

THE JOURNAL

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER... Published daily except on Sundays and public holidays... Subscription rates: One year $10.00, Six months $6.00, Three months $3.50.

THE ROSE SHOW

PORTLAND is in holiday attire. Nature and man have combined to set the stage for the annual festival. No other better occasion has seen the work better done. The roses were never in greater profusion.

ANOTHER NEW CAPITAL

THE plans of the Indian government for the new capital city at Delhi are taking shape. The viceroy, Lord Hardinge, announced just recently that he had selected the site.

SIDE LIGHT ON HOME RULE

IN the days of the militant home rulers Lord Frederick Cavendish was sent to Ireland as a messenger of peace. He and his colleagues were shot down in Phoenix Park, Dublin, by an assassin on the day of their arrival.

SEVEN THOUSAND CHILDREN

CAN better gardens be grown in a city than in the country? It is claimed that the vegetables grown by school pupils within the city limits of Portland this season are better than those produced by the children of the country schools.

TOKAY GRAPES IN OREGON

OF all the table grapes the Tokay is king. Largest in berry, most distinctive in flavor and aroma, a prolific bearer, yielding massive and shapely bunches, beautiful in its golden green tint when fully ripe.

COLUMBUS

IN the hurly-burly of politics little notice has been taken of the unveiling on Saturday last at Washington of the national monument to Columbus.

In Baseball Language

From Kansas City Star. There are some things, after all, for the readers who tire of politics to be thankful for. If, for instance, editorial writers grant the liberty of the English language which appears to be guaranteed under the constitution to baseball reporters, you might have to read something like this: 'My, my, that person is some dangerous citizen for the administration team. They thought he couldn't come back after being out of the game for four seasons. That was the dope fruits of hard work and indomitable energy and patience. Any one can experiment on a small scale—It takes a master hand to inaugurate and solidify found a new industry.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY

HERE is according to the New York World more discussion of the vice presidency than ever. There is a movement to name Senator O'Gorman of New York as the running mate in case Bryan is nominated at Baltimore.

A COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

NO national Republican convention in history assembled under such remarkable circumstances as that which is to convene Tuesday of next week. No convention of that party has convened with party allegiance under such a strain.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

SEVEN ECCENTRIC WOMEN

Charlotte Cibber was one of the most eccentric women who ever lived and her life disasters were due to her deplorable tendency to throw off all restraint and to follow her inclination toward unusual adventures.

ALWAYS IN GOOD HUMOR

REFINED ATHLETIC. From the Washington Star. "There is a great deal more refinement in athletics than there used to be."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The man who abuses his home town injures himself. A man minus a group of some kind misses a lot of fun.

MARCHING ON

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for.

100 violations of every law of health and public decency and it ought to be $0,100 violations of statute law.

SMALL CHANGE

The same Rose City. If the earth is the Lord's, it is supposed with absolute lordship.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

SEVEN ECCENTRIC WOMEN

Charlotte Cibber was one of the most eccentric women who ever lived and her life disasters were due to her deplorable tendency to throw off all restraint and to follow her inclination toward unusual adventures.

ALWAYS IN GOOD HUMOR

REFINED ATHLETIC. From the Washington Star. "There is a great deal more refinement in athletics than there used to be."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The man who abuses his home town injures himself. A man minus a group of some kind misses a lot of fun.

MARCHING ON

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for.

100 violations of every law of health and public decency and it ought to be $0,100 violations of statute law.

SMALL CHANGE

The same Rose City. If the earth is the Lord's, it is supposed with absolute lordship.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

SEVEN ECCENTRIC WOMEN

Charlotte Cibber was one of the most eccentric women who ever lived and her life disasters were due to her deplorable tendency to throw off all restraint and to follow her inclination toward unusual adventures.

ALWAYS IN GOOD HUMOR

REFINED ATHLETIC. From the Washington Star. "There is a great deal more refinement in athletics than there used to be."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The man who abuses his home town injures himself. A man minus a group of some kind misses a lot of fun.

MARCHING ON

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for.

100 violations of every law of health and public decency and it ought to be $0,100 violations of statute law.

SMALL CHANGE

The same Rose City. If the earth is the Lord's, it is supposed with absolute lordship.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

SEVEN ECCENTRIC WOMEN

Charlotte Cibber was one of the most eccentric women who ever lived and her life disasters were due to her deplorable tendency to throw off all restraint and to follow her inclination toward unusual adventures.

ALWAYS IN GOOD HUMOR

REFINED ATHLETIC. From the Washington Star. "There is a great deal more refinement in athletics than there used to be."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The man who abuses his home town injures himself. A man minus a group of some kind misses a lot of fun.

