Oropa Flourishing-N. C. Maria, agricultural expert of the O. A. C. extension division, returned yesterday from a tour through Harney and Grant counties in the interest of the state wide agricultural contest which is to result in an exhibit at the state fair next autumn. Mr. Marin was very much impressed with the crop outlook of the two cunties. They have had a great deal of rain this year." he said, "and every crop is flouishing. The production is greater than ever before and it is only to be regretted that the people do not have railroad transportation to encour age them in more intensive production. Man Missing Since June 18 .- J C. La-France, who left his home at 1035 East Twenty-fourth street, North, on the morning of June 18, to go fishing, has not returned to this date. It is pre-sumed that he went to Estacada, and from there to some place along the lackamas river or some of its branches. He is a member of the Woodman and secretary of the United Artisans. His wife and three children are dependent upon him. LaFrance is 32 years old, about five feet seven inches in height, about 140 pounds; dark brown hair; dark gray eyes, smooth shaven, last seen wearing khaki clothes, cream colored Stetson woft hat with narrow brim, low cut tan shoes, cream colored soft shirt; had with him U. S. knap-sack, jointed fish pole and reel. Any information concerning this man or his whereabouts should be communicated to the sheriff's office.

Ohio Society's Meeting-The third train on the Southern Pacific to Albany, meeting of the newly formed Chio so-clety was held last night in the Imperial hotel, with quite a large number of former Ohloans present. Ex-Governor Moore, of Washington, who traveled from Ohio to the coast in 1869, told of his experiences. Dr. Albert H. Ehrgott, formerly paster of the East Side Baptist church, said that he left Ohio because he told the truth and because of doing the same thing while pastor he lost his position. Miss Eugenian Keating, a teacher in the Ockley Green school, told why she came to Oregon, telling her reasons in postry. At the next meeting of the society Mrs. Albert H. Ehrgott will relate her experiences while a missionary in India

Murserymen to Meet Here-Word was received by the promotion department of the Commercial club this morning that the Pacific Coast Association of Nurserymen had unanimously voted to hold its annual meeting in Portland probably next June. The message came from C. A. Tomeson, secretary-treasurer, resident of Tacoma. The National As-sociation of Nurserymen is also to convene in Portland next summer and it is likely the two conventions will be held in conjunction.

Twenty-five Thousand Dollar Note Reld Good-A note given by M. B. Ran-kin to the Title Guarantee & Trust company for $25,000, was held good yester-day by County Judge Cleeton. The action was brought by the American Surety company as a claim against the Rankin estate for money lost on a bond for George A. Steel, former state treasurer. The surety company had to make good on the bond, taking the $25,000 note as its security.
