Resume of the Events of Friday Afternoon and Night; Paragraphed for Quick Digestion by Journal Readers.

Congressional.

A majority of the Republican senators are anxious to postpone the impeachment of Judge Archbald until cooler weather, meantime allowing both the house, which adopted the articles of impeachment with but one dissenting vote, and the counsel for defense ample time for preparation. The Democratic senators are disposed to favor early action, but both sides agree that Judge Archbald's preference should be given serious consideration.

President Taft has approved senate bill authorizing him to reinstate Captain Robert H. Peck in the army, but in a memorandum expressed disapproval of the disposition to retry before congressional committees cases of dismissal directly conducted with entire propriety before legally constituted courts-martial. The Pepper bill to bring the National Guard into closer touch with the regular army has been favorably reported by the house military affairs committee. Under the bill the federal government would disburse about $8,000,000 a year to the 10,000 commissioned officers and the 112,000 enlisted men of the National Guard.

The senate on Friday was officially notified of the British protest against the Panama canal administration when Secretary of State Knox in a letter to Senator Brandegee, chairman of the senate interoceanic canal committee, outlined objections raised by Great Britain. Charging and then refunding tolls is declared a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and coastwise exemption is objected to.

Political.

In a letter to Hugh T. Halbert, Minnesota Roosevelt leader, who recently mailed a circular letter to all candidates for governor in that state, asking them to go on record in support of the proposed new third party movement, Governor Eberhard positively refused to join the third party movement.

Having filed an acceptance to his nomination as a candidate for United States senator or the Democratic ticket, George W. Tannahill of Lewiston, Idaho, made a sworn statement withdrawing from the ticket, and now he follows that up with a request to withdraw his withdrawal, reaffirming his acceptance and asks to have his name properly certified to by Secretary of State Clifford. The secretary, however, has certified the list to respective county recorders, and the name of only William E. Borah appears under the heading of candidate for the United States senate.

Colonel Roosevelt has assured Senator Borah personally and also through Senator Dixon that he will not place a third ticket in the field this year in Idaho, or in the states of other insurgent senators or representatives who fear that a third ticket would endanger their chances of reelection to congress. Borah is not in sympathy with the third ticket program.

Timothy L. Woodruff of New York and A. P. Moore of Pittsburgh, called on Colonel Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill Friday. Mr. Woodruff talked over the work of organizing the new party in Manhattan and Mr. Moore discussed the situation generally. Mr. Moore as he was departing said that he would bet $500

AFTER LONG SUFFERING

These Two Women's Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read Their Own Statements.

Cheneyville, La.—"Some time ago when in poor health, suffering from female illness, I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I soon felt better and gained in strength and flesh. A gradual improvement continued as I took the Compound, and from 120 pounds I now weigh 155, and feel that my life has been prolonged."

"I deeply regret that I did not know of your medicine long before I did. Friends often speak of the wonderful change in my health, and I tell them that your medicine did it."—Mrs. J. W. STANLEY, Cheneyville, La.

Distressing Case of Mrs. M. Gary, Chicago, Ill.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache and it has certainly made a new woman of me. After my first baby was born I was left a perfect wreck. I was so weak I could hardly do my household duties and suffered with an awful backache. But since I have used your Compound the pains in my back have left me and I am strong again."

"My mother used it also through Change of Life and speaks very highly of it. You can use this letter any way you wish. I think it is only fair for one who has suffered as much as I, to let others know of your great remedy."—Mrs. M. GARY, 2368 N. Ridgeway Ave., Chicago, Ill.

CHAUTAUQUA HAS BANNER THROUG, FORUM A FEATURE

2500 People Greet First Appearance of Chicago Operatic Co. in Big Auditorium—Class Attendance Large.

High tide of the season was reached at the Chautauqua assembly at Gladstone Park yesterday, when at least 2500 people thronged into the auditorium to hear the Chicago Operatic company at its first appearance, and not one went away disappointed. Music rules supreme for another day, and the same company will appear both this afternoon and evening. All that has been said in favoring of Mr. Middleton's voice, or indeed of the entire company has been made good by them, and the increased crowds this morning which are being added to by every incoming car, testify to the popularity of the company.

