday.

Louis W. Hill's Missouri special carrying a party of the prominent rail builders and business men of the western states will leave Seattle this evening and arrive at Willits at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning. Willits is the station from which the train to the North Beach track connects with that of the Astoria branch, and there the train will be started at once for Seaside. Where the party will pass Sunday.

Late tomorrow night the train will embark on the steamer Bear as guests of honor to meet Rex Ferguson, who will come up the river on the steamer Maryland. Then will follow luncheon with the Progressive Business Men's club at the Multnomah hotel, and in the afternoon the members of the party will have the freedom of the city. At 8:30 there will be a reception at the Commercial club to be followed by a dinner at 8. At 9:30 the party will attend the performance of the "Bridges of the Gods."

May Stay for Parade.

Tuesday morning the visitors may follow no set program until 2 o'clock, when they will be given an automobile ride through the east side of the city. The plans for the party to depart for St. Paul in the afternoon, but it is possible that they will remain through Tuesday evening to see the electric parade, one of the biggest features of the Rose Festival.

At Seaside tomorrow the party will enjoy a big clam bake at Hotel Moore, and some of them probably will also take a dip in the ocean.

Heading the big caravan are Louis W. Hill of the Missouri Pacific and the Great Northern, President Carl R. Gray of the Great Northern, and Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific. President Joseph H. Young of the Hill lines in Oregon and W. E. Coman, general freight and passenger agent, left here yesterday for Seattle, to return in charge of the train.

At Seattle the party put in three days attending the convention of the Northwest Development league, one of the biggest meetings of its kind ever held in the United States or anywhere in the world. A number of Oregon delegates attended the convention, prominent among them being President James J. Kerr of Oregon Agricultural college, William Burns, president of the Central Oregon Development league, and C. C. Chapman, secretary of the Oregon Development league and manager of the promotion department of the Portland Commercial club.

Oregon made a good showing at the Northwest Development league convention, just held at Seattle, and this state received lots of recognition from the league," said C. C. Chapman, who returned this morning.

Oregon to Benefit.

Mr. Chapman was elected a member of the executive committee of the league and William Hanley of Burns was elected vice president.

The thorough organization of the commercial interests of Oregon was chiefly responsible for the recognition received, said Mr. Chapman. "The whole aim of this league is a more thorough cooperation of the Northwest states for the benefit of all. Oregon had 40 delegates in attendance.

"The northern transcontinental lines are strongly in favor of this plan of development and are anxious to have this whole territory developed. Naturally, they will work hardest for those sections which are active in this movement. Oregon, having a more thorough state organization than any other section of the Pacific Northwest is naturally in line for very strong assistance from these lines.

"The impression prevails in some quarters that this league contemplates a pooling of the development funds and that the whole will be expended under the league's direction. This is not the case, there being no proposal of this kind at all. Each state directs the expenditure of its own development funds as it sees fit. Minnesota, the Dakotas and Montana are very strong for exhibits in the Middle Western land shows and they have obtained good results."

TO ELEVATE INTAKE AT BULL RUN HEADWORKS

Immediate expenditure of approximately $100,000 in elevating the intake at the Bull Run headworks to a height of 36 feet above the present level will be ordered by the city water board as the result of an automobile inspection trip to the headworks yesterday by Mayor Rushlight, Superintendent Dodge and Chief Engineer Clarke of the water department, and Water Commissioners MacKay, Alsworth and Winn.

"The improvement at the intake of the new pipe line is necessary," said Mayor Rushlight today. "In order to provide an additional fall and increased pressure. The elevation of the intake will greatly aggrandize the efficiency of the water system."

The mayor and officials of the water board also investigated a number of sites for the proposed location of a storage reservoir to be used in emergencies. The location has practically been decided upon, but it will not be made public at this time, as efforts are being made to secure options.

GIRLS TO DISTRIBUTE SUFFRAGE ARGUMENTS

At the close of early mass in the Catholic churches of the city tomorrow morning, young girls standing at the doors of the churches will distribute literature for women suffrage, giving the opinions of prominent Catholics of Oregon and California.

This distribution will be in charge of Mrs. Ringrose and her sister, Mrs. Mendenhall, prominent suffragists from California, who are aiding in the Oregon campaign.

DEFINITE PAVING POLICY IS LIKELY

Council Committee Would Let Citizens Have Hard Surface They Ask For.

If the recommendations of the city engineer to the street committee of the city council yesterday in a letter submitted to that body, are followed in the future, a definite policy in the matter of awarding contracts for paving improvements will be established and many of the petty squabbles that have been the rule in the past will be eliminated.

The engineer's letter was in response to a request from the committee that he report on the desirability of ordering Westrumite, a new and untried hard surface, as far as this city is concerned, to be laid on nine streets in Kenton.

Bids for the improvement of these streets with suitable pavement were invited by the council several months ago, but although a majority of the property owners affected petitioned for Westrumite, the councilmen have been unwilling to let the contracts for that material when other kinds of well tried pavement can be laid for practically the same amount of money.

