

LIFE IS PLEASANT FOR ELKS ON WAY; SEATTLE IS HOST

New York, Jersey City and Cincinnati. Trainload Arrives; Indianapolis, Denver, Brooklyn, Cincinnati, Near.

(Special to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., July 6.—Three hundred Elks and 75 ladies from New York, Jersey City and Cincinnati enroute to the grand lodge at Portland, arrived tonight and are guests of the local lodge. They came across the continent by special train to Vancouver, B. C., and thence to Seattle by boat. Their train came here in advance and will continue to Portland by the O. & W. railway, probably leaving in the morning.

Sixteen uniformed members of No. 92 went to Victoria this morning and returned with the visitors, who were met at the pier by a band and scores of automobiles. They were at once taken to the local lodge rooms where tonight high jinks of an informal nature were held.

Members of No. 92 are taking advantage of the opportunity to get support for Seattle's claim for the grand lodge in 1915. Hospitality reigned supreme and the visitors were impressed with western cordiality. Tomorrow morning another delegation from No. 92 goes to Victoria to meet a party of 300 from Indianapolis, Boston and Connecticut, who will arrive by boat at 9 o'clock Sunday night.

The Denver special with 150 is due at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and 200 from Brooklyn will arrive early in the afternoon. All of these are expected to leave for Portland Sunday night, in time for the opening of the grand lodge. The local lodge rooms have been filled the entire week with visitors but despite the strenuous time entertaining Seattle Elks have not forgotten that they are going to Portland en masse Wednesday night.

SAN FRANCISCO IS AFTER REUNION; SENDS MANY ELKS

(Special to The Journal.) San Francisco, July 6.—"San Francisco, 1915 and the Elks' convention." This is the slogan of the Elks of California, who left tonight on special trains to attend the annual reunion of the grand lodge in Portland July 8 to 13. They have organized to secure the 1915 grand lodge reunion for San Francisco and are confident that this gathering of the Elks will be one of the features of the exposition.

"The San Francisco special" carries on the part of its observation car a big electric sign with the wording: "Grand Lodge, San Francisco, 1915." All of the California lodges have worked out special badges for the Portland convention, in which "1915" will be a feature.

Thousands from California. Four hundred Elks of San Francisco are making the pilgrimage to Portland, and more than 2000 will be in attendance from the state representing all of the 4 lodges. A drill corps of 82 members and the Third artillery band of 37 pieces have been taken to the convention city by the San Francisco Elks. Oakland also will have its drill corps, and with the lodges from Alameda and Berkeley, will attract notice with performances by the Fifth Regimental band.

A preliminary conference of representatives from lodges in the Bay district was held before departure in the Elks' hall, with P. J. Lynch, exalted ruler of San Francisco Lodge No. 3, as chairman, for the purpose of laying plans for the campaign to bring the 1915 convention to the exposition city. The following Elks were in attendance at the conference:

Delegates in Conference. San Francisco Lodge No. 3—P. J. Lynch, exalted ruler; J. H. Harbour, representative; in grand lodge; William M. Abbott, alternate.

Oakland Lodge No. 171—David St. Clair, exalted ruler; W. H. L. Hynes, representative; Walter Noffsinger, alternate.

Alameda Lodge No. 1015—Will C. Wood, exalted ruler; Thomas H. Huskins, representative; Herold C. Ward, alternate.

Berkeley Lodge No. 1002—F. M. Sweeney, exalted ruler; Dr. Herbert Rowell, representative; James Cofford, alternate.