While many came, no doubt, from having received such favorable accounts of the musical attractions yesterday, the forum had much to do with drawing the early morning attendance. It is Child Welfare day with Dr. W. T. Foster of Reed College as speaker. After the regular platform program today, a meeting for discussion will be held at the kindergarten building. Miss Goldie Peterson will be the soloist with Professor Chapman's orchestra both this afternoon and evening. The attendance at the classes is phenomenal; never has there been anything like the number of students. This is accounted for in two ways—the increased number of campers and the exceptionally fine corps of instructors. Mrs. Miller's class in domestic science includes many young girls among the students. The demonstrations this morning were, stuffed peppers, omelets, strawberry puffs and sauce.

Mrs. Webster's class in American art has outgrown its designated quarters and has taken refuge in the big auditorium.

Professor Grille drilled over 60 boys this morning, and each morning sees an increase in attendance.

At the Portland Women's club, "Votes for Women" is very much in evidence, and the first round table of the season, organized to discuss the suffrage amendment which will be voted on next November, was held, with Mrs. Hadden in charge. Mrs. M. A. Dalton is untiring in her efforts to make the State Federation headquarters comfortable and attractive, and she is succeeding admirably.

On Sunday at 3:30 p. m., Miss Helen Varick Boswell will give an informal talk on her work in organizing the Canal Zone Federation, which was done under the auspices of the United States government. The meeting will be held in the open before the headquarters of the Oregon Federation. A large attendance is expected, for Miss Boswell has had an unique experience and knows how to relate it interestingly.

The first real social event of the season took place yesterday, and it was one long to be remembered. Mrs. Herbert G. Reed, Mrs. Julia La Barr, Mrs. E. Preble, Mrs. Allen Todd, Mrs. Robert Silkenitter and Miss Nina Joy have a charming camp which they call "Mary Arden" and where they live when they are not on duty down at the Shakespeare headquarters which is under their care. Here they gave a lovely luncheon with Professor Lee Emerson Bassett, who is conducting the Shakespeare class from 9 to 10 each morning, and Mrs. Katherine Oliver McCoy as honor guests. The club colors, green and white, were used in the decorations, and the place cards carried Shakespeare quotations. After the luncheon a public reception was given at headquarters.

Kipling's Boots. The hostesses served delicious fruit punch, and the guests were charmingly entertained by several readings by the honor guests. Professor Bassett read Kipling's "Boots," and Mrs. McCoy read several Scotch selections, among them being "Tam O'Shanter."

The Shakespeare club will hold a round table each afternoon at 4 o'clock. Every preparation was going forward today in prospect of the large attendance which is expected Sunday. Weather conditions are ideal, the grounds are in excellent shape, and the uncertainty of getting a square meal is removed by the well conducted restaurant, therefore many who have heretofore been deterred from spending a Sunday at Chautauqua by any or all of these reasons will be glad to take advantage of the exceptional opportunity this Sunday will offer for a pleasant time. The program for the day is:

10:30—Sunday school, Rev. C. A. Phipps, president of the State Sunday association, superintendent.

Afternoon. 2:00—Music by Chautauqua Chorus, under the direction of Professor F. T. Chapman, musical director. Solists, Miss Goldie Peterson and Charles Duncan McNeil. Lecture, Charles Edward Russell, author, journalist and lecturer: "Soldiers of the Common Good."

4:00—Sacred concert, Chapman's orchestra. 5:00—Chautauqua Chorus—Soloists, Miss Peterson and Mr. McNeil. Lecture—Sermon: "The Age of the Young Man," by Lou J. Beauchamp.