MARCHING ON

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for.

100 violations of every law of health and public decency and it ought to be $0,100 violations of statute law.

SMALL CHANGE

The same Rose City. If the earth is the Lord's, it is supposed with absolute lordship.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

SEVEN ECCENTRIC WOMEN

Charlotte Cibber was one of the most eccentric women who ever lived and her life disasters were due to her deplorable tendency to throw off all restraint and to follow her inclination toward unusual adventures.

ALWAYS IN GOOD HUMOR

REFINED ATHLETIC. From the Washington Star. "There is a great deal more refinement in athletics than there used to be."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The man who abuses his home town injures himself. A man minus a group of some kind misses a lot of fun.

MARCHING ON

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for.

100 violations of every law of health and public decency and it ought to be $0,100 violations of statute law.

SMALL CHANGE

The same Rose City. If the earth is the Lord's, it is supposed with absolute lordship.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Articles and questions for this page should be written on only one side of the paper and be accompanied by the writer's name. The name will not be published, but is desired as an indication of good faith.

SEVEN ECCENTRIC WOMEN

Charlotte Cibber was one of the most eccentric women who ever lived and her life disasters were due to her deplorable tendency to throw off all restraint and to follow her inclination toward unusual adventures.

ALWAYS IN GOOD HUMOR

REFINED ATHLETIC. From the Washington Star. "There is a great deal more refinement in athletics than there used to be."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The man who abuses his home town injures himself. A man minus a group of some kind misses a lot of fun.

MARCHING ON

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for.

PRINCIPAL Gossip

Atlanta Journal: Of all the results thus far recorded in the pre-convention contest, none perhaps is so noteworthy and significant as Governor Wilson's achievement in Ohio. Despite the fact that he made no campaign whatever in that state and declined to make any personal appeal for his support against Governor Hiramson, he was accorded by the people themselves 10 of the 41 district delegates; and, contrary to the report that he will lose these delegates in the national convention because of the application of the unit rule, he will retain them every one and they will be toward increasing his already substantial lead.

PRINCIPAL Gossip

Summing up results, we find that within the past few days Governor Wilson has been assigned an average of 40 delegates from Texas at least 25 from New Jersey, 24 from Minnesota and 20 from Ohio—a total of 119. In addition to these he has 118 additional delegates, thus giving him a total of all fairly ones if he can. Besides these, he has 11 other votes assured on the first ballot and so that may be considered reasonably certain on the second ballot—an aggregate of 317 or more than any of his opponents.

PRINCIPAL Gossip

Leviathan (Idaho) Tribune: Most of Mr. Taft's delegates are from southern states, which will cast no electoral vote for the nominee of the convention, who will be as good as dead. Such delegates can exert no moral influence in the campaign which follows the convention, they are half inclined to regard themselves as mere pawns in the game, passive agents in the hands of the strategists. It is not love of principle, but of self, that governs them when they arrive on the scene of a national convention, and they feel that they are absolved of all instructions by the instructions of their own consciences. It is not love of principle, but of self, that governs them when they arrive on the scene of a national convention, and they feel that they are absolved of all instructions by the instructions of their own consciences.

PRINCIPAL Gossip

From the Boston Transcript. Little Dorothy was having her first experience of riding in a steeper. She was in a lower berth with her mother and she asked so many questions that she had to be told to keep quiet. "Just one more, mamma," coaxed the little miss. "Well, child, what is it?" "Who has the flat above us?"

PRINCIPAL Gossip

From the Boston Transcript. Jack—Are you sure that I am the only man you ever really and truly loved? Ethel—Perfectly sure, dear. I went over to the whole list only yesterday.

PRINCIPAL Gossip

From the Yonkers Statesman. "Going to march on, and stretch your legs?" asked the traveling man of his companion, as the train stopped. "What place is it?" inquired the other. "Chicago."

PRINCIPAL Gossip

My sisters want to vote today but they are in despair! The lady barber didn't come in time to fix their hair—they want to help the uplift, but they don't know who to vote for. Some vital issues are at stake and every girl should vote; but should she venture to the polls in common walking coat? Perhaps 'twere better to wear the new style redingote, the girls are marching on! The ballot is a sacred thing, and when that boon is hers, the bones of ancient prejudice will shade their sepulchers; but should she take her parasol or wear her winter fur? The girls are marching on! The right to vote, my sisters say, "is quite too sweet, we wist; it is a wholesome pastime that we long have sorely missed; for we have soured on crokinole and we are tired of whist." The girls are marching on! I ask my sisters how they'd vote if they should vote today; and this is what they say: "We'd vote how Mrs. Jimson votes, then vote the other way." The girls are marching on!