

THE 300 SUITS IN OIL LAND CASES

Litigation Over Title in California Involves Land Valued at $1,000,000,000; Accounting to Be Demanded.

San Antonio, Texas, July 13.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez is awaiting official notification that, for the third time, he has been chosen provisional president of the republic of Mexico. Advice reaching here today declare General Orozco has finally been prevailed upon to agree to the naming of Gomez. It is stated by the latter's friends, however, that he will not accept unless he has every assurance from Orozco and the other rebel chiefs that his word as president will be accepted as final.

GOMEZ IS CHOSEN REBEL PRESIDENT

Reports Show That General Orozco Has Agreed to Support Old Leader.

Gomez's last experiences as a revolutionary president ended in three days. After being summoned to Juarez to assume office he was compelled to flee the country in haste when Orozco suddenly renounced him and declared for his secretary as president.

MARVELS OF U. S. WIN 2 MORE BIG RACES IN SWEDEN

When the games were resumed today the Americans were leading with a total in the track and field events of 61 points, as compared with 51 for all other teams combined. John Paul Jones, the great Cornell runner, who was expected to prove a tower of strength to the Yankees, is out of the game. The doctors told him yesterday that if he didn't let up for a brief period he would break down, and he was reluctantly forced to follow their advice.

CORNELL MAN IS WORN OUT

When the games were resumed today the Americans were leading with a total in the track and field events of 61 points, as compared with 51 for all other teams combined. John Paul Jones, the great Cornell runner, who was expected to prove a tower of strength to the Yankees, is out of the game. FINN MOST LIKELY MARATHONER.

Confident they can beat all other men in the marathon, the great event of the present Olympic meeting, which will run tomorrow, the American entrants and managers admitted today that they could probably not hold Kolehmainen, the wonderful Finnish distance runner, against the great Cornell runner, who has done nothing but rest and take limbering up walks since Wednesday and are in the pink of condition, but Hayes admitted that he expected the great Finn would be the winner.

KAYES PRESENT AS TRAINER.

Johnny Hayes, winner of the London Marathon and in charge today of the Americans who will start in tomorrow's heart-breaking race, said this afternoon he was hopeful of the outcome. His men have done nothing but rest and take limbering up walks since Wednesday and are in the pink of condition, but Hayes admitted that he expected the great Finn would be the winner.

THEIR TRIUMPH TODAY IN THE DECADE.

There was interest today in the decade, the all-around event, which started with a 100 meter dash. It includes the run, a running broad jump, putting the weight, best hand; running high jump, 400 meter flat race, 110 meter hurdles, throwing the discus, pole vault, throwing the javelin and a 1500 meter flat race.

THEIR TRIUMPH TODAY IN THE DECADE.

The 100 meter sprint was contested by 29 athletes. Of the Americans, Thorpe of Carlisle, Eugene L. Mercer of University of Pennsylvania, and Harry S. Babcock of Columbia, won their heats. James J. Donohue of Los Angeles, got a second, and George Philbrook, Notre Dame, landed a third. L. F. Lukeman, a Canadian, won his heat.

TEARS OF DELAYS CAUSED BY RAILROADS JUST PROTECT FORESTS

Superintendent for Wakefield First Witness in Suit to Collect $408,000.

H. W. Hawley of Seattle, general superintendent for Robert Wakefield & Co. on the Mount Tabor reservoirs, was the first witness in the suit brought by the company against the city to collect $408,000 for the work. Hawley began his testimony this morning, relating how the work was carried on during the latter part of 1909 and throughout 1910. The witness told how the company was delayed by reason of the city not clearing the grounds between reservoirs Nos. 5 and 6. He stated that the two water pits had not been condemned, and the contractor could not dump the dirt from No. 5 until this house was moved. This condition of affairs necessitated a delay of three months, he said.

ALBANY-EUGENE CARS TO BE SOON RUNNING

(Special to The Journal.)

Junction City, Or., July 13.—Construction of the Oregon Electric tracks through Junction City is now well under way, and when this short section of roadway is graded, the whole line from Junction City to Eugene will be ready for the rails. Already some 25 miles of the rails have been laid, and it is a matter of only a few weeks until the cars can be running from the north.

ILLINOIS BOSS IS FINALLY BEATEN IN FIGHT FOR SEAT

December 12, 1910—United States subcommittee exonerated Lorimer, reporting charges not substantiated. Dec. 17, 1910—Erbelein juror disagreed. January 4, 1911—Illinois state senate appointed committee, with Senator Helm as chairman, to investigate charges of corruption in election of Lorimer.

REPUBLICANS VOTE FOR LORIMER.

Of the 23 senators voting today for Lorimer, 20 were Republicans and eight were Democrats. Senator Chilton of West Virginia was paired with Senator Bankhead, who was absent; Senators Davis of Arkansas and Heyburn, Idaho, who were paired, were both absent. Senator McLean of Connecticut, who was paired with Myers of Montana, was absent, but allowed Myers to vote against Lorimer.

TILMAN VOTES FOR LORIMER.

Just before the Lorimer vote was taken, Senator Tillman, enfeebled and weary, declined permission to the clerk read a statement which he said he was too weak physically to read. "I realize now that I have but little time before I must meet my maker," the statement declared. "I cast my vote for Lorimer in the conviction that Senator Lorimer had been elected without fraud."

LORIMER FIGHT INVOLVED SENATE FOR THREE YEARS

The trial of William Lorimer for legislative bribery, one of the most important events in the political history of the country in recent years, the case goes back three years and involves many men prominent in the public life of the United States. A thumbnail history of the case is given herewith. May 28, 1908—Lorimer elected by Republican and Democratic votes to the United States senate. April 30, 1910—Republican C. A. White gave confession, published in the Chicago Tribune, that he received $1000 from Lee O'Neil Browne for voting for Lorimer and $5000 from Republican R. E. Wilson as his share of general corruption fund.

RAILROADS JUST PROTECT FORESTS

Railway Commissioners of Alberta Issue an Order Against Carelessness.

(Special to The Journal.) Edmonton, Alta., July 13.—Railroad companies operating in the province of Alberta are held liable for every forest fire starting within 300 yards of their rights-of-way and in the event it gets beyond control their men must fight it for at least 10 miles, the roads being also responsible for the cost of the work and the resultant damage to public or private property. The foregoing is embodied in an order issued by Clyde Leavitt, chief fire inspector for the board of railway commissioners, effective on the Canadian Pacific line, July 5, and on the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern lines, July 15.

WOMAN SPEAKER TALKS ON 'WOMAN'

Mrs. Frances Squire Potter Addresses Audience at Taylor St. Church.

To a good sized audience at Taylor Street M. E. church last night Mrs. Frances Squire Potter, writer, speaker and suffrage worker of note, gave an interesting lecture on "The American Mother and the American Son." Mrs. Potter is a fluent speaker, and the address was scholarly. Dr. Luther R. Drott of the First Congregational church introduced Mrs. Potter with a few words. Mrs. Sarah A. Evans presided.

ROOSEVELT MEN IN A QUANDARY

Some Leaders Say There is No Need of Third Ticket; To Meet Monday.

Roosevelt men who have allied themselves with the new party movement seem to be as sea as to how far they will go in nominating a third party ticket in this state. Some of the leaders say there is no need for a third ticket, but others assert no quarter must be allowed, and that nominations should be made from United States senator to constable.

LANE IN QUESTION NOT DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE
