Accused Poisoner of Cashier Christensen Predicts Acquittal; Dead Banker Said to Have Been Drug User.

Special to the Journal. (Special to the Journal.) Pasco, Wash., June 17.—That Henry Christensen was an habitual user of strychnine and probably took an overdose, is the contention of his wife. She says she believes Gary is innocent. She admits domestic differences which she says were due to Christensen's alleged friendship for another Pasco woman. She is under surveillance.

FESTIVAL CHORUS TO GIVE ANOTHER CONCERT

Monday night the Rose Musical Festival chorus will give another concert with a hope of raising money to cover as much as possible of the deficit resulting from the small attendance at the five concerts, the last of which was given yesterday afternoon in the Gilpin Smith auditorium. The deficit amounts to more than $2000.

Manager Albert Ehrhart, acting for the Oregon State Sunday School association, says that the outstanding bills will have to be met and that he will sell his home if necessary to pay them. He says he is in honor bound to see that no bills are left unpaid.

The concert yesterday afternoon drew about 2500 people but as the general admission was only 25 cents it swelled the fund only with $322.75. The concert was as pleasing as those given before, the big mixed chorus and the chorus of school children singing splendidly under the direction of Frederick Elmer Chapman, in charge of the department of music of the public schools of Portland.

Monday night's program will be given in entirety, as now arranged, by the chorus.

DECORATIONS GLISTEN AS BRILLIANTLY AS BEFORE SHOWER

Those who expected the decorations of the streets to be drabbed and dreary this morning after the rain of last night were pleasantly surprised when they looked at them today. None of the decorations put up by the city had lost any of their brightness. None of the colors had "run." Some of the decorations for the buildings, being of a cheaper nature, had suffered a bit of damage. Flags, pennants and bunting, generally used in decorations this year, are of material that will keep their bright until after the national convention in July. They can be washed if necessary. The only damage reported was to the decorations at Seventh and Morrison streets, where a short circuit in the lighting fixtures set the flags on fire.

brush with Rober, the executive officer, whom he relieved from duty for insubordination, and his rout of Simpson, Shepherd was undisputed captain of the Boston. His orders as captain were obeyed by the perplexed crew, who with two different commanding officers in 30 minutes didn't know what to do.

The next move will be up to Governor West. It is said on good authority that had Shepherd gone first to the governor and presented his court order to him, it would have been recognized and the governor would have commissioned him captain. Since yesterday's events, however, it is not known what the governor will do.

Excellent authority has it that he probably will recognize the validity of the court order, but immediately thereafter will issue an order of his own relieving Shepherd from active duty and putting him under waiting orders. An inferior officer would then be named to command the Boston, and Shepherd would be left waiting, according to this version.

If you want to post your friends on the Rose Festival and Portland, send The Journal for one week during the Festival; 15 cents for the week, including postage.

(United Press Lined Wire.) St. Paul, Minn., June 17.—One of the important measures to be enacted by the special session of the Minnesota legislature, called together today, is a bill similar to the "blue sky" statute which has been so successful in protecting the people of Kansas against "wild cat" investments.

AUTO PARADE IS ACME OF BEAUTY; 200,000 LOOK ON

(Continued From Page One.) Portland Railway, Light and Power company were especially noticeable. Striving for the prizes offered by the parade committee, clubs, societies and fraternal orders were distinctively represented. The car entered by the Progressive Business Men's club and occupied with its officers, clothed in white suits, was particularly noticeable. The line of march for this afternoon's parade was so arranged that the Eleventh and Taylor street grandstand was included. All of the principal business streets were traversed. The parade crossed the Morrison bridge in Grand avenue on the west side took a turn on Union avenue, came back by Burnside bridge, then wound like a great, vividly colored serpent through Pine, Third, Fourth, Morrison, Sixth, Stark and Thirteenth streets, where the parade was scheduled to disband.

TO GROW HAIR ON A BALD HEAD

By a Specialist. Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless, the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 4 ounces, Lavona de Composee, 2 ounces, Mental Crystal, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of Toilet Perfume, which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.

Portland's Six Choicest and Highest Priced Residential Sites Now Ready to Be Sold

MANY men having something to sell seek to impress you with the low price of that article. My purpose is to tell you not how cheap, but how good my proposition is.

I Have Six Sites to Sell

These constitute all of Block 9, Westover Terraces, and are the six most desirable residential sites in the City of Portland. The smallest one contains 10,000 square feet (about 70x150 feet) and the largest 15,000 square feet (about 116x130 feet). The view from these sites is the finest to be enjoyed in the entire Northwest. At the base of Westover Terraces is Nob Hill, with its costly homes; then Portland with its restless commercial activity merging into the charm of residential beauty across the Willamette. In the far distance is seen the mighty Columbia on its way to the ocean. Still beyond and framing this unparalleled panorama are snow-capped peaks and mountain ranges. All a picture unusual in its beauty and confined in its entirety to Westover Terraces. This magnificent property is
