

REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS PRESENTED PICTORIALY AND IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

All the Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for the Edification of Journal Readers.

Congressional

LITTLE business was transacted by congress this week, the big show at Chicago having a greater attraction for the members than the routine of congressional work.

The house on Tuesday passed the National Institute of Arts and Letters bill which creates about 150 American "honorary" Academicians.

A resolution calling for a congressional investigation of the charges of bribery at the Republican national convention has been prepared by Representative Litten and will be submitted next week.

Because of the difference of opinion that exist in and out of congress, there will be no legislation at this session looking to the regulation of grazing on the public domain.

The house judiciary committee, which investigated charges of judicial impropriety against Judge Robert F. Archbold of the commerce court has voted unanimously to recommend that the house prefer articles of impeachment against him.

Executive

PRESIDENT TAFT has vetoed the army appropriation bill. His main objection is the legislative provision which would oust Major General Wood from the office of chief of staff next March.

Secretary Mac Veagh has placed in operation in the treasury department a currency washing machine which is expected to save the government at least half a million dollars annually.

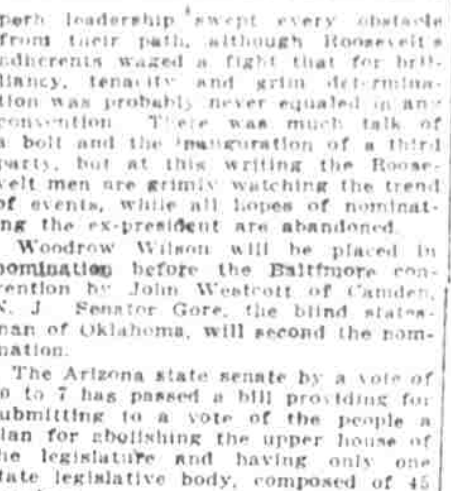

The war department has ordered 30,000 government rations sent to Alaska to be distributed as food among those made destitute by the volcanic eruptions on Kodiak Island.

Efforts are being made to induce the president to forward to congress a special message urging appropriations for military equipment in July.

President Taft has pardoned Franklin P. Mays, convicted for land frauds at Portland in 1907. The same reasons are assigned for the pardon of Mays as being in effect that the jury box was packed by Francis J. Heney, the government prosecutor, and William J. Burns, the detective.

Political

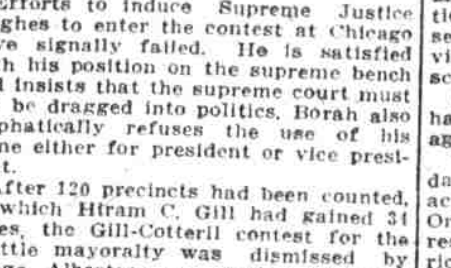

THE grand climax of the whirlwind campaign for the Republican presidential nomination was reached in Chicago this week in one of the most exciting conventions in the history of the country.

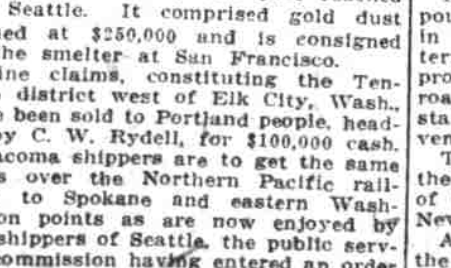

1—Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City bank of New York, on the witness stand before the Pujo committee of the house which is investigating the so-called "money trust."

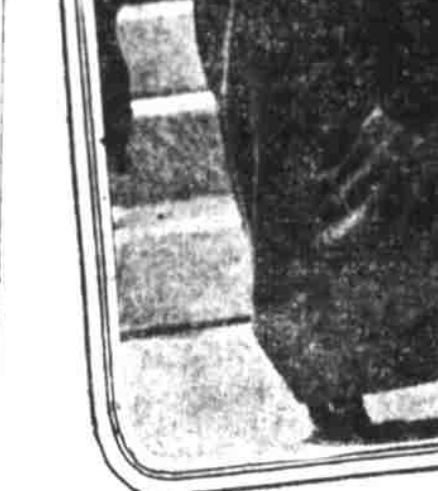

2—The American Olympic committee photographed at the Waldorf Astoria in New York where it made the selections for the American team to the Stockholm games.

