SAYS SKAMANIA SHERIFF WAS SLOW

(Special to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or. June 12 .- For more then a month the sheriff of this county has been on the lookout for F. M. Hapgood, a resident of Skamania county, who is wanted here on a charge of testing a check on the bank of Stevenson when he did not have sufficient funds in the bank. The sheriff here believes Stapgood might have been brought to justice a mouth ago had the sheriff of Skamania county been a little more alert. On October 20, 1911. Hapgood gave a check on the Stevenson bank to Al Nelson, a business man of this city, and when the check was returned "not paid for want of funds," Mr. Nelson began corresponding with Hapgood try-ing to induce him to deposit funds to protect the check. Not being able to nduce Hapgood to redeem the check, Nelson on May 7 last swore to a complaint charging Hapgood with obtaining money by false pretenses. A warfor Hapgood's arrest, was given to the sheriff. He telephoned to Sheriff Knox of Skamania county, asking him to arrest Hapgood, but the Skamania county efficer did not do so. Before Sheriff Chrisman of this county could make other arrangements for his arrest Hapgood got out of the country. Hapgood pretended while here to be

KELLY DID NOT SEE PARADE, FOR KELLY WAS IN JAIL; TRA LA

Where's Kelly? Why, he-that is George H. Kelly-managed to get out of jail all right, but he had to stay behind the bars long enough to miss the auto parade yesterday. Along with him was Russell Hawkins. The millionaire duet were arrested yesterday just before the parade Lindsay, Cal., June M.—Seized with violent fit of coughing, Mrs. J. A. started for impersonating police officers. They had walked down to the Imperial hotel with Mayor Rushlight, who had slipped a policeman's badge Hawkins and pockets. Kelly thought it would be some fun to order the crowd around and they were soon clearing aisles through the side lines at a great rate. The mayor stepped quietly to a telephone booth and called up the police

"Send up the patrol wagon and half a dozen men," ordered the executive. "There are two men out here on the street trying to impersonate police officers." The wagon drew up to the curb anon and Kelly and Hawkins were hustled unceremoniously into it and dispatched to the police station amid the delighted hoots and jeers of thousands. The mayor was one of the thousands.

When they arrived at the station they explained in vain that the mayor, himself, had given them the stars. They were thrown behind the bars and kept there until after the big parade had disbanded. Kelly says he will and must have revenge.

WITH VISIT TO CITY

L. W. Hill and party of men of prominence from Minnesota, Montana and the Dakotas, left Tuesday night for St. Paul, after what they proclaimed a most pleasant visit in the Rose City.

Tuesday afternoon those of the party who found time were given another automobile ride about the country to the east of the city, and they were immensely pleased with what they saw. E. C. Leedy, chief immigration man of the Great Northern; F. W. Graham, industrial agent for the same road, and party went as far as Troutdale, following the Columbia river road, and returning by way of the Base Line road, and they were more than favorably impressed with the country surrounding

"Portland should have the finest of milk supply of any city in the world," said Mr. Leedy, "with such splendid opportunity for dairying at her very doors. It is an industry that should be more developed, for everything seems favor-

ELECTRICAL MEN TO SPEND DAY IN CITY

Two or three hundred eastern delegates who have been attending the National Electric Light convention in Sewill arrive in Portland Friday night and Saturday morning. The local Electric clubs have planned many interesting things for their entertainment. The Multnomah hotel will be the headquarters. Following breakfast, the visitors will be given the choice of several rides. A trip to Estacada, over the O. W. P., another journey to the Sandy river over the Mt. Hood line, a boat ride down the Willamette river to Oregon City, and an observation car ride in and about Portland. In the party coming to Portland are the leading representatives of the electric industry, from the manufacturing as well as the light producing standpoint B. S. Josselyn, president, and F. W. Hild, general manager of the P. R., L. & P. company, returned this morning from attendance upon the
