

DISGUSTED CROWD LEAVES LAS VEGAS

Say Johnson-Flynn Fiasco Poorest Fight Witnessed in Many Years.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Las Vegas, N. M., July 5.—It was a disgusted crowd of fight fans that boarded trains for their homes today after having witnessed the Johnson-Flynn heavyweight fight yesterday, which most of them characterized as the poorest excuse for a prize fight they had seen in many a day.

Flynn Badly Battered.

Today, as the result of the terrific beating he received, Flynn's nose was broken, both eyes were black, his cheek was laid open and his lips and both ears were puffed up enormously. Johnson, on the other hand, bore not a mark of the so-called battle, with the exception of slightly puffed lips, which he received when Flynn deliberately butted him in the mouth with his head.

Although Flynn declared today that he had been robbed, there were few who witnessed the fight who paid any attention to his claims. The white man did not venture down town during the morning, preferring to remain at his Montezuma Springs quarters until the crowd of fans had dwindled.

Johnson, on the other hand, was the picture of good humor and his "golden smile" was very much in evidence. "You know I have always fought on the level," he told the United Press correspondent. "I have been accused of having a yellow streak in numerous fights, but I have never been guilty. I have many times overlooked foul tactics of other fighters, but I cannot understand why this fellow Flynn was allowed to go on as long as he did without being disqualified. I complained to the referee several times, but there was nothing doing except warnings until the police took the matter into their own hands."

Didn't Extend Self.

Johnson insisted that he had not had to extend himself at any stage of the fight, and that if it had not been for Flynn's foul tactics he would not have borne a single mark. The champion spent the day packing up his effects preparatory to leaving for Chicago over the Santa Fe at 11 tonight, accompanied by his wife and his entire staff of trainers.

The consensus of opinion here today is that it will be many years before a heavyweight fighter is developed capable of wrestling the title from Johnson. Johnson made his fourth and hopeless fight almost from the start. As early as the third round it was evident he had no chance. In the sixth round Referee Smith warned the white man, stopping the contest to say that he would award the decision to Johnson unless Flynn stopped his butting tactics.

Splits Flynn's Nose.

In the seventh, Watson Burns, Johnson's chief trainer, loudly claimed a foul, but Flynn continued to butt Johnson in the same manner. Jack evidently tried to overlook the "dirty work," but in the eighth round could stand it no longer and appealed to the referee. Smith again stopped the contest and gave Flynn what he called final warning.

Johnson seemed serious in the ninth and split Flynn's nose wide open with a vicious straight left jab about a minute after the round began. The Puebloan, angered by the blow, deliberately ran at Johnson and butted him in the mouth three times. Before Smith could speak, Fornoff jumped into the ring and stopped the fight, and Smith tapped Johnson on the back, awarding him the decision.

Except in the last couple of rounds, when Flynn insisted on butting, Johnson refused to take the fight seriously. He towered high above the white man in the clinches and good naturedly "joshed" and joked with the crowd and with Flynn.

Whenever Flynn seriously tried to land a blow, Johnson displayed a cleverness and ease in blocking and getting away that made Flynn look like the worst tyro.

BEAVERS DIVIDE WITH STATESMEN

Klawitter Adds Another to His String of Victories in Afternoon.

Sacramento, Cal., July 5.—The Beavers and Senators broke even in the Independence day doubleheader. The locals won the morning game by the score of 4 to 3 and tasted defeat in the afternoon game by the same score.

Busher, Gaddy and Young, Gregg looked up in a pitcher's battle in the morning game. Gregg was given poor support at times, and the Beavers were unable to connect with Gaddy's curves until the ninth, when they scored two runs.

Portland got five hits off Gaddy, while eight were made off Gregg. Sacramento scored the first run in the fourth inning, and both teams scored one in the sixth. In the eighth a couple of errors with two hits netted the Senators two more runs and the game. The Beavers started a rally in the ninth, but it was ended after two runs were scored.

Gober, McCredie's new recruit pitcher, played third base in the morning game and Hank Butcher also got into the game and landed out one hit in two times at bat.

Timely hitting and excellent base running gave the Beavers the afternoon contest. Klawitter was on the mound for the Beavers, and Arrellanes pitched for Senators.

The series now stands three and one in favor of Portland. The scores:

JACK CURLEY LOSES $15,000 ON CONTEST

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Las Vegas, N. M., July 5.—The fistic fiasco whereby Jack Johnson retained his heavyweight championship title by defeating Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, cost Jack Curley, the promoter, about $15,000. This is the statement made today by Curley, who says that this loss does not include the $10,000 guarantee put up by the business men of the city to bring the fight here.

"I paid Johnson $31,000 yesterday morning," Curley declared. "The gate receipts of the fight will amount to approximately $35,000. Every dollar of the expenses of promoting the fight was borne by myself personally, no one else being interested with me.

VISITING RACERS IN PORTLAND MEET

Seattle and Spokane Motorcyclists After Prizes in Sunday's Races.

The entry list for the race meet that is to be held Sunday by the Portland Motorcycle club and the F. A. M. at the Country club track was to be closed Thursday evening, July 4, but owing to the departure of the club's racers and the most of its membership to the Seattle club's Independence day races, it was not closed until Saturday. Six entries were received from the Seattle club and they and their machines were brought back Friday. R. Knudson of Spokane has entered and will drive a Harley Seven, and Ross Cummings of the same city is to race.

These promises to be more entries from out of the city than from the local club, and this should make the meet that has ever been held here. The beautiful weather of the past few days has put the course in better shape than ever before and very fast time has been made in the tryouts of the last couple of days.

H. Zob will not drive his German machine in this meet but will ride an American mount with which he hopes to clear the track. Vern Maskell will be astride an Indian, as will be Fred Nowatny, and Roy Brown, L. T. Loan and Chesley Roles will make up the Flying Merkel squad. Gus Poppel, one of the best known of the local riders, will take an Excelsior around the track, while Harry Brant will pilot a Thor. Special machines have been received by the different dealers and they will be ready and on the track for the meet.

Among the freaks that will race are the Waiby Flyer, made by Poiler & Waiby of Portland, and the Bailey Flyer, made by Bob Bailey of this city. The Waiby machine has a single cylinder that will develop about eight horsepower, and the Bailey machine has a huge nine horse engine. Fast time should be made by these engines, which have no competitors, and while they will only do exhibition stunts they should be very interesting.

The officials for the meet have been chosen and J. B. Lindsay, treasurer of the local club and state referee will be referee for the meet. H. W. Reibenstein, C. Menzies, and A. L. Short are the judges, and the timers will be B. Campbell, H. Jaeger and E. J. Jaeger.

The meet will start at 2:30 o'clock and music will be furnished by Campbell's American band during the afternoon. Special car service has been arranged for the races over the Rose City Park line and also over the race track line. Twelve races will be run in all.

OTTO BERG OUTBOXES SAILOR FOR 10 ROUNDS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oakland, Cal., July 5.—Otto Berg, the Astoria, Or., middleweight, has won favor with the fans here today as a result of his showing against Sailor Ed Petrosky, whom he held to a 10 round draw. Throughout the mill, Berg outboxed the sailor, but was unable to land an effective punch. In the last two rounds Berg tired and enabled Petrosky to even up matters enough to get a draw.

McMinnville This Year Will Pave 22 Blocks

(Special to The Journal.)
McMinnville, Or., July 5.—City Engineer Robert Jones has a crew surveying lines and establishing grades for the curbs on the streets which are to be improved with hard surface pavement. The Walnut city is to pave 22 blocks this year, consisting of Third street, which is the main thoroughfare of the town, and the cross streets leading to it for one block north and south. The installation of iron water mains to replace the wooden pipes has been completed in the streets that will be paved.
