SUMMER RESORT SUBSCRIPTIONS

Don't forget when going away for your vacation or for the summer, that the Journal can follow you at all times a week, the regular subscription rates, and the following agents will supply you at our regular rates.

TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS

HEILIG—Henrietta Crossman, in 'The Baker'—Baker Stock company in 'The Blue Mouse'.

Weather Conditions.—Portland and vicinity—Fair tonight and Saturday; warmer Saturday; southwesterly winds.

For Girls' Home $500.—The sale of flowers during the Rose Festival for the purpose of raising money to cancel the debt which hangs over the Maude B. Booth Home for working girls, 13 East Seventh street North, netted the Volunteers of America, who are in charge of the home, $508.

May Prefer Charges.—Charges may be made before the police commissioners against Patrolman Wardle, growing out of the invasion of the patrolman into the apartments of E. W. Jackson of the Jackson apartments on the east side.

Recovering From Wounds.—Sergeant E. V. Peachin, of the police department, who has been in the hospital for several weeks suffering from two bullet wounds in the head which were inflicted by his wife, is so much improved that he is now able to be wheeled about in a chair and attend to his chair and his ultimate recovery is now almost assured.

Man Absent, But Sentenced.—C. H. Perry, an alleged bank robber, who was arrested during the Rose Festival and sentenced to 90 days in the city jail, was admitted to the police station today.

Said He Was Beating Dog.—Henry J. Hocksmith, a resident of Walnut Park, was chasing his dog with a razor strap Wednesday, and had just raised the strap to strike the dog, when his wife suddenly stepped in the way and received the blow intended for the dog.

Protest Against License.—In spite of the fact that G. W. Durham, a former partner of P. V. W. Fry in the real estate business, appeared before the council license committee yesterday and protested against any license being granted Fry, the committee took no action.

Denies Domestic Trouble.—E. W. Freeman denies that there was trouble between himself and wife, who disappeared last Tuesday from his home, 161 Griswold avenue, after leaving in the house three notes intimating that she would soon commit suicide.

Not One of Joy Riders.—One of four joy riders who were arrested Tuesday night and fined in the police court gave the name of Vida Graham, and Miss Vida Graham of 211 East Twelfth, is present there.

Must Hire Three Men.—Ben Urfer, proprietor of a saloon at 171 First street, was this morning fined $100 by Judge Taylor for hiring three piece orchestra in his saloon instead of a two piece orchestra, which is a violation of the city ordinance.

Appears Too Late.—A fine of $25 was yesterday imposed on George Simpson, a rooming house keeper, who was arrested on a charge of assault and battery after the man's bail of $100 had been declared forfeited on account of non-appearance in court at the proper time.

Knighthood Conferred.—William Peat, British member of the firm of Marwick, Mitchell, Peat & Co., chartered accountants, who have an office in Portland, was one of those honored by having a knighthood conferred on him by King George recently, according to word received here.

Y. M. C. A. Auto School.—Owners, operators and prospective purchasers of automobiles can become skillful in the operation of their cars and save money on their repair bills by taking a course in the Y. M. C. A. auto school.

Invents Machine Clamps.—John Harkness, 254 North Union avenue, has invented an inexpensive device for holding forms in place on concrete columns.

Boy Fined $20.—Jack Schmidt, one of the gang of boys which has been annoying the landlady of the Merced apartment house, at Twentieth and Washington streets, and who was said to have posed as a private detective, much to the annoyance of young women in the house, was yesterday arrested on a disorderly conduct charge by Patrolman Coulter. The boy was fined $20.

Spat on Wife's Clothing.—Spitting tobacco on his wife's clothes was a habit with Ernest Miller, alleges Mrs. Miller in her cross complaint filed today in the circuit court to Miller's suit for a divorce. This habit was continued until she finally left him. Upon this and other grounds of cruelty, she asks for the decree. They were married in 1891.

Tool Testing a Science.—If you are a user of tools and are interested in the testing of the same, you will enjoy a free practical demonstration to be given by Dr. Cremer, metallurgist and chemist, formerly from the United States Steel company. Demonstration to be given Friday at 8 p. m., Marshall-Wells building, Fifth and Pine streets.

Mazamas to Climb Again Sunday.—The Mazamas will take the 7:50 a. m. train on the O.-W. R. & N. on Sunday for Bonneville, to climb Mount Munray in that vicinity. They will have choice of trains returning to Portland, arriving at either 5:30 or 8 p. m. They will also visit the fish hatcheries at Bonneville.

