

KEYNOTE SPEECH OF JAMES GIVES BLOW TO TARIFF

Permanent Chairman Says Bryan Will Be Given Place With Jefferson and Jackson in Country's History.

(United Press Special Wire.)
 Army, Baltimore, June 27.—On taking his place as permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention, Senator-elect Ollie M. James of Kentucky said:
 "Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: I am deeply grateful to this convention of patriotic American Democrats for the honor you have bestowed upon me in calling on me to preside over your deliberations while you select the next president of this great republic.
 "I congratulate the Democrats of the nation upon the fortunate auspices under which we have assembled. Here no charge of bribery hovers above this hall; no cry of thief and robber is hurled by one fellow Democrat at another. No soldiers stand in reserve to keep us from each other's throats.
 "Our deliberations here shall be for the country's good, according to each other's views, believing as I do that the business based by this convention will have the backing of every loyal Democrat in the country.

Party of the People.
 "The Democratic party is essentially a party of the people, because it is the people. It has fought a long, hard battle, when it seemed the night would never end and day would never dawn; but the battle in the interest of the rights of the people they have continued to make until we see the common enemy, the more great Republican party, divided, distracted and torn apart, while Democracy is harmonious and militant.
 "There are two records that will be presented to the American people in the coming campaign for their consideration. One is the record of the Republican party, with promises betrayed, arrogantly, and the other is the record of the Democratic party of promptness, faithfulness and honesty kept. The Republican party itself recognizing that President Taft had been unfaithful to the great mass of Americans, refused by a honest majority of the convention to nominate him, and it was only brought about by the most wholesale and deliberate unseating of delegates honestly elected that was ever perpetrated in American politics."
Review of Tariff Legislation.
 James then reviewed the tariff legislation of the Democratic house and bitterly arraigned President Taft for his vetoes of the revision bills, declaring that the trusts stood behind the Republican party to this end.
 "President Taft," he continued, "has the lone and singular distinction of being the only president in the life of this republic who ever vetoed bills cheapening clothing to the people, lumber to the homeless, and meat and bread in Americans and free farming implements to the toiling farmers."

Remove Trust Laws.
 "I believe in the rigid enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law. I would not only proceed against those great monopolies in equity and when I found them guilty, but I would divide their assets into separate parcels, but I would proceed against them under the criminal statutes and place them upon the felon's stripes. I do not believe that a monopoly can be reasonable, and I would not give a trust the right to monopolize reasonably than I would give a thief the right to steal reasonably. The trusts must be destroyed. We are not opposed to big business. We recognize that in a big country there must be big business, but we say with all the emphasis of our souls that big business, like little business, must obey the law.
Remove Protective Taxes.
 "We would strike from these trusts every vestige of protection. We would write a tariff law strictly for revenue only, and place the taxes upon the luxury and if it did not produce sufficient revenue, then upon the comforts of life, and lastly, we would lay the burden of taxation upon the necessities of life.
 "The Republican platform adopted at Chicago, upon the tariff and trust question, is a puzzle absolutely meaningless to the American people, but they may rest assured that to this puzzle the trusts hold the key.
Taft Opposed to Roosevelt Policies.
 "President Taft did not take time to carry out, but he kicked out Roosevelt's policies. The American people fear he will be as much mistaken in himself as he was in President Taft. If he wants to come with clean hands and a clear conscience, let him join with us and do what ought to have been done four years ago—elect a Democratic president.

 "President Taft is joined to Iola. His administration presents the most melancholy spectacle in all our national life. Repudiated in the minds of the people by the actions of a Democratic congress, his renomination forced by the wholesale unseating of Roosevelt delegates, he is left handed in both hands; does everything wrong and most generally on Friday; Roosevelt undertakes to achieve the presidency, by proclaiming himself the advocate of those policies which he was the presidency by denouncing.
Bryan Great Leader.
 "The progressive spirit that sweeps this country is called by some the principles of the progressives; by others the doctrine of the insurgents; but back reader when a voice in the western wilderness cried out for them they were called the vagaries of Bryan, the dreamer. However much we may differ in national conventions upon minor questions, all just men must admit that the one living American whose name will shine in history, studded by a thousand flaming stars, only behind that of Jefferson and Jackson, is that of William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska."
WILSON AIDES START BOOM FOR CLEVELANDER
 (United Press Special Wire.)
 Baltimore, June 27.—Wilson's supporters from Ohio, meeting in the room of National Committeeman Harvey C. Garber, today started a boom for Mayor Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, for the vice presidential nomination. Baker himself frowned on the boom, declaring as preferred to remain mayor Cleveland.