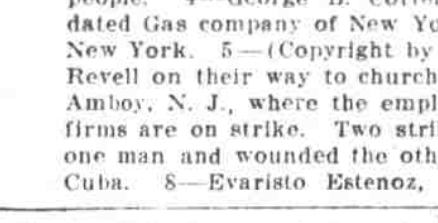

3—General view of the Columbus memorial unveiling at Washington, D. C., June 8, which was witnessed by over 50,000 people.

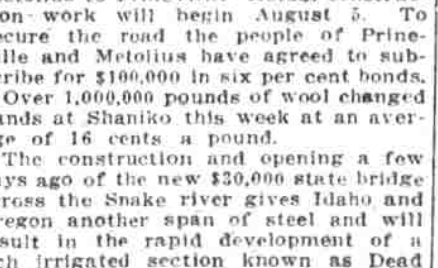

4—George B. Cortelyou, former secretary of the treasury and now president of the Consolidated Gas company of New York, photographed while a witness in the "money trust" investigation in New York.

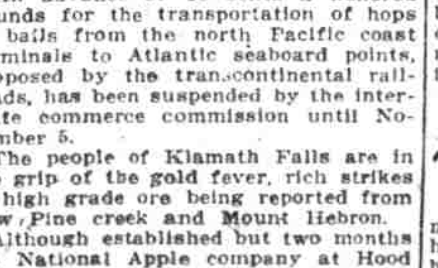

5—Colonel Roosevelt and Mrs. Alexander Revell on their way to church in Chicago.

6—Remarkable photograph taken after a riot in Perth Amboy, N. J., where the employees of the American Smelter & Refining company and other smaller firms are on strike.

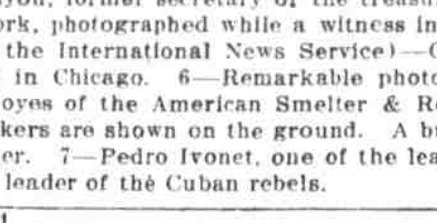

7—Pedro Ivonet, one of the leaders of the negro rebellion in eastern Cuba.

