...vult men to show their sentiment for the colonel, and the cheering was louder and more connected than when the Hadley demonstration started on Wednesday.
Six minutes after the start of the demonstration the Roosevelt men started a parade through the hall with state standards. Kansas led the procession, and every one of the Roosevelt states fell into line behind. The chant, "We want Teddy," was again brought into play.
The report of the credentials committee has been completed. In every instance the name of the delegates placed on the temporary roll by the national committee was confirmed.
Chicago, Ill., June 22.—That President Taft would be renominated and his running mate selected, following the adoption of a compromise platform, in which concessions would be made to the progressives, and that the fifteenth Republican national convention would adjourn sine die before midnight tonight, was the opinion of nearly every party leader today. Nerves had been frayed by the ordeal and the delegates and visitors alike wanted to get home. But to do so the greatest one day program that ever confronted a national convention is to be carried out. The leaders said they could get through. The delegates hoped this would be possible.
The renomination of the president was conceded by nearly everyone. The big party leaders—Barnes, Root, Crane, McKinley and their associates—raised the president's strength through the state of Washington, which they characterized as only a trifle less flagrant case of grand larceny than the California contests. They would participate in the proceedings no further. But that there was a well organized plan of campaign ready for use in the Roosevelt camp was known to the Taft leaders, and the latter made careful plans to handle anything that might turn up.
Senators La Follette and Cummins were to be presented to the convention. The Taft men insisted the president

ROOSEVELT FORCES AGREE THAT TAFT IS TO GET NOMINATION

Conference Last Night Outlines Program of Mute Protest Against Voting of the Tainted Delegations.

NOMINATION LIKELY BE MADE TONIGHT

Two Votes Only Needed at One Time to Give Honor to Colonel.

By William Allen White. (Copyright, 1912, by the Associated Newspapers.)

Chicago, June 22.—The final program of the Roosevelt forces for the convention was made last night when Colonel Roosevelt, after a two hour conference in his rooms with his friends, decided that so long as the roll was tainted by the 74 delegates seated by the national committee, the colonel would not allow his name to appear before the Republican convention as a candidate.
In the conference, which was of a semi-public nature, were all the governors who have been supporting Colonel Roosevelt, Heney, Pinchot, Beveridge, Garfield, Fort, McCormick, Van Valkenberg, Allen of Kansas, Record, Filion, Cortelyou, Perkins and a score of others. To these men Roosevelt made it clear that he would not accept what he regarded as a tainted nomination, and also that he would oppose any nomination of the convention nominated by the tainted roll. The colonel added that for them to purge the roll and nominate some one else after his name was withdrawn he would regard as a trick. He will not, however, release his delegates.
Roosevelt Plan Is for Silence.
It has been agreed that all Roosevelt delegates shall sit mute in protest as the halting proceeds. His friends, and notably Alexander H. Revel, tried to show the colonel that the convention was practically in a deadlock with his instructed delegates sitting silently, with Cummings and La Follette holding the balance of power, and that Taft would not have a majority. But Roosevelt's contention is that to participate in a convention after the permanent roll had been made up with the stolen delegates upon it, would be to condone a crime.
A formal statement to this effect was given to the delegates this morning before the convention opened. It is not Colonel Roosevelt's idea to release his instructed delegates, but to prevent their participation in what they all regard as fraud. The colonel's instructions, if followed by his delegates, will force the nomination of Taft. Taft's nomination, the colonel's friends believe, will make a third party necessary and its success probable.
Two Votes Control Policy.
Two votes would have swung the control of the convention from Taft to Roosevelt yesterday, even with the stolen delegates all for Taft. And in Taft's majority of 50 were six votes instructed for Roosevelt in Illinois, elected by the primary by 180,000 votes, and two votes from Maryland instructed for Roosevelt by 6000. If these delegates, elected under Roosevelt instructions, had voted with the Roosevelt forces upon the seating of the delegates elected by the California primaries, Roosevelt and not Taft would be in control of the Republican national convention.
The fact that Roosevelt lost the pri-

MILITIA MAY BE CALLED TO CLEAN UP ROADHOUSES

Governor West Announces Laws Governing Questionable Resorts Will Be Enforced at Any Cost.

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.)
Salem, Or., June 22.—Declaring his intention to call out a carefully selected squad of Oregon militia to wage a campaign against immoral roadhouses in Multnomah county, Governor West made the statement today that it is expected to be like the explosion of a bombshell in the camp of law violators.
"I intend to see that roadhouses are quickly, effectively and consistently cleaned out," said Governor West, "not only in Multnomah county, but in every part of the state where officials have failed to enforce the law." He said a law enforcement squad would be made up of carefully selected men, not chosen for their plousness but for their ability to detect and recognize a blind pig, faro game or house of ill repute and then to abolish them. He said if necessary he would lead the squad.
Not Moral Wave.
"This is no moral wave in the execution of the law," he said.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Baltimore, June 22.—Judge Alton B. Parker, named as temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention by the sub-committee of the national convention, will refuse to step aside in order to placate Bryan. A statement to this effect came today from Norman E. Mack, chairman of the national committee, through one of his secretaries.
"Mr. Mack says that Judge Parker is in the fight to stay, and will not withdraw," said the secretary.
New Haven, Conn., June 22.—Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, today sent the following telegram to William J. Bryan at Chicago in answer to Bryan's message concerning the selection of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention at Baltimore:
"Replying to your telegram, it does not seem to me that the course you suggest is the wisest."

HARRIMAN LINES MAY MAINTAIN ORIENTAL SERVICE

Lumber and Flour Shippers Said to Favor Direct Service; Farrell Returns From San Francisco.