Would Restrain Litigation.—The Lewis A. Hicks company has filed an injunction suit in the circuit court against the Sullivan Fireproof-Partition company and other concerns restraining further litigation against the Hicks company over questions arising out of the payment of money due the partition company for work done on the new Lincoln high school building. The partition company is a subcontractor, and several firms are claiming money due for materials furnished. The Hicks company claims $277 due the partition company, but is unable to determine whether it should be paid the company or loadsmen.

Notes Cannot Be Found.—Hairs to whom $200 has been left in the will of Mary Hoife cannot be found. Joseph Weornald and A. P. Humphreys are administrators of the estate, while Attorney C. Y. Hize represents the administrators. Efforts to locate the hairs, who are supposed to live in the east, have been unsuccessful by letter and telegraph, so the attorney has asked the court for an order to send a man east to make further search.

Luncheon for Students.—Two hundred Portland business men have been invited to meet 150 students of northern western colleges at luncheon in the Y. M. C. A. next Monday at 1 p. m. The students will bring all the retained friends attendance upon a conference at Columbia Beach.

To Speak on Single Tax.—J. O. Stevan of Beaverton will speak in the Y. M. C. A. hall, tonight at 8 o'clock in reply to the single tax argument of the Honorable William E. U'Ren of Oregon City. Admission is free and women particularly are invited.

Address on Oregon's Progress.—Marshall N. Dana will deliver an address at the Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m. Sunday Pictures will be given showing Oregon's progress. The address will be along the moral and physical development of Oregon.

At the New Grand Theatre, 104 Sixth street, between Washington and Stark, commencing Thursday, June 20, animal-act weekly, showing all the latest events of the world, also great western drama and side splitting comedy. 10c show for 5 cents.

Crawfish in Season Again.—Spiced and cooked in wine, always fresh at Levens Grille. French dinner from 4 to 8. 243 Ash street, opposite Multnomah hotel.

Boosters

My customers often ask me, "To what do you attribute your success as an upstairs clothing store?" My reply is, "I make my customers boost for me by giving them extra good values (my $30 a month rent helps me in this). I also take great care in fitting them." Jimmy Dunn, room 218, Oregonian bldg. Take elevator.

Mrs. Bukner's Death Natural.

(Special to The Journal.) Chehalis, Wash., June 1.—The coroner's jury that investigated the death of Mrs. Katrina Bukner yesterday afternoon found that she died from natural causes. The woman was found lying dead on her bed, partially dressed. Heart disease was probably the cause.

Lot Brings Record Price.

(Special to The Journal.) Hood River, Or., June 21.—The largest city real estate deal made this season was consummated when Captain McCan sold to Schaffner & Adams the corner lot at Third and Oak streets for $21,000. The lot was sold about one year ago for $17,000.

BOTH RAILROADS AGREE TO PLANS MAYOR FRAMED

that street for the reason that it is the thoroughfare along which the transcontinental line of the company enters the heart of the city. But the new agreement, according to report, is that the Hill lines be granted the privilege of using this main line for switching purposes and that the charge therefor be reasonable. The final details of the agreement are still to be worked out, but these, with one more, are the essentials. The only remaining one is a provision whereby the switching charge of $10 a car per cent maintained by the Hartman lines for cars spotted on the east side be absorbed so as to place both railroad systems on an equal basis. This means, if the agreement is carried out, that the east side shipper will be placed on a competing basis with the shipper of the west side.

Does Not Deny Compromise.

Mayor Houghlight has been working to effect a compromise between the two great railroads for many months, and though he absolutely refused to discuss the situation today, saying he had pledged himself to secrecy for the time being, he admitted that he expected to be able to announce in the near future news that would be exceptionally pleasing to the public. President Young of the Hill lines in Oregon said, when interviewed today, that he was not at liberty to discuss what had been the subject of the conference in which he met Mayor Houghlight and Superintendent Campbell of the Hartman railroads. He would not deny, however, that a compromise had been broached, and he admitted that his company would be willing to submit to any fair proposition that would not interfere with the promises the Hill interests have already made to the shipper of the east side.

Sanitarian Farmer Dies of Cancer.

Thomas O. June 22.—J. N. Jones, a farmer in the forks of the Santiam, near Thomas, after a brief illness from cancer of the stomach, died at his home, Sunday morning. He leaves a wife and nine children. Mrs. J. D. Bryant, of Albany.
