THOSE who came across the plains to Oregon in the '30s and '40s will gather this week to renew old acquaintances, to tell over again the stories of the hardships of early days, of their fights with the Indians, of the "blazing of the trail."

This is Pioneer Week at Oregon's Pioneer Store. On Thursday, June 20, the Oregon Pioneer Society holds its fortieth annual reunion at the Masonic Temple. We cordially invite our old friends, many of whom were personally acquainted with Aaron Meier, founder of The Meier & Frank Company in 1857, to visit the store this week.