President J. D. Farrell and Traffic Manager R. H. Miller of the O-W. R. & N. company, are expected to return in a few days from San Francisco, where it is understood they have been conferring for several days with officials of the Harriman ocean lines in regard to the maintenance of regular steamship service between Portland and the Orient.
It is about a year now since the O-W. R. & N. Co. turned over its oriental lines to the Frank Waterhouse company with headquarters at Seattle and in a short time the charter of the last of three Norwegian liners, the Hercules, will expire. These charters were transferred to the Waterhouse company when the company decided to withdraw for a time at least from the Transpacific field.

PLATFORM IS GIVEN OUT; IT IS FULL OF USUAL PLATTITUDES

Contains General Statements of Former Platforms as to Tariffs, Monopolies and the "Rights of Common People"

DECLARES AGAINST THE JUDICIAL RECALL, MILDLY

Says Republican Party Has Ever Been One of Progress, Not Reaction.

(Special to The Journal.)
Chicago, June 22.—The platform as reported to the convention this afternoon, opens by affirming devotion to government "of the people, by the people and for the people." It declares for a protective tariff, supplementary anti-trust legislation and mildly condemns the recall of judges.
At the outset the platform pays a tribute to Lincoln, expressing pride in the past achievements of the party, and declares:
"It has always been a party of progress, and it has neither been stationary nor reactionary."
Belief is declared in "self controlled representative democracy," and the "principles of constitutional government," upon which the nation has prospered, are praised. Speaking of new problems, it is said:
"It will strive not only in the nation, but in the several states to enact the necessary statutes to safeguard the public health; to limit effectively the labor of women and children, and to protect wage earners engaged in dangerous occupations; to enact comprehensive and generous workmen's compensation laws in place of the present wasteful and unjust system of employers' liability."
In the plank referring to the judiciary, it is declared to be the intention of the party to uphold the integrity of the courts, and legislation is favored to prevent long delay and costly appeals. The platform continues:
"When we regard the recall of judges as unnecessary and unwieldy, we favor such action as may be necessary to simplify the process by which any judge who is found to be deservit in his duty may be removed from office."
The movement for universal peace is praised, without particular reference to peace treaties negotiated by the administration.
"The Republican party is opposed to special privilege and to monopoly," is the opening statement on the trust question. The interstate commerce and Sherman laws are referred to, and it is declared that the party will take no backward step. Additional legislation to supplement the Sherman law is favored to define an criminal offenses those specific acts which mark attempts to monopolize trade. "To the end that those who honestly intend to obey the

GOV. H. L. JOHNSON QUITS CONVENTION BECAUSE OF FRAUD

California Executive Says His Duty to His State Forbids Participation in the Nomination of Taft.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, June 22.—Declaring that the governor of the state of California refused to sit in the Republican national convention and see all the laws of his state overrun, Hiram Johnson walked out of the Coliseum this afternoon. Through Mayer Lissner, of the California delegation, he issued the following statement:
"I shall not sit in this convention during the nomination of a president, nor shall I consider myself in any manner bound by its acts."
"Not only was the fraudulent roll foisted upon us to defeat the will of the people but the law of the state of California, solemnly passed by the state legislature and acquiesced in by the president and every faction in California, has been nullified."

EXPLOSION OF BOMBS IN RIOTS KILLS ONE AND INJURES 25 MEN

Cavalry Used to Disperse Mob in Streets of Lisbon; Warships as Guardhouses.

Lisbon, June 22.—One man was killed and 25 were injured today by the explosion of five bombs, when rioting, which began last night, was resumed early today. Frequently cavalry charges were ordered to disperse the mobs, and the extra military services were ordered in the principal streets and squares. There were numerous arrests and the rioters were confined on warships which were kept under full arms in the harbor.

HYPNOTISM CHARGED AGAINST DARROW IN JURY BRIBERY HEARING

District Attorney Fredericks Attacks Motives of Lawyer on Trial at Los Angeles.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Hall of Records, Los Angeles, June 22.—Confusion reigned in Judge Hutton's court during the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, on a jury bribery charge today, when District Attorney Fredericks, hair disheveled and quivering with rage, leaped to his feet during a grueling cross-examination of John B. Harrington by Chief Counsel Earl Rogers and charged Darrow with trying to hypnotize the witness.
"Darrow is trying to get Harrington to look him in the eye," shouted Fredericks. "If he catches that man's eye he will hypnotize him. I know whereof I speak. Darrow used hypnotism on poor George Behm (Ortie McManigal's uncle). He is trying to cast a spell over this witness right now. I heard some one whisper to Darrow to catch Harrington's eye. If he does, the witness will fall under his spell."
Yells and whoops of laughter filled the courtroom. Bailiffs vainly pounded for order.
"That's the most childish statement I ever heard in court in my life," gasped Darrow when he could speak.
It was no joke to the district attorney. He faced the howling spectators with flushed face and shouted the accusation. "I want your honor to instruct Darrow to keep his seat," he yelled. "Make him sit still. He is walking all over the room trying to get Harrington's eye and put a spell on him."
Above the turmoil Rogers yelled:
"Till you see the real reason why Harrington don't look either Mr. Darrow or myself in the eye. He's afraid. He dare not. For two days I've been trying to catch his shifty gaze, but he won't look at me."
Harrington kept his gaze steadily averted, looking over the jurors' heads with his face turned sharply away from the attorney's table. As the court bailliffs were having great difficulty in trying to subdue the laughter, court adjourned temporarily.
