LONG BEACH
LONG BEACH, WASH., July 6.—As no firecrackers or explosives are allowed to be sold in the state of Washington, North Beach had a safe and sane celebration. Safe and sane, yes—but one would hardly think so if he witnessed the races and general celebration at Ilwaco and Long Beach.

A big crowd of pre-convention delegates and visitors are expected to week-end at North Beach. To many who come from interior portions of the country and who have never seen the Pacific ocean or any ocean, this will be a golden opportunity. Visitors may stay at the beach until 8 o'clock Sunday evening and arrive in Portland early on Monday morning, in plenty of time for convention meeting.

New Hotel Opened.
The Woman's Industrial corporation of Portland has rented the Honolulus cottage on the board walk at Seaview and it is open for guests. Mrs. Clara E. Hyerday has been appointed manager.