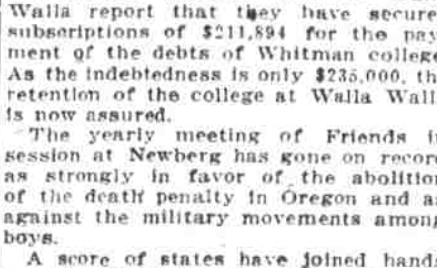

8—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

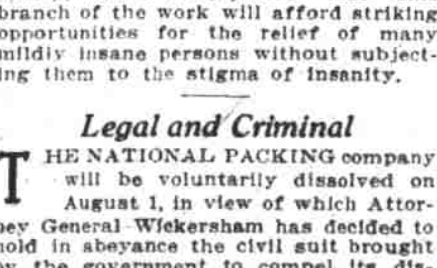

9—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

10—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

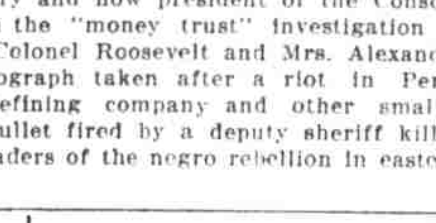

11—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

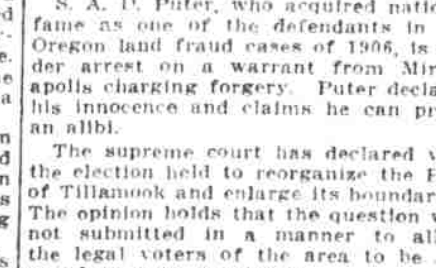

12—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

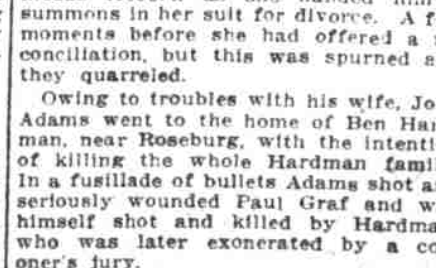

13—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

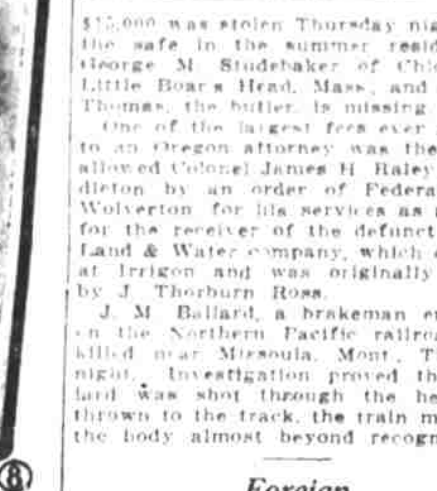

14—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

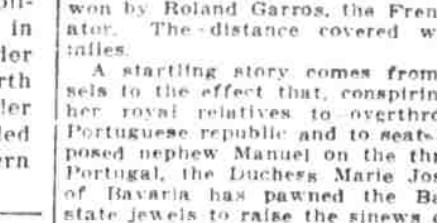

15—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

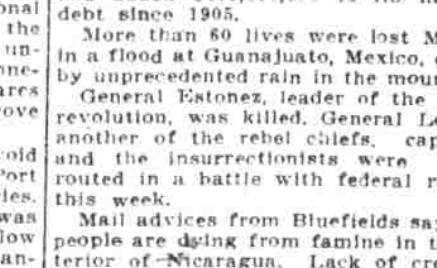

16—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

17—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

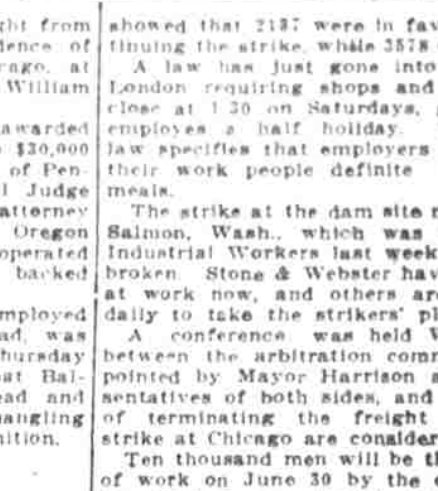

18—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

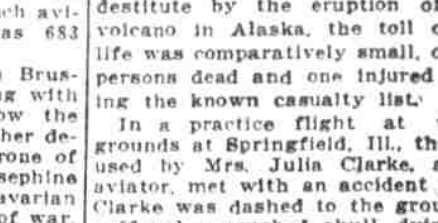

19—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

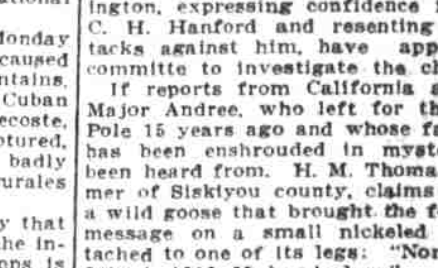

20—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

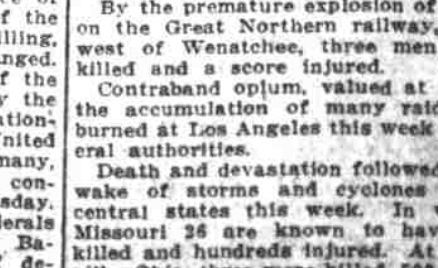

21—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

22—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

23—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

24—Evaristo Estenoz, leader of the Cuban rebels.

$15,000 was stolen Thursday night from the safe in the summer residence of George M. Studebaker of Chicago, at Little Bear's Head, Mass., and William Thomas, the butler, is missing.

One of the largest fees ever awarded to an Oregon attorney was the $20,000 allowed Colonel James H. Haley of Pendleton by an order of Federal Judge Wolverson for his services as attorney for the receiver of the defunct Oregon Land & Water company, which operated at Irigon and was originally backed by J. Thorburn Ross.

J. M. Ballard, a brakeman employed on the Northern Pacific railroad, was killed near Missoula, Mont., Thursday.

Investigation proved that Ballard had been shot through the head and thrown to the track, the train mangling the body almost beyond recognition.

A startling story comes from Brussels to the effect that, conspiring with her royal relatives to overthrow the Portuguese republic and to seather deposed nephew Manuel on the throne of Portugal, the Duchess Marie Josephine of Bavaria has pawned the Bavarian state jewels to raise the sinews of war.

More than 60 lives were lost Monday in a flood at Guanajuato, Mexico, caused by unprecedented rain in the mountains.

