THREE WHITE PELICANS VISIT WALDPORT BEACH

Waldport, Or. June 12-Harbingers Waldport, Or. June 12—Harbingers of good fishing season arrived Monday in the form, of three immense snow white pelicans, which spent an hour or so in dignified pose upon a sirip of sand in the harbor. With the excep-tion of one ione stray that visited the Yachats a number of years ago, the white pelican has never been seen here, so far as can be ascertained. Fisherat Chicago.

The association has succeeded in creating a great deal of interest and has been able to accomplish some very creditable results. A notable incident was the recovering for the Thatche district of $666 of special tax money which had in some manner not yet saf isfactorily explained been returned to the general road tax fund. While the shortage of the special tax fund was generally known no action was secured intil the association took the matter up and appointed a committee of in-vestigation. This committee found that a warrant for $1000 mid been issued by the county court on the Thatcher district special tax fund in favor of two bullet wounds in the head, inflicted, the county clerk and that the clerk had paid out of this amount bills totaling $334, and then turned the bal ance back to the general road fund. The value of the organization is apparent in the promptness with which the $666 was returned to the Thatcher special tax fund after the investigators got to work.

The organization favors a more gen eral use of the road grader to the end that roads he better rounded up in the center and good drainage provided and a more general use of the road drag in the winter season secured.