The engineer's letter was in response to a request from the committee that he report on the desirability of ordering Westrumite, a new and untried hard surface, as far as this city is concerned, to be laid on nine streets in Kenton.

PASTOR BRANDS STORY AS FALSE

Dr. Benj. Young Returns From Church Meeting With Denial of Tobacco Yarn.

Dr. Benjamin Young, pastor of Taylor Street M. E. church, returned this morning from the general conference of the church just closed in Minneapolis. Dr. and Mrs. Young returned through Canada and were delayed over 24 hours by wrecks.

"I am glad to return to Portland and my friends," said Dr. Young. "I would rather have the good will and love of the members of my church and my fellow townsmen than any office in the gift of the church.

"The story in regard to my using tobacco, which was used against me in the election of bishop, I have run down and I know the man who started it. I have also found witnesses who heard him tell the story. What I shall do about it I do not know. I feel very sorry for the man if he did it unwillingly, for his conscience must trouble him. The story was discredited completely. The story was unfair and unjust.

"I made many friends and people were most kind to me. My supporters were most loyal and still remain so. Since the incident I have received many expressions of friendship which were most sincere. Many both in and out of my church in Portland sent messages and telegrams to me. I did it unwillingly, for his conscience must trouble him. The story was discredited completely. The story was unfair and unjust.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY STUDENTS GRADUATE

The largest class of academic students in the history of St. Mary's academy and college received diplomas from Archbishop Christie at Christensen's hall last night. The charge to the class was made by Rev. Joseph J. Gallagher, president of Columbia university. A musical program by members of the academy completed the exercises.

The alumni medal for English prose composition was awarded to Miss Irene Louise Wheelage of Portland and the Archbishop Christie medal for general excellence in scholarship among the undergraduates was awarded to Miss Josephine Wagner.

But one college graduate, Miss Ethel Marsh, received a diploma. The degree of bachelor of arts was conferred upon her.

The academic graduates, numbering 22, were: Agnes Aloysia Albers, Adel Margaret Barnickel, Mary Theresa Clancy, Mary Ellen Condon, Katherine Dooling, Daphne Henderson, Helen Patricia Hogan, Helen Henrietta Hughes, Matilda Dorothy Jennings, Claire Marie Kremer, Miriam Lenore McDonnell, Elma Augusta Paulsen, Mary Gertrude Sillinski, Isabel Margaret Smith, Edna Henrietta Venator, Irene Louise Wheelage, all of Portland; Gladys Rae Colby, Heppner, Or.; Marion Grant, Colville, Wash.; Grace Margaret Hirschbuhl, Vancouver, Wash.; Rose May McCarthy, Portsmouth, Or.; Mabel Alma Wagon, Gardiner, Or.

$10,000 TO ALTENHEIM IS PIONEER'S BEQUEST

A gift of $10,000 was left to "Altenheim," the home for aged Germans, by George Stehneke, pioneer settler, who died yesterday at St. Vincent's hospital. For years Stehneke was a partner of H. M. Mergens in a grocery at 46 Sixth street, to whom he left all the stock. He has no relatives.

Early last March Stehneke began failing in health, whereupon he had his will drawn by the law firm of Schinabel & LeRoche, the estate amounting to $12,000. He expressly desired in his later years that his property be left to some charitable organization. With the organization of the German society operating the "Altenheim" a few months ago, he considered this home the kind of institution that he wished to assist. Stehneke came to Portland when 15 years of age. He was 88 years old at his death. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Erlerson's undertaking parlors.

Minister Charged With Murder

Now-Sweden, Maine, June 3.—Charged with the murder of Edgar Jacobson, his father-in-law, nearly a year ago, the Rev. Charles Emelius, Lutheran minister, was arrested here today. At the time of his death, June 15, 1911, the authorities declared that Jacobson had committed suicide.

ARREST MAY REVEAL PLOT

Sam Kraemer Taken for Extortion; Marked Bills Found.

Sam Kraemer, whose name has been mentioned more times than that of any other in alleged grafting for the protection of magistrates and the undesirable element, was taken into custody at 1 o'clock today on an extortion charge by Detectives Mahoney and Swensen in room 2 of the Coast hotel, at Second and Burnside streets. In the room with Kraemer when taken by the detectives were Harry Harris, proprietor of the hotel, and Sam Gross of 311 Front street, and Max Magman of 299 Clay street.

In the possession of Harris was found $50 in marked money, which Gross and Magman had just paid to Kraemer, and which it is claimed was passed from Kraemer to Harris when the police detectives approached the room.

The marked money, which is the property of Detective Swensen, was furnished to the two men this morning and the attorney had been notified that a demand had been made on Gross and Magman for $50 each for the protection of the two places where they live, the demand having been made by Kraemer, who threatened that the place would be stopped if the money was not forthcoming by noon today.

The two men, followed by the detectives, went to the Coast hotel and entered room 2, where, after a conference lasting for some time, the proceedings were stopped by the demand of the police for admittance.

Following their removal to police headquarters, Deputy District Attorney Hennessey was called into a conference and the stories of each man was told. The state's attorney in this afternoon preparing the charges against the men, and all will be held under very heavy bail. It is declared that this arrest will lead to the arrest of higher up officials to whom the money was to be distributed.