General Estenoz, leader of the Cuban revolution, was killed, General Lecoste, another of the rebel chiefs, captured, and the insurgent leaders were badly routed in a battle with federal rurales this week.

Mail advices from Bluefields say that people are dying from famine in the interior of Nicaragua. Lack of crops is given as the cause. It is declared revolution in the republic is imminent.

As Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George was about to open the Welsh bazaar in Claxton hall, London, he was savagely assaulted and roughly handled by a mob of military suffragettes.

At Douai, France, during heavy fog, two biplanes collided head on. Both planes were splintered and fell together in a heap, the occupants being horribly mangled.

Italy has agreed to a conference of the powers for the settlement of the war with Turkey. If Turkey is willing, an armistice will speedily be arranged.

An agreement on the subject of the Chinese loan has been reached by the delegates of the group of international bankers representing the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and Japan.

The $300,000,000 contract was signed in Paris Wednesday. A decisive battle between the federalists and rebels is expected hourly at Chichibu, south of Chihuahua. If defeated, Orozco, states the rebels will divide into numerous mobile bands and start upon a guerrilla warfare.

Federal forces are harassed by the destruction of bridges north of Orizaba, eight of them having been blown up by the rebels. According to Orozco, the city of Chihuahua will be evacuated by the rebels rather than allow its residents to be submitted to the dangers of a bombardment.

Four year old Norman Bruce, a Seattle boy, playfully pointed a rifle at his 11 year old brother William. An explosion followed and William fell with a shot through the abdomen.

As a protest against the high cost of meat, women of Philadelphia have decided to boycott the butcher shops. A demonstration Wednesday evening at the southern part of the city, which women entered the shops, established houses over the streets.

Labor Notes

A N. and has been put to the dock by workers strike in London by a refusal to work of the National Federation of Transport Workers, which

Miscellaneous

ALTHOUGH many districts were laid waste, once fertile soil turned into ash heaps, and hundreds made destitute by the eruption of Katmai volcano in Alaska, the toll of human life was comparatively small, only three persons dead and one injured comprising the known casualty list.

until the wholesale meat dealers give them relief.

According to statistics just made public, lumber and timber manufacturers rank third in value among the products of the industries of the United States.

There are 46,571 establishments, 784,535 persons engaged in the industry and the value of the products in 1911 was $1,155,128,747.

Engineers began work this week on the survey for the new railroad from Metolius to Prineville. Actual construction work will begin August 5.

The steel steamship Edith, which sailed from Seattle on June 6 for Nome with a cargo of livestock, provisions and coal, is fast in an ice pack 45 miles southeast of St. Lawrence Island and unable to turn a wheel.

None of the Alaska anti-trust cases, in which several transportation companies and their officers are charged, will be tried this summer, according to word received from Washington.

Zollie Clement, convicted of killing William H. Newman, a Stockton, Cal., saloonkeeper, has been sentenced to life imprisonment. Clement confessed to having killed five persons, among whom was Patrolman Brown of Oakland in 1904.

S. A. P. Pater, who acquired national fame as one of the defendants in the Oregon land fraud cases of 1905, is under arrest on a warrant from Minneapolis charging forgery. Pater declares his innocence and claims he can prove an alibi.

The supreme court has declared void the election held to reorganize the Port of Tillamook and enlarge its boundaries. The opinion holds that the question was submitted in a manner to allow the legal voters of the area to be annexed to vote separately.

Some excitement was created in Salem by the discovery of a human skull, half eaten in a kettle of quiklime, in the top of the Gray building. Patches of hair and bloodstains are still clinging to the bone and indented in the forehead is a piece of lead having the appearance of a flattened bullet.

Legal and Criminal

THE NATIONAL PACKING company will be voluntarily dissolved on August 1, in view of which Attorney General Wickersham has decided to hold in abeyance the civil suit brought by the government to compel its disintegration.

The people of Klamath Falls are in the grip of the gold fever, rich strikes of high grade ore being reported from New Pine creek and Mount Hebron.

Although established but two months the National Apple company at Hood River has shipped orders for 12 carloads to be shipped in the fall and early winter.

Sociological

IN an address before the Washington State Federation of Women's clubs at Spokane, Mrs. A. E. House classed club women in two divisions, the workers and the shirkers. She strongly urged club women to take up serious work.