FLATHEAD BAND ONE OF FINEST ORGANIZATIONS TO BE HEARD ON CITY'S STREETS

Delegations From All Sections Endeavor to Outrival Each Other in Production of Novel Features.

Marching, singing, yelling, noise- making, fun-making Elks filled the streets ast night and today and made the city's downtown region hum and vibrate with excitement.

Nearly every delegation in the city, however small, did its best to outrival all others in the amount of noise and laughter-provoking stunts. There were many novel features. Maude, the Idaho mule, did her share. The "poppy pickefs" from Los Angeles and southern California, created some excitement. Scattle, Tacoma and Everett held up

Splendid Electric Parade.

"I have never seen anything anywhere that in splendor and beauty could equal the electric parade the other night. It was a rare treat. I want to say that the man who produced the electric light effects that brought out the colors on those floats was a real artist, and I show what I am talking about, for I am in the electrical business in Philadelphia myself. Moreover, I was in charge of the electrical feature of the entertainment of the Elks when they had their convention in Philadelphia, but we had nothing that could compare to this. CORPORATIONS EXPECT MALARKEY BILL TO PASS

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Balem, Or., July 11 .-- "The public util, ities of the state are putting their houses in order in anticipation of the approval by the people of the Malarkey bill, which gives this commission the same supervision over all public utilities that we now have over railroads," said Clyde B. Aitchison, chairman of the railfoad commission. During the last two months I have