A complaint charging Kraemer with grand larceny is being made out this afternoon in order that he may be held until the meeting of the next grand jury.

HUNGRY FOLK TO BE FED BY SUFFRAGISTS

Food for the hungry will be dispensed from a six ton Speedwell truck each noon by workers for woman suffrage during the Rose Festival and the proceeds will be added to the funds for the coming campaign. The truck has been donated to the campaign committee of the Woman's club, and will be decorated with charming matrons and maids. The invitation to step up and patronize the stand will be given by Attorney "Pike" Davis, who will dispense eloquence from the rear of the machine. Another "Votes for Women" banner will be on some prominent corner from 11 to 2 o'clock each day, beginning Monday.

Sandwiches, doughnuts, tea cream cones, pop, fruit and other dainties will be sold by charming matrons and maids. The invitation to step up and patronize the stand will be given by Attorney "Pike" Davis, who will dispense eloquence from the rear of the machine. Another "Votes for Women" banner will be on some prominent corner from 11 to 2 o'clock each day, beginning Monday.

The sandwiches are to be prepared at a kitchen offered the committee on North Fifth street. Each sandwich will be wrapped in waxed paper. Banners are practically all donated, as well as the services of the workers.

Prominent business men have agreed to buy lunch at the auto stand and every effort will be made to serve all who come. "The women take this method of advertising their cause, that the multitude unable to get service in regular restaurants owing to the jam need not go hungry.

A special permit, to extend through the Elks' room was given the committee by the city. During the reunion the committee plans to serve luncheon on a far greater scale.

MYSTIC ORDER OF BAGMEN IN CHARGE

With the closing of the business sessions of the Grand Council of the United Commercial Travelers who are convening in this city, last Wednesday afternoon, the Ancient Mystic Order of Bagmen, a branch order of the traveling men's organization, took charge of the sessions held this morning in the Selling-Hirsch building. George B. Dunn, of Seattle, presided and took charge of the work of the installation of the officers. Reports of committees of the branch organization were heard, and resolutions were adopted by the Tillikum Guilds of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia for payment of a fund to cover burial expenses of any deceased member.

The invitation sent by the Spokane Council of United Commercial Travelers that the members attend the grand reunion and jubilee at the meeting of the Grand Council to be held in Spokane next year, was accepted.

The session of the Grand Council of the travelers, held yesterday afternoon, was given over to the election of officers, and the selection of Spokane as the city where the meetings will be held next year. The women spent the afternoon in riding about the city in automobiles. In the evening an entertainment was held in the Murlark hall, where a good program was rendered.

Tonight all the members of the U. C. T. will be present at a reception and ball to take place in the Multnomah hotel.

MOTOR BOAT CLUB NOT TO PARADE ON RIVER

"Not because of any hard feelings or desire to lessen the brilliancy of the water parades or the welcome of the king, but because the Rose Festival association took charge of preparations for the water events and because the prizes offered were not of a nature to attract formal and vigorous competition, the Portland Motor Boat club as a club will not enter into any of the water features of the Rose Festival."

This is the gist of a statement made today by Commodore G. W. Root and

BOY MAYOR ELECTION WILL CLOSE TODAY

Promptly at 8 o'clock this afternoon the polls will close in the contest for boy mayor, and after they have once closed they couldn't be pried open again with a $100 bill. So it behooves all supporters of favorite candidates to get their votes in early in the day. This was the word given out this morning by Dorr E. Keassey and E. B. Brown, who have been in charge of the campaign for the youngsters.

The big rush to get in votes began this morning in earnest, though many of the candidates are holding back their sheets of ballots to spring at the last moment. The morning was featured by the sport made by Max Swerdlik, new boy candidate, who polled something like 2000 votes, which is a record away from Leighton Steel, whom he is now leading by a few votes. Steel, Swerdlik, Nate Lippman, Jake Levin and Dave Cohen are all running strong, with several dark horses in prospect for the last moment.

CHIEF COUNSEL FOR O-W. R. & N. RETURNS

W. W. Cotton, chief counsel for the O-W. R. & N. company, returned last night, accompanied by Mrs. Cotton, from a tour of Europe. Mr. Cotton is now in the best of health. He spent a few months at his office in the Wells Fargo building this morning and then went to his summer home at Greaham. He will resume active work Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotton traveled leisurely, but visited many of the principal places of interest in Europe. They came back satisfied that Portland as a city possesses many beauties and advantages found in few places.

About 50 friends were at the train last night to meet the returning travelers.

Barber Arrested.

Bert Boylan, a barber, who has a chair in the Portland Waters' club, 143 1/2 Fifth street, was arrested last evening on a warrant secured for his barber inspector on a charge of shaving on Sunday, which is violation of an old state law. The trial will be held next Tuesday afternoon before a jury in the municipal court. The arrest of Boylan, who is said to have accommodated waiters who have worked late on Saturday night, is the first arrest under this old law for at least 11 years, it is said, and presents a unique situation. The penalty is a fine of $10 and a sentence of five days for the first conviction.
